CITATIONS

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

DETECTIVE
MICHAEL J. ALMANDI

Detective Michael J. Almandi awarded a Class "C" Citation for his actions under the following circumstances:

On May 16, 1972, at 1:45 P.M., Detective Michael Almandi responded to a holdup alarm at the Davidson Bros. Liquor Store, 2900 W. Lisbon Avenue. Upon arrival on the scene, Detective Almandi observed, first two, and then a third man emerge from a side door of the establishment, and as he was about to get out of the squad to take action, the third man to emerge from the store suddenly turned around and fired several shots in the direction of Detective Almandi. One shot struck the squad's left front windshield in direct line with Detective Almandi's head.

At this time, Detective Almandi emerged from the squad, drew his service revolver and then fired three shots at the holdup suspect who then fled around the corner of the building and west from the scene. Detective Almandi then pursued and fired two more shots at the suspect, who was subsequently apprehended by two other officers in front of 1830 North 30th Street. The suspect was found to have sustained a gunshot wound to his right leg. Subsequent investigation disclosed that at least one of the other two holdup suspects had also fired several gunshots at Detective Almandi after he arrived on the scene. Further, one of the gunshots had gone through a screen door of a nearby tavern and had wounded a patron.

PATROLMAN
JAMES J. CESAR

Patrolman James J. Cesar awarded a Class "D" Citation for his actions under the following circumstances:

On June 5, 1972, at 7:20 A.M., Patrolmen James Cesar and Russell Waszak were in Trushinsky's Food Store at 2151 North Buffum Street following up on information of a possible armed Robbery. At about 8:50 A.M., two men entered the store; one armed with a rifle and the other with a .45 caliber revolver, and informed the wife of the owner, Mrs. Frieda Trushinsky, that, "This is a holdup." Mrs. Trushinsky screamed, thus alerting the officers in the rear of the store.

The view from the rear of the store towards the street was limited due to numerous racks of shelves amid narrow aisles, and as the officers responded to Mrs. Trushinsky's scream, they had to proceed in single file through the narrow aisles and could not see either suspect. However, when they turned a corner of an aisle, with Patrolman Cesar in the lead, said officer found himself face to face with a holdup man carrying a rifle. Patrolman Cesar identified himself by voice, informed the suspect that he was under arrest, and wrapped his arms around the suspect. Due to the narrow aisle, Patrolman Waszak was unable to assist Patrolman Cesar.

Unable to fire the rifle because of the confined space between the aisles, the suspect then struck Patrolman Cesar in the head with the rifle barrel. The officer fell to his knees, firing one round from his service revolver. Although he sustained a gunshot wound, the suspect continued to resist, and when it appeared that he was leveling the rifle, Patrolman Cesar discharged a second round from his service revolver, and the suspect fell to the floor mortally wounded.

Patrolman Cesar then left the store in pursuit of the suspect's accomplices, at which time he observed a getaway car containing two persons fleeing the scene. Patrolman Cesar then fired four shots at the fleeing suspects, who evaded apprehension.

Sergeant Robert P. Ewing awarded a Class "D" Citation for his actions under the following circumstances:

On April 22, 1972, at 1:13 P.M., Sergeant Robert Ewing monitored a police radio dispatch to a "family trouble — knife involved" at 2609 South Eighth Street, and, shortly thereafter, at 1:17 P.M., a second dispatch indicating that the subject with the knife may be in the tavern at 2601 South Eighth Street.

Sergeant Ewing responded to the assignment, along with other officers, and upon arrival at the tavern found a man forcibly holding his wife with a serrated knife against her throat. Sergeant Ewing made repeated attempts to persuade the subject to drop the knife, but the man refused to do so and continued to threaten his wife with great bodily harm. However, Sergeant Ewing did succeed in getting the man to sit down and discuss his problems, whereupon he emerged from the tavern with his wife as hostage, continuing to direct the knife at her left chest and throat, and entered his residence.

Sergeant Ewing then also entered the residence where he found the subject seated in a chair with his wife seated on his lap and now holding a butcher knife against her throat. The man was also scratching the knife against his wife's arm, throat and right ear, stating, "You're going to get it." The Sergeant again unsuccessfully made several attempts to reason with the man to drop the knife, and during the course of this conversation, the subject asked for a cigarette and Sergeant Ewing complied with the request. The situation then came to a climax when the man relaxed his hold on his wife in an attempt to light the cigarette, at which time the wife bolted from the chair and ran past Sergeant Ewing out of the house.

Simultaneously, Sergeant Ewing drew his service revolver and the subject complied with an order to drop the knife.

PATROLMAN
MICHAEL A. LEWANDOWSKI

Patrolman Michael A. Lewandowski awarded a Class "D" Citation for his actions under the following circumstances:

On January 4, 1972, while enroute home in his private car and approaching the intersection of North Seventh and West Locust Streets, following a tour of duty on the late shift, Patrolman Lewandowski observed a scantily clad, bare foot child standing and crying on the sidewalk near the residence at 2870 North Seventh Street in subzero weather.

Patrolman Lewandowski then observed smoke and flames emanating from said residence and ran to aid the child; whereupon, the child explained that his brothers and sisters were in the burning house. Patrolman Lewandowski then directed bystanders to call the Fire Department and ran to the south side of the residence where he observed four children peering from a broken window on the second floor. Since smoke was billowing from the broken window and flames were clearly visible on the first floor of the residence, Patrolman Lewandowski directed the children to break out the remaining glass in the window. He then told the children to jump and, one by one, each of the children fell safely into his arms.

After being advised by one of the children who had jumped that other children remained in the home, Patrolman Lewandowski attempted to enter the residence but was promptly driven back by the intense heat of the flames that engulfed the entire first floor. Fire equipment then arrived on the scene, and firefighters subsequently located three children who had succumbed to the fire.

PATROLMAN
ARTHUR H. GRAY

Patrolman Arthur H. Gray awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for his actions under the following circumstances:

On January 19, 1972, at 11:35 A.M., while assigned to Squad 34, Patrolman Arthur Gray was informed by a citizen that smoke was emanating from the second floor of the apartment building at 1102 North 27th Street. He immediately proceeded to said apartment building, confirmed that a fire was in progress, and summoned the Fire Department via the police radio network. Patrolman Gray then entered the smoke filled apartment building which had been set afire in three separate places and proceeded to the second floor to alert any occupants. When his shouts of "Fire" and a search of Apartment 3 on the second floor failed to produce any response, Patrolman Gray proceeded to the first floor where he alerted a woman and a small child of the impending danger and led them to safety.

Knowing that a woman and three children resided on the second floor of the apartment building and not satisfied that they were out of the burning building, Patrolman Gray re-entered and made a second search for these persons. After a brief search of the second floor, Patrolman Gray was forced out of the building by the heavy concentration of smoke, and he was subsequently treated for smoke inhalation.

CHARLES R. FIGER

RAYMOND T. ARIENS

Patrolman Charles R. Figer and Patrolman Raymond T. Ariens awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for their actions under the following circumstances:

On December 7, 1971, at 5:30 P.M., while investigating a complaint at North Water Street and East Wisconsin Avenue, Patrolman Charles Figer and Patrolman Raymond Ariens were informed by a citizen that a woman had jumped into the Milwaukee River near the Wisconsin Avenue Bridge. Patrolmen Figer and Ariens immediately ran to the scene and observed the woman in the water approximately sixty feet south of the bridge.

While Patrolman Figer ran to the bridgetender's shack to obtain a life ring, Patrolman Ariens removed his overcoat, boots and equipment, jumped into the icy water, and swam to the floundering woman. Patrolman Figer then returned to the river bank and threw the life ring to Patrolman Ariens, who placed the woman's head and arms through same. Patrolman Ariens then managed to move the woman to the west retaining wall of the river, where Patrolman Figer and other officers awaited to assist them to shore.

PATROLMAN
MARK H. KOLLER

Patrolman Mark H. Koller awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for his actions under the following circumstances:

On November 26, 1971, at 3:45 A.M., while assigned to Squad 912 and patrolling in the vicinity of South 16th Street and West Forest Home Avenue, Patrolman Mark Koller observed a fire in the tavern at 1608 West Forest Home Avenue and immediately summoned the Fire Department via the police radio network. Knowing that there were living quarters above the tavern, Patrolman Koller forced open an outer door and proceeded to the hallway of the second floor living quarters through a heavy concentration of smoke. When his shouts of "Fire" and pounding on an inner apartment door failed to produce any response, Patrolman Koller found it necessary to force open two inner apartment doors to gain access to the living quarters. He then aroused the father of the family occupying the apartment and directed him to vacate the building.

At this time, Patrolmen Jerome Jozwiak and George Peters who were patrolling in Squad 61-A and heard Patrolman Koller's report of the fire, appeared on the scene and assisted Patrolman Koller in leading the family of six persons down the stairway to safety.

PATROLMAN
ALLAN J. MILLER

Patrolman Allan J. Miller awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for his actions under the following circumstances:

On March 14, 1972, at 9:10 P.M., while assigned to a security detail at the Sixth District Station, Patrolman Miller observed a burning object sailing through the air and land approximately four feet from a gasoline pump which services Sixth District vehicles. Instinctively, Patrolman Miller ran to the object which proved to be an explosive device and cut the burning fuse with a pocket knife.

AWARDS OF MERIT TO CITIZENS

Michael Shiroda, age 15; Jeffrey Shiroda, age 14; Dennis Stencel, age 13; Brian Duerr, age 13; and Christopher Tordik, age 13; who on February 6, 1972, stopped to assist a Police Officer in the chase of a burglary suspect. The youths succeeded in catching the man after a chase through several yards and finally subdued him.

William F. Owens, age 42, who on February 17, 1972, while in his home, heard two explosions and observed the home of a neighbor engulfed in flames. He immediately proceeded to the home and found the woman owner unconscious under the kitchen table and carried her to safety, thus preventing a possible fatality.

Thomas Van Tussi, age 13, who on February 22, 1972, furnished descriptions to the police of two men who had robbed the "Stop N Go Food Market" at 5326 South 27th Street. Thomas had noted the suspicious actions of the two holdup men and was able to furnish their description and the description of their car which led to their arrest.

James S. Haight, age 38, who on February 23, 1972, while driving in his automobile, heard a description on his police radio of two men who had just robbed a man at 3532 West Villard Avenue. Upon observing one of the suspects, Mr. Haight alerted Police headquarters and then continued to follow the suspect and broadcast information to the Police. Police Officers subsequently apprehended one of the suspects a short time later and was able to learn the identity of the second suspect.

Sharon Anich, age 24, and John Ugrotzi, age 56. On April 21, 1972, while employed as a teller at the American City Bank and Trust Company, 740 North Plankinton Avenue, Miss Anich was approached by a man who gave her a note stating, "I have a gun. Give me the money." Instead of complying with the note, Miss Anich locked her counter cash drawer and set off the alarm. The holdup man then vaulted over the counter, grabbed $100 and fled on foot. Miss Anich began shouting that she had been robbed, and these shouts were heard by John Ugrotzi, a mailman who was on his route nearby. He immediately joined the chase and seized the suspect who was turned over to Police Officers. A search of the suspect resulted in the recovery of the $100.

Michael A. Lo Coco, age 16, who on April 26,

1972, while making collections on his "Milwaukee Sentinel" paper route, noticed that there were no lights at the residence of one of his elderly customers and also noticed that the air conditioner was running. He knocked on the door but received no response. The next morning when delivering the paper, Michael again noticed the air conditioner running even though the weather was very cool. Becoming concerned for the elderly man, he summoned the police who pried open the rear door and found that the man had slipped and fallen and could not get up. Michael's concern for this man possibly prevented a very serious situation.

Howard Sharlow, Jr., age 26, who on May 6, 1972, was in a tavern at 1926 West Arrow Street when an armed man entered the tavern, shot and killed a man and fired at a second man. Mr. Sharlow succeeded in overpowering the gunman and took the revolver away from him as well as the second gun which he had in the waistband of his trousers and held the man until Police arrived.

Shazon W. Thompson, age 23, of Chicago, Illinois, who on May 16, 1972, came to the assistance of a police officer after a man had grabbed the gun of the officer and fired it at the officer. Mr. Thompson assisted the officer in overcoming the assailant and assisted the officer in recovering his gun.

Donald L. O'Connell, age 25, and Laszlo J. Joo, age 38. On May 29, 1972, an armed man entered the George Webb Restaurant, 2206 West Fond du Lac Avenue, stating, "This is a stick-up; give me the money." The suspect obtained $85 and ordered the clerk, Mr. O'Connell, and a patron, Mr. Joo, to a rear room. At this time, Mr. O'Connell seized a gun from under a counter and fired two shots at the gunman, and Mr. Joo struggled with the gunman, throwing him to the floor. The two men then disarmed him and held him until police arrived.

Herman Swerin, age 52. On June 5, 1972, two armed men entered a grocery store at 2151 North Buffum Street, and one of the men announced, "This is a stick-up." The owner of the store summoned police who were in the back of the store at the time. Mr. Swerin, who was a customer, observed one of the men trying to put the clip in the gun and jumped the man, causing the gun and clip to fall to the floor. During this time, the officer was involved in a fight with the second holdup man, who after striking the officer over the head with a rifle, was subsequently shot and killed. When Mr. Swerin heard the shot, he released the suspect he was struggling with, and the suspect fled the scene and left Mr. Swerin holding his weapon. The quick action of Mr. Swerin prevented the man from loading his gun and no doubt prevented death or serious injury to the officer involved.

Otto Banachowski, age 60, who on June 12, 1972, while shopping at the Southgate Shopping Center, noticed a man repeatedly enter and leave Gimbel's Department Store. Becoming suspicious of his actions, Mr. Banachowski continued watching him and observed him leave the store with women's garments under a coat which he was carrying in his hand. At this time, Mr. Banachowski observed Police Chief Harold Breier in the store and advised him of what had transpired. Because of his observations and the information furnished by Mr. Banachowski, the subject and a second man was apprehended in the parking lot by Chief Breier and the stolen clothing was recovered.

Norbert Scott, age 32, who while driving in his automobile on November 20, 1971, observed a man fighting with a Police Sergeant in the 4000 Block of North 31st Street. Mr. Scott stopped his auto and went to the aid of the officer who was then able to subdue the man. The man was subsequently charged with the armed robbery of a service station.

Bruce Verville, age 16, who while in his yard observed two men chasing a youth and yelling at him to stop. Hearing this, Bruce assisted the men by running after the boy and catching him. The two men who had been chasing the boy were off duty police officers and arrested him for auto theft and hit and run.

Ronald Montbriand, age 40, Chris Hammer and Tim Barba, both 11 years of age, who on December 27, 1971, chased a juvenile suspected of purse snatching, caught him, and turned him over to the police.

Mrs. Frances Palkowski, age 74, who on January 31, 1972, observed two men breaking into the home of a neighbor. Mrs. Palkowski knew the occupants were not at home and immediately called the police who after a chase arrested the suspects and recovered the stolen items.

“TWO GOOD REASONS FOR STRICT ENFORCEMENT”.

Sound and adequate enforcement policies are essential to keep traffic fatalities and accidents at a minimum. The Department's policy of requiring officers to strictly enforce all traffic laws, at all times, is the primary factor in Milwaukee's ranking as one of the safest cities in the nation.

COMMUNICATIONS BUREAU

AUTOMATED COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM EQUIPMENT

Communications continues to play an important part in the overall law enforcement effort, and has always been a proportional indicator of investigative and field activities.

In late 1972, the Communications Bureau received new computer equipment to be utilized with the Police Automated Communications System, scheduled to be made operational in 1973. This new computerized operation will provide the Department with greatly improved access to law enforcement information and will speed the flow of teletype message transactions. Thirty terminal devices located within the Department will access the City of Milwaukee computer, the State of Wisconsin Crime Information Bureau computer, the Wisconsin Motor Vehicle computer and the NCIC operation in Washington, D.C.

In 1972, the Communications Bureau also received $189,550 in Federal funds to be used for the purchase of new portable walkie-talkie equipment. This acquisition, is Phase II of a three-phase, federally funded project which will ultimately provide all on-duty field officers with portable radio equipment. The program will be completed in 1973.

POLICE AUTOMATED COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM

The Milwaukee Police Department's Computer - Communications System has been designated as PACS (Police Automated Communications System). The hub of the system is the communications switcher which is located in the Communications Bureau of the Police Administration Building. The system also includes the replacement of present 2260 Video Terminals and 2740 Typewriter Terminals, and Teletype Terminals, with 035 and 033 Teletype ASR Terminals and new Video Terminals. The total number of terminals will increase from the present twenty to thirty which is required to handle the increased inquiry and input traffic. Districts and Bureaus in the Department at the present time use two separate systems - the Teletype Net and the Computer Net. The PACS system, through the use of the switcher and its interfaces with the State of Wisconsin TIME System and the City Hall Computer, will require the same terminal device to provide the services heretofore obtained from two separate nets and two different devices.

A vendor for the PACS System has been chosen after competitive bidding and lengthy contractor negotiations. All of the equipment for the PACS System was delivered in December 1972 and the testing and installation process has begun. It is expected that the PACS System will be operational in 1973.

MOVING TRAFFIC CITATIONS

A cooperative effort involving the County Traffic Court, the Clerk of Courts Office, the County Data Processing Division, the City Data Processing Division, and the Police Department has resulted in further automation processes involving moving traffic citations. Court documents which include docket sheets, calendars, index cards, complaints, and warrants, are generated by the County Data Processing Division from computer tape information furnished by the City. Past due notices on moving violations are generated by the City Computer and sent to violators. This was previously done only on Parking Violations.

1972 BICYCLE SAFETY PROGRAM

The Youth Aid Bureau continued to maintain close liaison with youth agencies and public agencies in the Milwaukee metropolitan area and coordinated crime prevention activities of the Department.

During the 1972 Crime Prevention Week alone, officers visited 136 schools in the city and talked with more than 51,000 students.

In addition, this bureau coordinated the departmental Bicycle Safety Program. In 1972, officers visited 198 of the city's schools and attempted to create an awareness of the importance of safe bicycle driving in the minds of the more than 55,000 students attending these schools.

A total of 35,325 police - juvenile contacts were made during the year. Of these, less than one-fifth were referred to the Milwaukee County Juvenile Court Center for disposition. Many of those juveniles not referred to the Children's Center were counseled and advised by Youth Aid Bureau officers as part of an on-going Saturday Morning Referral Program.

The Youth Aid Bureau provided these additional services for various public and private organizations and citizen groups:

DETECTIVE BUREAU

DETECTIVE BUREAU

During 1972, serious crimes in Milwaukee decreased 4% over 1971 as compared to a 3% decrease nationally. Comparing the local major crimes that occurred in 1972 with those of 1970, a 5% increase is noted. Over said two year period, murder increased 12%, robbery 13%, burglary 16%, and auto theft 8%. Forcible rape, aggravated assault, and larceny ($50 and over), however, dropped 7%, 10%, and 2% respectively.

VICE SQUAD

"GAMBLING CREATES OTHER POLICE PROBLEMS"

During 1972, Milwaukee's Vice Squad continued its efforts to suppress vice operations and effect the arrest of all persons engaged in such activities. Specifically, enforcement was directed toward identifying persons at higher levels of operation, such as the principal suppliers of narcotics as well as the operators of policy wheels or commercialized card and dice games.
