CITATIONS

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

DETECTIVE
W. BEASLEY

Detective William H. Beasley awarded a Class "B" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On February 28, 1974, Detective William Beasley and Patrolman Gary Moe, along with numerous other officers, responded to a dispatch of "F.B.I. Agent shot — suspect fleeing the scene on foot."

Upon arrival, the officers learned that one Jacob Peter Cohen, who was being sought for the murder of two Chicago police officers, had taken refuge in the residence of 2506 N. Terrace Street and that he was holding four children as hostage. In the ensuing minutes, Cohen released three of the children and demanded a getaway car and a driver. An F.B.I. Agent agreed to be the driver of the getaway car and proceeded to back the auto into the driveway of the residence.

The wanted felon then emerged from the residence holding 14-year-old Danny Brady as hostage. Cohen held Danny around the neck with his left hand and menacingly held a cocked revolver to the boy's head with his right hand. The barrel of the revolver was behind the boy's ear.

At this time, Detective Beasley engaged Cohen in conversation in the immediate presence of Patrolman Gary Moe and attempted to persuade him to give himself up and release the boy hostage. The felon replied that he had killed two coppers in Chicago already; that he didn't care how many more he killed; and that he would do so to anyone who got in his way.

Undeterred by these comments, Detective Beasley continued to keep Cohen's attention while an F.B.I. Agent was boosted onto a garage roof within view of the getaway car parked in the driveway. At said time, the F.B.I. Agent was unable to fire at Cohen for fear of striking the boy hostage; however, Cohen then leaned forward to look into the back seat of the getaway car, and he placed the boy hostage below the roof of the auto and out of the Agent's line of fire.

Detective Beasley then nodded to the Agent, who opened fire and struck the felon in the shoulder area. Simultaneously, the boy hostage fell forward and crawled under the auto.

Cohen then pointed his weapon in the direction of Detective Beasley and Patrolman Moe, and the former officer opened fire with his service revolver. During the subsequent exchange of gunfire between Cohen and numerous officers at the scene, Detective Beasley sustained a gunshot wound in his right leg, and while he lay on the ground wounded, Patrolman Moe also directed gunfire at Cohen from a close, exposed position. At the time, Cohen was also laying on the ground wounded, but he was still in possession of his firearm which he had in firing position. The felon then succumbed to gunshot wounds, and Patrolman Moe promptly went to the assistance of Detective Beasley, administered first aid, and caused a police ambulance to be summoned.

PATROLMAN A. WILKE

Patrolman Alan P. Wilke awarded a Class "C" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On April 9, 1974, at 10:15 P.M., while on an undercover assignment, Patrolman Wilke entered his private car which was parked in front of 2805 W. North Avenue. Simultaneously, the car door was pulled open by a man who pointed a revolver at the officer, cocked the weapon, and ordered the officer to slide over to the front passenger seat.

Upon entering the auto, the armed subject ordered Patrolman Wilke to slide back to the driver's seat, and he climbed into the front passenger seat. At this time, the subject pointed the cocked revolver at Patrolman Wilke's chest and demanded money; whereupon Patrolman Wilke handed the subject his wallet as well as loose change from his pocket. The subject then demanded more money while continuing to train the revolver at Patrolman Wilke's chest. Fearing for his personal safety, Patrolman Wilke quickly grabbed the subject's revolver with his left hand, forcing it in the direction of the dashboard, and with his right hand, he reached under the seat, grabbed his weapon and shot the suspect twice.

The subject was subsequently pronounced DOE at County General Hospital and found to be a known felon from Detroit, Michigan with a long police record. His weapon was found to be a loaded .22 caliber magnum revolver.

PATROLMAN
R. BOYLE

PATROLMAN
J. RYAN

Patrolman Robert J. Boyle and Patrolman John D. Ryan awarded a Class "D" Citation for their actions under the following circumstances:

On December 21, 1973, at 10:45 A.M., Patrolman Robert Boyle observed an auto travelling the wrong way in a one-way alley at

N. 13th and W. Vliet Streets. The motorist was stopped and advised of the traffic violation, and he indicated that he had no driver's license. He refused to answer when asked his name, and he refused to step out of the auto.

Patrolman Boyle then summoned his partner, Patrolman John Ryan, to assist, and Patrolman Ryan also requested the driver to produce identification and to step out of the car. When he refused both requests and began rolling up the car window, Patrolman Ryan opened the car door. At this time, the subject produced a .38 caliber revolver, which he had concealed under a rag on the glove compartment console, and pointed same at Patrolman Ryan, stating, "Get away from the car or I'll kill you!"

Both officers immediately backed off, drew their service revolvers and ordered the subject to drop the gun several times. When the subject failed to comply with this repeated demand and proceeded to point his revolver in the direction of Patrolman Boyle, both officers opened fire, striking the subject twice. The man was then disarmed and taken into custody.

Patrolman Rosario J. Collura, Patrolman John H. Eberhardy, Patrolman James D. Eccel, Patrolman Michael K. Jourdan, Patrolman David M. Leist and Patrolman Richard B. Tarczynski awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On June 25, 1973, at 10:35 P.M., squads were dispatched to investigate a disturbance at the Shell Service Station, N. 3rd and W. Center Streets. Upon arrival, the officers learned that a man, later identified as Warren Pettis, had attacked the station attendant without provocation. As the officers approached Mr. Pettis, he wrapped a belt around his hand with the buckle end free, and began to yell profane epithets at the officers; whereupon, he was disarmed and placed under arrest.

At this time, a crowd began to gather in the area and sensing that these persons were becoming increasingly hostile, the officers quickly placed Mr. Pettis in the patrol wagon for conveyance to the Fifth District Station. Knowing the violent nature of Mr. Pettis from previous contacts, Patrolman Rosario Collura requested a superior officer to alert other personnel to stand by in the Fifth District Station garage to render assistance if necessary.

Upon arrival at the station, Mr. Pettis was violently kicking the sides of the wagon and shouting threats and profanities at the officers. Patrolman Collura then opened the rear door of the wagon, observed that Mr. Pettis had ripped off most of his clothing, and requested the prisoner to exit the wagon. Mr. Pettis refused, and Patrolman Collura entered the wagon to escort the prisoner out, at which time he struck Patrolman Collura on the side of the head with his fist, causing Patrolman Collura to fall backwards.

A violent struggle then ensued, primarily involving Patrolmen Collura, David Leist, and Michael Jourdan, and the obviously deranged prisoner succeeded in obtaining one officer's service revolver which he began firing. In rapid succession, Patrolman Jourdan sustained a gunshot wound to his right arm; Patrolman Collura to his right leg; Patrolman Richard Tarcynski (who was moving towards the affray to assist) to his right leg; and Patrolman Leist to his left arm.

Responding to the sound of gunshots, Patrolmen John Eberhardy and James Eccel then entered the station garage. Upon observing Patrolman Tarczynski lying on the garage floor still in the line of fire and bleeding profusely, Patrolman Eberhardy ran to the fallen officer and dragged him to a place of safety behind a parked car. He then applied a tourniquet to stop the flow of blood from Patrolman Tarczynski's wound.

In the meantime, Patrolman Eccel drew his service revolver, exposed himself to gunfire from Mr. Pettis, who continued to struggle with Patrolman Leist, and fired two shots at the deranged subject. The prisoner and Patrolman Leist then fell to the floor, but the struggle continued, at which time Patrolman Collura (who was lying on the floor wounded), fired one shot from his service revolver, striking Mr. Pettis in the side. This culminated the action, and the subject was subsequently pronounced dead at County General Hospital and was found to have sustained three gunshot wounds.

Patrolman John G. Franckowiak, Patrolman Robert A. Jungbluth, Patrolman Richard J. Miszewski, Patrolman James P. Oliva and Patrolman Peter J. Simet awarded a Class "D" Citation for their actions under the following circumstances:

On September 16, 1974 at 3:15 A.M., while enroute to the Seventh District Station, Patrolmen Robert Jungbluth and Richard Miszewski observed smoke emanating from a second floor window of a rooming house at 1139 N. 12th Street, and they immediately summoned the Fire Department and called for police assistance.

Within moments, Patrolmen Peter Simet,

James Oliva and John Franckowiak joined Patrolmen Jungbluth and Miszewski and promptly moved to rescue numerous persons who were hanging out of windows, screaming hysterically for help. Unable to enter the building via the hallways because of smoke and flames, the officers found three ladders in the vicinity which enabled them to reach more than twenty persons whom they carried or guided to safety. In several instances, the officers smashed windows and crawled into smoke filled rooms to reach and effect the rescue of the occupants. While carrying out this action, all of the officers suffered smoke inhalation and other injuries.

PATROLMAN
J. HUNDT

Patrolman James E. Hundt and Patrolman Joseph E. Nowicki awarded a Class “D” Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On February 14, 1974, at 12:35 A.M., two brothers, Charles and Frank McCauley, entered the tavern at 1550 W. Mitchell Street and immediately became involved in an argument with another male patron. Shortly afterwards, Frank McCauley drew a .45 caliber automatic pistol from his waistband and handed it to his brother, Charles, who proceeded to wave the pistol in the direction of the crowded barroom.

Charles McCauley then walked towards the man, verbally threatening to kill him, whereupon, some patrons fell to the floor while others took cover behind tables. In the meantime, Patrolman James Hundt, who was in the tavern off duty, took cover behind the bar and drew his revolver, and Patrolman Joseph Nowicki, who was also in the tavern off duty, remained seated at the bar and also drew his revolver and held it at his side out of view.

Charles McCauley continued to menace the customer with the automatic pistol but handed it back to his brother, Frank, after the man knocked the weapon to the side and dislodged the clip. Frank McCauley then walked towards the front entrance while he replaced the clip, activated the slide, and ejected one live round and inserted another in the chamber.

Patrolman Nowicki then approached Frank McCauley and attempted to persuade him to leave the crowded bar. Before he could receive a response, Charles McCauley began to shout and urge his brother to shoot the customer. This prompted Frank McCauley to walk away from Patrolman Nowicki and hold the barrel of the pistol two inches away from the man's head. At this time, Patrolman Nowicki approached Frank McCauley from the rear, identified himself as a police officer and placed his service revolver at the back of Frank McCauley's head. When Frank McCauley complied with Patrolman Nowicki's order to drop the pistol, Charles McCauley attempted to gain possession of same at which time a brief scuffle ensued with Patrolman Hundt who was able to subdue Charles McCauley and recover the weapon with the assistance of a citizen.

Patrolman Robert W. Matheny awarded a Class “D” Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On April 26, 1974, several officers responded to a report of “Man firing a shotgun in the home at 1504 W. Greenfield Avenue.” Upon arrival, a woman informed them that her husband had fired a shotgun twice in the home, which caused her to flee and summon the police. She also affirmed that he was still in the home and armed with a 12 gauge shotgun.

After other officers had effectively surrounded the home, Patrolman Matheny proceeded to the front porch, entered the residence, and called out the subject's name in an attempt to locate his position in the home.

CITATIONS

“SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY”

Patrolman Matheny succeeded in locating the subject in a bedroom of the residence and requested him to lay down his weapon and surrender. The subject, who was in an obviously high emotional state, refused numerous such requests.

Patrolman Matheny then requested a cannister of tear gas, and the subject promptly moved to exit the bedroom with his shotgun in a raised, firing position. At this time, Patrolman Matheny unhesitatingly and quickly moved towards the subject and grabbed the barrel of the shotgun, pushing it towards the ceiling of the home. Other officers then came to the assistance of Patrolman Matheny, subdued the man, and took him into custody on a charge of Reckless Use of Weapon.

On February 28, 1974, Patrolman Gary Moe

numerous other officers, responded to a dispatch of “F.B.I. Agent shot — suspect fleeing the scene on foot.”

Upon arrival, the officers learned that one Jacob Peter Cohen, who was being sought for the murder of two Chicago police officers, had taken refuge in the residence of 2506 N. Terrace Street and that he was holding four children as hostage. In the ensuing minutes, Cohen released three of the children and demanded a getaway car and a driver. An F.B.I. Agent agreed to be the driver of the getaway car and proceeded to back the auto into the driveway of the residence.

The wanted felon then emerged from the residence holding 14-year-old Danny Brady as hostage. Cohen held Danny around the neck with his left hand and menacingly held a cocked revolver to the boy’s head with his right hand. The barrel of the revolver was behind the boy’s ear.

At this time, Detective Beasley engaged Cohen in conversation in the immediate presence of Patrolman Gary Moe and attempted to persuade him to give himself up and release the boy hostage. The felon replied that he had killed two coppers in Chicago already; that he didn’t care how many more he killed; and that he would do so to anyone who got in his way.

Undeterred by these comments, Detective Beasley continued to keep Cohen’s attention while an F.B.I. Agent was boosted onto a garage roof within view of the getaway car parked in the driveway. At said time, the F.B.I. Agent was unable to fire at Cohen for fear of striking the boy hostage; however, Cohen then leaned forward to look into the back seat of the getaway car, and he placed the boy hostage below the roof of the auto and out of the Agent’s line of fire.

Detective Beasley then nodded to the Agent, who opened fire and struck the felon in the shoulder area. Simultaneously, the boy hostage fell forward and crawled under the auto.

Cohen then pointed his weapon in the direction of Detective Beasley and Patrolman Moe, and the former officer opened fire with his service revolver. During the subsequent exchange of gunfire between Cohen and numerous officers at the scene, Detective Beasley sustained a gunshot wound to his right leg, and while he lay on the ground wounded, Patrolman Moe also directed gunfire at Cohen from a close, exposed position. At the time, Cohen was also laying on the ground wounded, but he was still in possession of his firearm which he had in firing position. The felon then succumbed to gunshot wounds, and Patrolman Moe promptly went to the assistance of Detective Beasley, administered first aid, and caused a police ambulance to be summoned.

Patrolman Michael R. Neeb awarded a Class “D” Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On March 25, 1974, while patrolling in Squad 23, Patrolmen Michael Neeb and Gary Schneider observed three boys walking on thin ice of the Humboldt Park Lagoon. They were about to warn the boys to get off the ice when one of the boys fell through the ice.

The other two boys instinctively started to run to his assistance but were warned by the officers to stay away and get off the ice. The young boy was about 200 feet from shore and tried to pull himself out, but the ice continued to break up around him. He was crying and starting to panic, but he heeded the officers' advice to remain calm.

When an attempt by the officers to throw the boy a life preserver failed, Patrolman Neeb removed his boots, coat and gun, and he started walking out onto the ice. When he was several yards from shore, the ice broke, and he fell into the frigid water. Although the ice was about two inches thick, Patrolman Neeb continued towards the boy by breaking the ice with his hands and fists, and he succeeded in reaching the boy. Patrolman Neeb grasped the boy around the waist to hold his head above the water, and he walked him back to shore.

On June 24, 1973, at 1:05 P.M., Sergeant Dale Ryan, Patrolmen Gordon Hessel, Edward Kamoske, and Robert Boettcher responded to a report of "family trouble — man may have a gun" at 1715 N. 33rd Street. Upon arrival, the officers learned that a man had confined himself to the second floor of the residence after arguing with his wife and that he had armed himself with a shotgun. It was also learned that the man had threatened members of his family.

Sergeant Ryan assumed command at the scene, directing his men to remain under cover in positions around the residence and advising them as to what was transpiring.

Patrolmen Hessel and Kamoske managed to gain entry to the first floor and cover a stairway leading to the second floor where the subject had confined himself. When they tried to ascend the stairway, using a bomb blanket as a shield, the armed subject fired the shotgun, causing the officers to be thrown back down several stairs. Patrolmen Hessel and Kamoske were subsequently joined by Sergeant Ryan who was also fired upon by the subject as he crossed a yard at the rear of the residence. When Sergeant Ryan gained entry to the first floor, he also began to ascend the stairs to speak to the subject but was again fired upon by the armed man.

While all officers maintained their positions, tear gas was fired into the residence, forcing the subject to flee the home via the front door. As he exited, he was carrying a shotgun at port arms and several police officers shouted for him to drop the gun. The subject disregarded their order and placed the gun in a firing position at which time Patrolman Robert Boettcher fired one shotgun blast and felled the subject.

Patrolman Dennis J. Carr and Patrolman Dennis P. Wargolet awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On December 14, 1973, at 10:45 P.M., Patrolmen Roger Cortez and Robert Haller observed a building on fire at 2329 W. Highland Avenue, immediately summoned the Fire Department, and entered the burning building to alert the occupants. Upon learning that the building was vacant, they returned outside at which time they noted that an adjoining building at 2325 W. Highland Avenue was also engulfed in smoke.

Patrolmen Cortez and Haller then entered said building and were able to arouse five adults and lead them to safety. In an effort to ensure that everyone had evacuated the building, they entered a second time, awakened a 64-year-old woman, and also led her to safety.

On September 9, 1974, at 1:05 A.M., while on squad patrol, Patrolmen John Edwards and Peter Habel observed smoke and flames emanating from the second floor of a building at 1743 N. Second Street and immediately summoned the Fire Department.

Although the building appeared to be vacant, the officers forced open the locked front door and subsequently found two men asleep in a rear bedroom on the first floor which was filled with dense smoke. After leading the two men to safety, the officers re-entered the building and ascended to the second floor in search of other possible occupants. This effort was quickly deterred as the officers were driven back by dense smoke and extreme heat. Simultaneously, the Fire Department arrived on the scene and found that the second floor of the building was a blazing inferno. Patrolmen Edwards and Habel then proceeded to alert occupants of adjoining buildings which were endangered by flames and sparks emanating from the burning structure.

Both officers approached the subject and attempted to persuade him not to jump into the river.

After the subject expressed his intention to kill himself, Patrolman Radovich lunged forward and grasped the man by his belt. At this time, the man was hanging freely over the bridge railing and nearly pulled Patrolman Radovich over; whereupon Patrolman Palkowski instinctively grabbed Patrolman Radovich and both officers were able to return the man to the safety of the pedestrian walk.

Patrolman Nicholas P. Patsis awarded a Class

"E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On March 21, 1974, while off duty and in his residence, Patrolman Nicholas Patsis heard a woman screaming. He immediately determined that the screaming was coming from a home across the alley, and proceeding to the home, he observed a woman and three children leaning out of an upstairs window, from which smoke was emanating. A fire of undetermined origin had started in an upstairs closet which resulted in damages totaling $10,000.

When he arrived at the front of the burning residence, Patrolman Patsis was met by a male citizen whose attention was also drawn to the fire. After they made repeated attempts to force the locked door to the residence, Patrolman Patsis was in the process of removing a storm window when the woman called down and threw him the house keys. Patrolman Patsis and the male citizen then entered the home, groped their way through a smoke filled hallway and led the woman and her three children to safety.

Patrolman Patrick J. Ross and Patrolman Dennis M. Schreiber awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On February 17, 1974, while assigned to Squad 12A, Patrolmen Patrick Ross and Dennis Schreiber were stopped for a red light at N. 16th Street and W. Wisconsin Avenue when they observed an auto travelling north on N. 16th Street at an estimated 70 miles per Again with the squad in pursuit, the driver of the speeding auto struck three parked cars at 1032 N. 14th Street and continued north to 1120 N. 14th Street where he struck three more parked cars. At this point, the speeding auto burst into flames and the conflagration engulfed still another car in flames. Patrolmen Ross and Schreiber immediately exited their squad, ran through flaming gasoline and pulled the driver from his auto. The man was unconscious and wedged between the seat and dashboard on the passenger side of his auto.

Thomas G. Matulis

Robert D. Riley

Michael L. Draeger

Patrolman Thomas G. Matulis and Patrolman Robert D. Riley were shot and killed while questioning a suspect on Wednesday, July 10, 1974. Patrolman Michael L. Draeger passed away on Saturday, December 14, 1974, as a result of injuries received in a squad accident on Monday, November 18, 1974.

"THESE OFFICERS PAID THE SUPREME SACRIFICE"

AWARDS OF MERIT TO CITIZENS

John A. Petcoff, age 46; and Lester G. Liederbach, age 37, who on August 12, 1973, pursued a man who had attempted to rape a 17-year-old girl in the 4400 Block of N. Hopkins Street. Mr. Petcoff and Mr. Liederbach succeeded in overcoming the suspect and held him until Police arrived.

Frederick L. Davis, age 30. On December 8, 1973, while working in his basement, Mr. Davis noticed a car parked in the alley and saw two men leave the car and walk west in the alley in the 2400 Block of W. State Street. He later observed the same men running down the alley and jump into the automobile and drive off. Being suspicious, Mr. Davis wrote down the license number of the car. Later, Mr. Davis heard a news broadcast of the murder of John Price who was working in his father's grocery store at 2420 W. State Street, and he immediately contacted the police and relayed his information to them. Through this information, police were able to apprehend both suspects who were subsequently charged with attempt robbery and murder.

Herbert Schraufnagel, age 18, who on January 27, 1974, while walking in the area of the Disciplinary Barracks, 6081 N. Hopkins Street, heard someone calling for help. Mr. Schraufnagel ran to his home, called the police and led them to the cell where a young man had accidentally locked himself in and had been confined there for over three hours in 22 degree weather.

Harold G. Luecht, age 58, and Leo R. Biba, age 34. On January 28, 1974, Mr. Luecht heard the sound of breaking glass at the residence at 3623 W. Maple Street. He called the police and then with his neighbor, Mr. Biba, assisted them in apprehending three juveniles who had broken into the home through a basement window and had stolen a radio, coins and keys. All the items were recovered, and the juveniles were charged with burglary.

Irvin Kingman, age 31, who on February 11, 1974, observed two men speeding from the Northridge Shopping Center parking lot as he was leaving the shopping center. Mr. Kingman re-entered the shopping center and learned that the Northridge Bank had just been robbed. He related to the police what he had observed, and this information was immediately broadcast which led to the arrest of the two suspects within minutes after the robbery.

Gary Lee Squire, age 23; and Russell Stewart, age 27. On February 11, 1974, Mr. Squire and Mr. Stewart observed a police officer struggling with a man at N. 4th and W. Wells Streets and immediately stopped their cars and ran to the officer's aid. The man, who had been stopped for a pedestrian violation, had managed to get on top of the officer and was attempting to get his service revolver. With the assistance of Mr. Squire and Mr. Stewart, the officer was able to handcuff the man and maintain control of him until other officers arrived. He was later charged with violation of the pedestrian ordinance, obstructing an officer, and battery to a peace officer.

Robert Bahr, who, while in a tavern at 1550 W. Mitchell Street on February 14, 1974, assisted two off duty police officers in subduing a man with a gun who had become involved in an argument with another patron. Mr. Bahr and the officer jumped the armed man and were able to overcome him and recover the weapon.

Herbert Hoxie, age 50, FBI Agent in charge of the Milwaukee Office; FBI Agent Richard Carr, age 42; Daniel Brady, age 14, Erin Brady, age 13, Peter Brady, age 9, Patrick Brady, age 6; and Thomas Cahill, age 8. On February 28, 1974, it was learned that Jacob Cohen, wanted in Chicago for the murder of two police officers, had fled to Milwaukee and had taken refuge in an apartment at 2527 N. Stowell Avenue. FBI agents went to the address where they were spotted by the suspect who was in the second floor apartment. Cohen fled down a rear, outside stairway, encountering FBI Agent Carr, shooting him and wounding him in the shoulder. He then ran to the home of Robert Brady, 2810 W. Bradford Avenue, which was approximately six blocks away, where he held captive Danny, Erin, Peter and Patrick Brady, and also a neighbor, Thomas Cahill. Cohen had been followed to the home, and the residence was soon surrounded by law enforcement officers.

AWARDS OF MERIT TO CITIZENS

At this time, Agent Hoxie telephoned Cohen at the Brady home and volunteered himself as hostage in exchange for the children. It was then that Erin, Patrick, Thomas and Peter ran out the rear door and informed officers that the suspect had threatened to kill Danny if he didn't get a get-away car. Agent Hoxie then backed a car into the driveway of the Brady home, and the suspect emerged with a gun at Danny's head, pushing the boy in front of him. Danny then bolted free and slipped under the front wheel of the car. Cohen was subsequently shot and killed during an exchange of gunfire.

Walter Brookins, age 53, who on March 6, 1974, while walking in an alley in the rear of his home, observed two juveniles in the back yard of a neighbor. Becoming suspicious, Mr. Brookins walked to the front of the house and saw three juveniles coming out of the house carrying a television set and a stereo. He called the Police Department and then returned outside to watch the boys who fled when they saw him. Mr. Brookins immediately gave chase and in his pursuit, he saw a squad car which he flagged down. Police officers then apprehended five juveniles who were charged with the burglary of the residence at 4044 N. 17th Street.

Robert Pauley, age 28, and Judith Pauley, age 27. On March 10, 1974, while traveling north on Highway 41, Robert and Judith Pauley observed a car also northbound on Highway 41 strike a detective squad which was stopped at the scene of an accident. The striking vehicle accelerated after the impact and proceeded on the expressway to the Lloyd Street offramp and east on Lloyd Street. Mr. Pauley pursued the auto, obtaining the license number and description, and returned to the scene of the accident to relay this information to investigating officers. Due to the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Pauley, the driver was arrested a short time later and charged with failure to render aid in a personal injury accident, inattentive driving, and operating an unregistered vehicle.

Dolores Karpinski, age 33, who on March 12, 1974, observed a suspicious man in the hallway of her apartment building. Mrs. Karpinski later heard walking in the apartment above her's and called the police. Upon arrival, officers caught a man in the act of burglarizing the apartment and recovered money which was taken from that apartment as well as jewelry and money which had been taken from another apartment in the building.

Richard A. Vanier, Sr., age 41. On March 13, 1974, Mr. Vanier, who is a driver for the Yellow Cab Company, picked up a fare in the Greyhound Bus Depot. The man appeared to be extremely nervous and directed Mr. Vanier to drive north on Seventh Street. As Mr. Vanier approached Wells Street, he observed two police officers at which time his passenger, who had also seen the officers, told him to drive through a red light. Mr. Vanier then stopped the cab, approached the officers and informed them of the man's strange behavior. A search of the passenger disclosed several aluminum foil packets containing a white powder suspected to be heroin. Further investigation revealed that the man was wanted on a state warrant for delivery of a controlled substance (heroin).

Christopher Ferrie, age 28. On March 21, 1974, at about 11:45 P.M., Mr. Ferrie was attracted by screams coming from a nearby residence and saw a woman and her children leaning out of an upstairs window of the home at 2830 N. 41st Street. When he ran to the house, he was met by another neighbor, and the two men entered the home and located a stairway leading to the upstairs bedrooms. Going up the stairs, they encountered heavy smoke which forced them to crawl on their hands and knees in an effort to find the woman and her children. Mr. Ferrie and his neighbor were thus successful in leading the woman and her three young children out of the burning house.

Herbert and Louise Frelka, age 44 and 46; and Theothor and Donna Braun, age 49 and 45, who on March 23, 1974, while driving on Oklahoma Avenue, observed a man attempting to break into the Drugtown Pharmacy at 950 W. Oklahoma Avenue. They then drove around the block and saw the man get into a parked auto which had a woman behind the wheel. The two couples again circled the area and noticed that the glass door of the store had been smashed. They then called the police, giving them the description of the car and the two occupants. Officers later apprehended the suspects who were returned to the scene and positively identified by all four of the witnesses.

AWARDS OF MERIT TO CITIZENS

Peter Sahagian, age 43, and Claude A. Bieniek, age 22. On March 27, 1974, while investigating a fatal hit and run accident, police officers checked at the Sahagian Auto Body Shop, 1115 E. College Avenue, in an effort to identify parts of an automobile. Mr. Sahagian and one of his employees, Mr. Bieniek, willingly assisted the officers in making phone calls, checking junk yards and parts houses. Mr. Sahagian later called the officers and asked them to return to the shop at which time they identified the pieces of the automobile. Because of the time and effort spent by Mr. Sahagian and Mr. Bieniek, the hit and run auto was identified.

Nathanial Davis, Jr., age 23. On April 1, 1974, Mr. Davis' place of employment, the Pittleman Meat Market, 1451 N. 12th Street, was held up. As Mr. Davis went to assist his employer, he observed a man carrying a brown paper bag running through the alley. He then ran out of the store and was confronted by the suspect who pushed him aside and continued his attempt to flee. Mr. Davis regained his balance and continued the chase, succeeding in apprehending the suspect and holding him until police arrived. The $1700 which had been taken in the holdup was recovered and returned to the owner of the store.

Elaine Bandt, age 33; Judy Kolaske, age 34; and Mary Stultz, age 32. On April 2, 1974, a neighbor of Mrs. Bandt came to her home and even though being a deaf mute, he conveyed to her that his home was filled with carbon monoxide gas and that his mother and his two children were still in the home. Mrs. Bandt immediately went to the home and managed to get both children out of the house but was unable to lift the woman. She then had her daughter summon neighbors, Mrs. Kolaske and Mrs. Stultz, and the three women carried the older woman from the home. Meanwhile, the man had returned to the home and had collapsed on the couch and it was necessary to again assist him from the house. At this time, ambulances arrived, and all parties were conveyed to the hospital.

Roland E. Cole, age 39, who on April 16, 1974, saw two young men grab a woman's purse as she was walking in the 700 Block of N. Plankinton Avenue. Mr. Cole chased the boys and caught one of them, and the second youth then gave himself up. Mr. Cole asked another citizen to notify the police, and he held the suspects until officers arrived.

Frank Raymond Gonzales, age 10, who on April 27, 1974, while buying groceries at Prijic's Grocery Store, 339 W. Greenfield Avenue, observed a man acting suspiciously. After leaving, Frank stood across the street watching the store and within a few minutes, saw the man run out of the store. The man, armed with a gun, had held up the owner of the store, obtaining $45. Frank followed the man through yards and saw him get into an auto driven by a second man, and the car sped away. Frank wrote down the license number of the car and returned to the store and gave this information to the investigating officers.

He further informed the officers that he had observed the suspect on previous occasions entering a home in the neighborhood, and he pointed out the house to them. Both the driver of the auto and the suspect were subsequently apprehended and charged with the armed robbery of the grocery store.

James Ksicinski, age 27, and his wife, Joanne, age 31, who while driving on his way to a reserve drill at 5:20 A.M. on May 4, 1974, saw flames coming from the window of a home at 2400 N. 49th Street. Mr. Ksicinski went to the home and started pounding on the door while his wife ran to a neighboring home and asked him to call the Fire Department. After alerting the family in the lower flat, Mr. Ksicinski ran up the stairway to alert the residents of the upper flat but was driven back by flames and dense smoke. After attempting to make a second entry, he was told that no one was home upstairs. Upon the arrival of the Fire Department, Mr. and Mrs. Ksicinski left.

Gerold E. Block, age 22, and Sylvia Bonnichsen, age 19, who while walking in the area of N. 37th and Juneau at 6:40 P.M. on May 6, 1974, observed a man running with something under his arm. The man got into an auto which was parked with another male inside. The young couple, becoming suspicious, jotted down the license number of the car and related this information to police officers who were in the area investigating a purse snatching in which a 72-year-old woman was knocked to the ground and her purse taken from her. Further investigation led to the arrest of two suspects for strong armed robbery.

Peter C. Abresch, age 15, who on May 28, 1974, while on his way to school, noticed smoke coming out of the large door of the garage in the rear of 3400 W. Hayes Avenue. Peter ran into the garage and saw a man behind the wheel of an auto with the motor running. He pulled him out from behind the wheel and out of the garage. Peter attempted to revive the man until the Rescue Squad arrived; however, the man was already dead.

Jean Dumke, age 36, who, on June 24, 1974, at 10:00 P.M., witnessed an accident on W. Good Hope Road at N. 76th Street in which a 17-year-old girl was struck by a speeding auto. Miss Dumke, who is a nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital, immediately proceeded to the scene, identified herself as a nurse, and offered assistance. She rode to the hospital in the ambulance, applying heart massage to the victim. Although the young girl died at the hospital, Miss Dumke extended herself to the fullest in an effort to save the victim's life, and also assisted the police by giving them an accurate accounting of the accident.

Thomas J. Caravella, age 19. On July 5, 1974, at 2:40 P.M., Mr. Caravella was returning home from work when two small children ran up to him screaming that they were robbed on the playground of the Pleasant View School, 50th and W. Capitol Drive. He parked his car and approached 50th Street at which time three youths saw him and ran. Mr. Caravella chased the boys and caught one of them and walked him to a phone booth and called the police. While in the phone booth, four boys came over and kicked out one of the glass panels, causing Mr. Caravella to receive cuts to both legs. The boys finally left and a short time later police arrived and obtained information from the suspect which led to the arrest of eight other youths for strong arm robbery.

Gilbert Alvarez, Jr., age 13. On July 24, 1974, while checking the area of S. 9th and W. Lincoln Avenue looking for a suspect in a rape offense, police officers were approached by Gilbert Alvarez, Jr. who asked what they were looking for. Gilbert was questioned as to his knowledge of the suspect and was asked to notify police if he observed him. A short time later, Gilbert informed the officers that he had observed the suspect coming out of a basement and led them to the location. He was subsequently apprehended and a warrant for rape was issued.

Marc Wagner, age 28, who, on July 28, 1974, while talking to an off duty police officer in the rear of his tavern at 4919 W. North Avenue, heard the sound of breaking glass. Running to the front of the building, they observed a youth crawling out of the front window of Ken's Gun Shop, 4910 W. North Avenue. The two men pursued the youth and found him hiding in some bushes. They ordered him out of the bushes and retrieved two handguns. However, the boy broke away and the officer and Mr. Wagner again gave chase, apprehended the suspect and held him until police officers arrived. The juvenile was subsequently charged with burglary.

Mae Crivello, age 65; Thomas Sternig, age 21; and Karl Schefft, age 20. On July 31, 1974, Mae Crivello observed a man go into the Adelman Laundry, 1200 N. Van Buren Street, jump over the counter and struggle with the clerk. Mrs. Crivello alerted Thomas Sternig and Karl Schefft, and both men ran into the cleaners, pulled the man off the clerk and held him until police officers arrived. The suspect was subsequently charged with unarmed robbery.

Richard A. Korpela, age 18, who, on August 3, 1974, while driving on W. Villard Avenue, heard the sound of breaking glass coming from the Jolly Food Store, 5123 W. Villard Avenue. Although he did not see anyone, he went to the police station and reported the incident. As a result of his information, officers were dispatched to the store where they found a 15-year-old youth inside. The boy was charged with burglary and admitted breaking into the store five times within a two-month period.

James M. Wroblewski, age 27, and Willie Williams, age 56. On August 5, 1974, a man attempted to cash a Wisconsin State Refund check in the amount of $354 at the Bank of Commerce, 515 W. Wells Street. While Mr. Wroblewski was inspecting the check, the man ran out of the bank. Mr. Wroblewski gave chase and was joined in the pursuit by Mr. Williams, a Northtown Security Guard for the bank. The two men succeeded in apprehending the subject, handcuffed him and returned him to the bank. He was subsequently charged with forgery and uttering and was also wanted on a theft warrant.

Daniel Vahl, age 17. On August 7, 1974, a man held up the Sentry Food Store, 4412 W. Capitol Drive, fled from the store and ran to a station wagon which was parked nearby. Daniel Vahl, being alerted to the robbery, followed the man from the store and commandeered an auto, informing the driver of the holdup and asking him to follow the station wagon. When it became necessary for the holdup man to stop for gas, Mr. Vahl called the Sentry Store and informed investigating detectives of the location of the suspect and a description of the auto. He also asked the gas station attendant to stall the suspect. Police squads arrived shortly and arrested the subject as he was about to leave. The money taken in the holdup was found in the car, as well as the holdup note and an automatic pistol. The suspect admitted that holdup and also two other food store holdups.

Bruce Nason, age 33. On August 26, 1974, an armed robbery occurred at the Sentry Food Store, 2938 N. Oakland Avenue, and a description of the suspect was broadcast over the police radio. Bruce Nason, who is a newsreel cameraman for WITI-TV, was monitoring police radio calls, and while stopped at a traffic signal, saw a car next to him which matched the description of the getaway car, and also the occupants of the car matched the description of the suspects. He relayed this information to his dispatcher and told him to notify the police and continued to follow the suspects' car, keeping the dispatcher advised of his location. Police officers, responding to the information received from Mr. Nason, arrested the suspect as he was walking out of the Johnnie Walker Store, 3rd and W. Wells Street. The money that was taken and the gun that was used in the holdup was also recovered.

Joseph Schmit, age 46, who on September 7, 1974, at approximately 4:50 P.M. while checking the security of his classroom at Pulaski High School where he is a chemistry teacher, observed a juvenile in the next room. Upon being observed, the juvenile fled to a small outdoor area where he was met by another youth. Mr. Schmitz apprehended one of the boys, returned him to the school and held him until police arrived. The boy later identified his accomplice and both boys were charged with burglary.

Peter Lupo, age 52. On September 26, 1974, at approximately 12:45 A.M., Mr. Lupo was awakened by the shouting of another roomer, Donald Smith, at the residence at 806 S. 32nd Street and found the living room filled with smoke. He dragged the man into the kitchen and ran downstairs to awaken other tenants and assisted in leading four children to safety. Noticing that Mr. Smith was not outside, Mr. Lupo re-entered the burning home and found he had wandered back into the living room. Mr. Lupo succeeded in dragging him to an upper landing and assisted him to safety.

Osborne E. Ehrlich, age 54, Randall E. Romans, age 19; and Scott H. Six, age 23, who on September 28, 1974, responded to a call from police officers to assist them in rescuing a woman who was attempting suicide by drowning in the Milwaukee River. These men formed a human chain with the police officers down the slippery river bank and succeeded in reaching the woman and pulling her to safety.

Carey Prewitt, age 21, a senior at Marquette University, School of Business Administration. On September 20, 1974, at approximately 10:45 A.M. as Mr. Prewitt was leaving his residence to pick up cleaning at the Adelman-Polly Prim Dry Cleaners, 2600 W.

Wells Street, he observed a man park in front of his home, get out of the car and walk west on Wells Street. Upon nearing the cleaners, Mr. Prewitt again saw the man running north on 26th Street carrying a shirt over his hands. After entering the laundry, he learned that the clerk had just been held up by a man with a gun. Mr. Prewitt immediately returned to his residence where he saw the same man getting into the parked car. He noted the license number of the car and observed the suspect drive off at a high rate of speed. He then returned to the cleaners and furnished detectives with the license number and a description of the auto and driver. The suspect was subsequently apprehended and charged with armed robbery, and he also admitted numerous other armed robberies.

John Axtell, age 37, and Rick Orr, age 36. On October 14, 1974, at 9:45 P.M., John Axtell and Rick Orr, both bus drivers for the Transport Company, during a layover in the 1300 Block of W. Van Norman Avenue, heard screaming and observed a man and a woman struggling near a parked auto. They headed towards the couple, and as they approached, the man quickly entered the car and drove away. Mr. Axtell and Mr. Orr noted the license number of the car and took the woman to a nearby laundromat and called police. Investigation revealed that the subject had attacked the woman in the laundromat, and when she resisted and fought him off, he dragged her outside with the intention of taking her away in his auto. The man was later apprehended, and a warrant for attempt rape was issued against him.

Lisa Biehle, age 14. On October 14, 1974, while shopping with her mother at the Jewel Food Store, 723 S. 27th Street, Lisa observed a man put a canned ham under his jacket and run from the store. Lisa reported what she had seen to store employees who ran out of the store in an attempt to catch the man. A squad car cruising in the area observed the chase and the man was apprehended and charged with theft.

POLICE

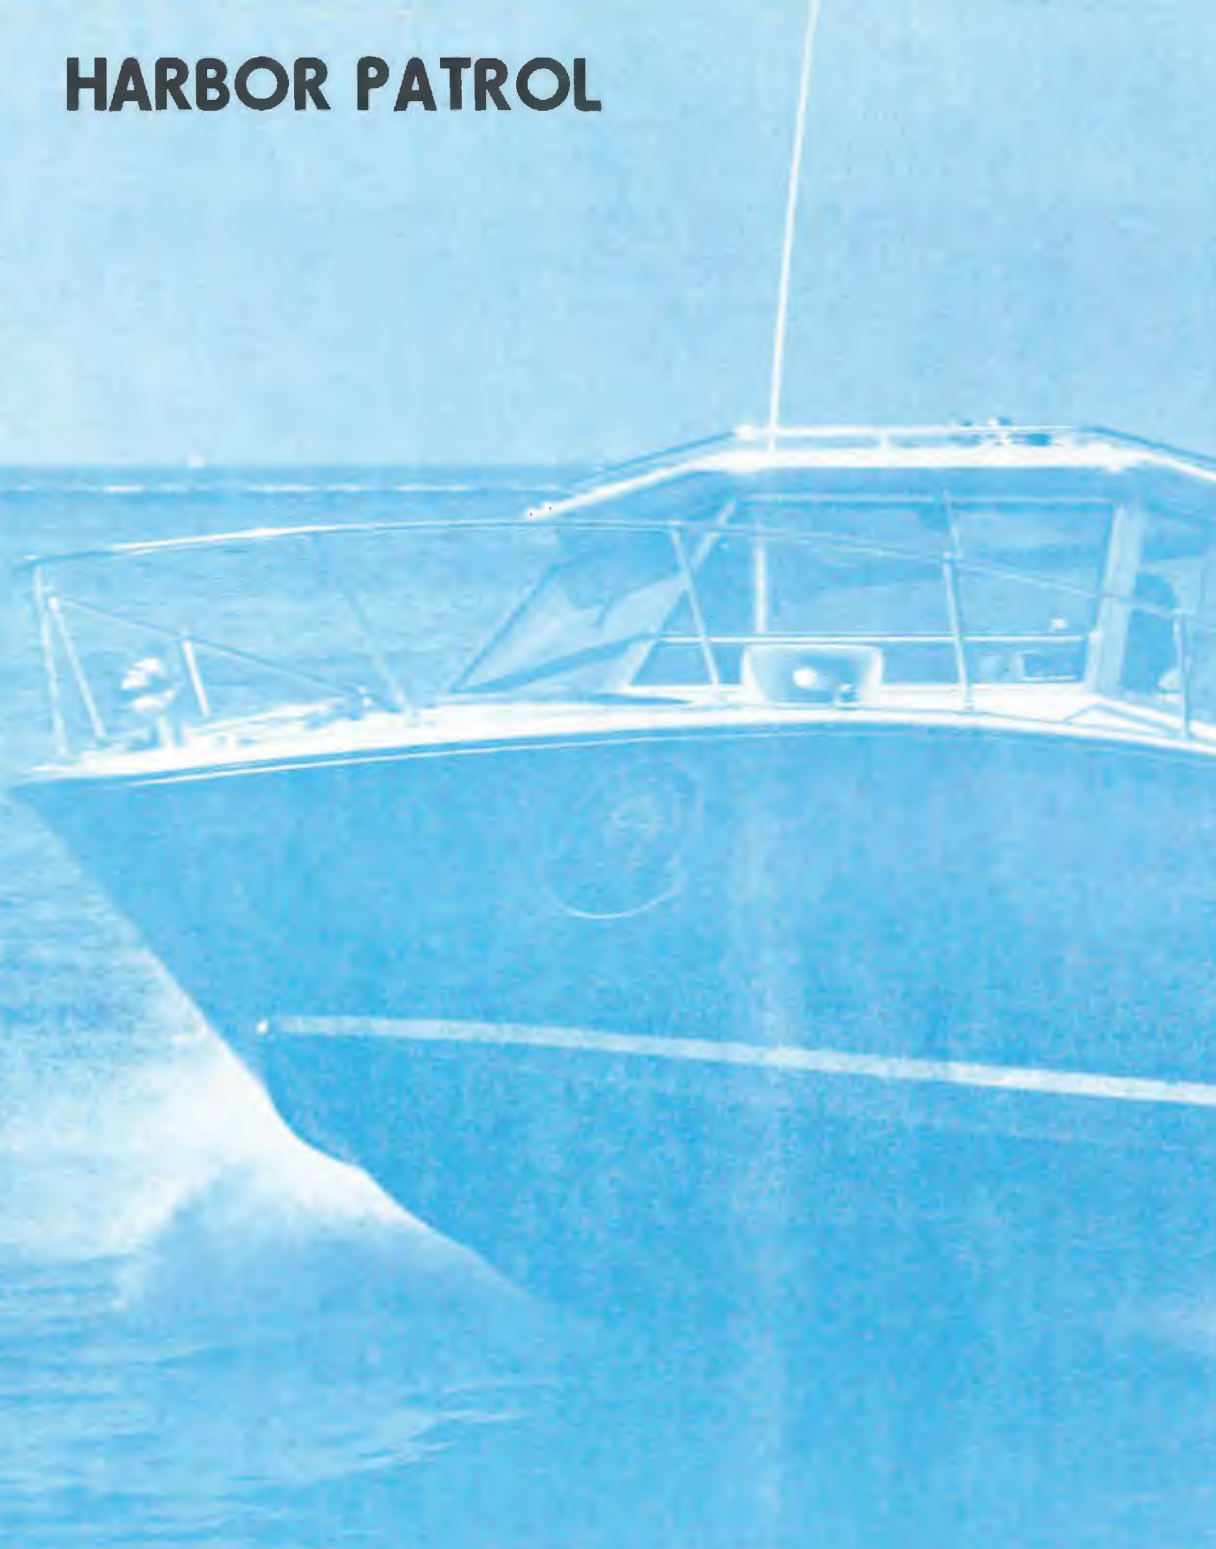

ACADEMY

Completed in 1974, the Police Academy street scene — consisting of a private residence and various business establishments — will enable instructors to teach recruits the proper method of patrol and observation.
