POLICE OFFICER
J. KOSZUTA

Police Officer Jerome F. Koszuta and Police Officer Frederick J. Rehorst awarded a Class "B" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On March 15, 1975, at 9:10 P.M., while on squad patrol, Police Officers Frederick Rehorst and Jerome Koszuta observed a car parked a short distance away from a Clark Service Station at 2100 N. Holton Street. The windows of the vehicle were fogged, and it appeared that there was only one occupant. Due to recent holdups of Clark Stations, the officers became suspicious and agreed that a field interview should be conducted.

Police Officer Rehorst exited the squad first, walked over to the suspicious car and observed that the driver's door latch was up; whereupon, he opened the door and observed a white male seated in the driver's seat and a white male in the front passenger area. Seconds later, he observed a Negro male laying on his side in the rear of the car (the interior of the car had been altered and only contained a driver's seat.)

Officer Rehorst questioned the driver relative to their presence in the area and requested 10 identification, but the driver, as well as the other two occupants, became evasive. Officer Rehorst then directed the driver to get out of the car and simultaneously observed a ski mask on the floor of the car. At this time, Officer Rehorst also heard a gunshot and upon glancing up, observed the driver pointing a .32 caliber automatic pistol directly at him. Officer Rehorst instinctively attempted to disarm the subject, but the driver fired a second time, striking him in the chest and knocking him to the ground.

During this brief period of time (about 30 seconds), Police Officer Koszuta had also exited the squad to assist in the field interview. Upon hearing the gunshots and observing Officer Rehorst on the ground, Officer Koszuta immediately called for assistance, exchanged several gunshots with the driver of the car, and successfully held two of the subjects at bay until other officers arrived on the scene to effect their arrest. The third subject was captured several blocks from the scene a short time later.

POLICE OFFICER
G. BAUR

Police Officer Gregory C. Baur awarded a Class "C" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On November 25, 1974, at 6:40 A.M., Police Officers Gregory Baur, David Kane, Michael Schuster, and Gregory Fritz of the First District, were dispatched to investigate a report of "Man with a gun" in the McDonald's Restaurant, 920 W. North Avenue. (This subsequently proved to be a "holdup in progress").

Upon arrival, the officers properly deployed themselves around the premises and Officer Baur found an unlocked door on the southeast corner of the restaurant. He entered the restaurant and observed a Negro male run in a westerly direction at the rear of the employee area. Simultaneously, a second Negro male jumped up from behind a large floor safe about ten feet in front of Officer Baur.

The second subject had a revolver in his right hand which he pointed at Officer Baur and pulled the trigger. The gun misfired, and Officer Baur instinctively reacted by firing two rounds from his service revolver. The first shot grazed the subject's right forehead, but he managed to flee in the direction of the first subject with Officer Baur in pursuit. The subject then turned toward Officer Baur, who fired a third round, striking the subject in the left thigh and knocking him to the floor.

Examination of the subject's revolver disclosed that the hammer fell on one of two previously spent cartridges. The other four rounds in the revolver were live.

POLICE OFFICER
P. SZYMBORSKI

POLICE OFFICER
R. TERRONES

Police Officer Paul G. Szymborski and Police Officer Richard E. Terrones awarded a Class "C" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On February 17, 1975, at 5:50 P.M., while on routine beat patrol, Police Officers Paul Szymborski and Richard Terrones observed a masked man holding a gun to the head of the owner of the grocery store at 1341 W. State Street. Officer Szymborski immediately informed the dispatcher via handie-talkie that a holdup was in progress and requested assistance. The Officers then stationed themselves on the west side of the store and waited for the subject to emerge. At this time, a young girl crossed W. State Street and walked towards the store entrance; whereupon, the officers escorted the girl to the rear of the building and placed her in a position where she would not be in danger.

Upon resuming their positions at the front of the store, the suspect exited the store carrying a .32 caliber revolver in his hand. When Officer Szymborski called for the suspect to halt, the armed man spun around, pointed the revolver at the officers and refused to surrender. Officer Szymborski then fired three rounds from his service revolver, and the suspect fell to the ground fatally wounded.

POLICE OFFICER
T. GEISLER

SERGEANT
D. COLLINS

POLICE OFFICER
D. SEYBOLD

POLICE OFFICER
R. HAWTHORNE

Police Officer Thomas W. Geisler awarded a Class "C" Citation; and Sergeant Dean J. Collins, Police Officer Donald G. Seybold, and Police Officer Richard M. Hawthorne awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On April 8, 1975, at 2:35 A.M., Sergeant Dean Collins and Officers Thomas Geisler, Richard Hawthorne and Donald Seybold responded to a dispatch of "Man with a gun" at 5571 N. 40th Street. As the Officers arrived on the scene, a 23-year-old man exited the front door of the residence and stepped onto the front porch brandishing a .12 gauge pump shotgun. Sergeant Collins ordered the suspect to drop the weapon, but he responded by pointing the gun in the Sergeant's direction and yelling that he would have to be killed or he would kill the Officers.

Simultaneously, Officer Geisler leaped onto the porch and disarmed the subject by grabbing the barrel of the shotgun and throwing the weapon over the railing of the porch. Officer Geisler attempted to subdue and take the man into custody, but the subject broke from the Officer's grasp and ran back inside the completely darkened house. Officer Geisler immediately pursued him into the house and turned on the lights in the process, closely followed by Sergeant Collins and Officers Hawthorne and Seybold. The suspect, however, succeeded in making his way to the darkened kitchen where he informed Police Officer Geisler that he was again armed.

Sergeant Collins, as well as Officers Geisler, Hawthorne and Seybold, then positioned themselves in the doorway to the kitchen, and upon illuminating the interior of the kitchen with their flashlights, they observed the man standing in the southwest corner of the kitchen with a deer rifle pointed in their direction.

At that time, the suspect fired a shot into the ceiling of the kitchen at the suggestion of his father. Immediately after discharging one shot, he ejected the spent casing, chambered a live round and pointed the rifle at the Sergeant and three Police Officers. Sergeant Collins immediately fired one round from a shotgun, fatally wounding the man in the upper left chest.

SERGEANT
G. DUNNING

POLICE OFFICER
J. FERRARO

POLICE OFFICER
M. BARTLETT

Sergeant Gerald J. Dunning, Police Officer John J. Ferraro, and Police Officer Michael P. Bartlett awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On April 30, 1975, at 8:35 P.M., Sergeant Gerald Dunning, Officer John Ferraro and Officer Michael Bartlett responded to a holdup alarm at Stanley's Pharmacy, 800 E. Center Street. Upon arrival, they observed movement in the rear of the premises and properly deployed themselves around the establishment.

Officer Ferraro had just positioned himself east of the rear door when a suspect burst through the outer wooden storm door carrying a shotgun and fired same in the direction of the officer. Officer Ferraro returned the fire by firing four rounds from his service revolver, but the suspect attempted to flee the scene by walking in a crouched position still carrying the shotgun. At this time, Sergeant Dunning and Officer Bartlett opened fire with their service revolvers and the suspect fell to the ground fatally wounded.

SERGEANT
J. TRIES

POLICE OFFICER
C. BARRY

Sergeant John M. Tries and Police Officer Callan A. Barry awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On July 11, 1975, at 2:20 A.M., Sergeant John Tries and Officer Callan Barry responded to a dispatch of "car in the river" at Clybourn and Water Streets. Upon their arrival, they observed an auto sinking into the river about 30 feet from shore and two men attempting to bring a woman to the shore from the auto.

At this point, the woman started to panic and struggled with the two male citizens, pulling them under the water. Sergeant Tries and Officer Barry immediately removed their equipment, entered the water, and successfully effected the rescue of the woman and one man whose heads were now submerged. The second man was able to swim to shore. Sergeant Tries and Police Officer Barry were subsequently treated at St. Mary's Hospital for exposure.

R. EWING

Sergeant Robert P. Ewing awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On May 10, 1975, at 9:40 A.M.; while on supervisory patrol, Sergeant Robert Ewing 13 was approached by an employee of the Wisconsin Upholstery Company, 2273 S. Howell Avenue, who said that a fellow employee had an arm caught in a foam rubber shredding machine.

Sergeant Ewing entered the business firm and found the employee, a 16-year-old boy, with his right arm entangled in the blades of the shredding machine. The boy's arm was torn open from his hand to the shoulder, and his forearm was badly mangled. As the boy was bleeding profusely, Sergeant Ewing immediately used his belt as a tourniquet to stop the flow of blood, and he summoned a police ambulance and the Fire Department.

The youth was extricated from the machine by Fire Department personnel a few minutes later, and Sergeant Ewing accompanied the youth via police ambulance to St. Luke's Hospital, where immediate amputation of the limb was necessary.

S. MAKOWSKI

Police Officer Sylvester J. Makowski awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On June 5, 1975, at 11:55 P.M., Police Officer Makowski responded to a dispatch of "shooting" at 735 W. Greenfield Avenue along with several other officers and found a 26-year-old man unconscious in the basement of the home. Upon examination, Officer Makowski found no wounds but noted that the man's skin was pale and that there was a bluish tinge to his lips and fingernails, indicating a lack of oxygen in the body.

Drawing on his police first aid training, as well as military medical corps experience, Officer Makowski immediately began to administer mouth-to-mouth resuscitation while in the residence, and he continued to do so enroute to Johnston Municipal Hospital. Upon arrival at the hospital, the subject responded to the resuscitation and began to breath on his own. Medical examination disclosed that the man had suffered a heart attack.

Police Officer Robert F. Trenner awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On December 10, 1974, at 9:55 A.M., Police Officer Robert Trenner and Police Officer Steven Karner were dispatched to the scene of an accident at North 68th and West O'Connor Avenue involving a semi-truck and auto. Upon arrival, the Officers found a woman fatally injured in the wreckage of the auto and lying on top of her eight-month old child.

After extricating the child from the car, the Officers noted that the child was lifeless, and Officer Trenner immediately administered mouth to mouth resuscitation. A short time later, the child responded to the resuscitation and began to cry, and on arrival at the hospital, the attending physician affirmed that Officer Trenner had administered correct first aid treatment since the child had a deformed chest from birth which causes shallow breathing.

The juveniles were resisting arrest, and being outnumbered by the youths, the Officers were having a difficult time maintaining custody of their prisoners and requested the assistance of two citizens who were in the area. One of the citizens refused to help, but Mr. Schaubel responded and assisted in the arrest of 3 juveniles and 1 adult who were charged with battery to a peace officer and resisting arrest. The Timm's took the woman with them in their car and searched the area, finally locating the suspects a few blocks away. They pursued the youths on foot and succeeded in apprehending one of them and took him to the Seventh Police District Station where he was identified by the victim. The youth was charged with theft and detained at the Children's Center. The purse containing $38 was recovered and returned to the woman.

Kit Dobson, age 21; Richard Krueger, age 34; and Russell Peterson, age 31, who while loading a truck at the rear of 3110 W. Villard Avenue on December 9, 1974, were informed by an employee of the Gross Yaksh VFW Hall, 3120 W. Villard Avenue, that he had observed a man inside the premises as he was unlocking the front door. Simultaneously, the three men observed a man running from the rear of the Gross Yaksh Post and immediately gave chase and located the suspect hiding under a small boat in the rear yard at 5230 N. 28th Street. Further investigation cleared three tavern break-ins.

June M. Smith, age 32. Mrs. Smith, who frequently monitors police calls, assisted the police on two occasions when she furnished information which led to the apprehension of suspects.

On August 15, 1974, she heard over the air that police were chasing a stolen auto in the area of S. 35th and W. National Avenue. Being in the vicinity, Mrs. Smith observed the pursuit and by momentarily positioning her car so as to slow down the stolen auto, police were able to apprehend the auto thief.

Also, on December 11, 1974, Mrs. Smith heard a call for police at 1900 S. Muskego Avenue where a theft was in progress. Being in the area at the time, she parked her automobile at this location and saw a man hide in the parked auto. Upon arrival of police officers, Mrs. Smith was able to inform them of her observations, and the suspect was subsequently arrested and charged with theft.

Thomas R. Doleschy, age 19, who on August 27, 1974, observed two males in the alley in the 4700 Block of N. 41st Street pushing two mini-bikes. Mr. Doleschy followed the men in his auto through several alleys until one of the subjects saw him, and they dropped the bikes and fled. Mr. Doleschy then notified the Police, and upon their arrival, he accompanied the officers while they checked the area for possible suspects. Using the excellent descriptions furnished by Mr. Doleschy, officers soon located three suspects and questioning of them resulted in the clearance of a burglary and the recovery of all the stolen property.

Donald W. Helwig, age 34. On January 3, 1975, soon after going to bed, Mr. Helwig heard sirens and the screeching of tires. Looking out the window, he saw a police officer struggling with another man. He quickly dressed and ran outside to assist the officer, and the two of them were able to subdue the man. Though lightly dressed for the inclement weather, Mr. Helwig remained outside until other officers arrived. The suspect was arrested for fleeing from officers, operating auto after revocation, and reckless driving, and he was also on parole for second degree murder.

Allen P. Parker, age 24. On December 6, 1974, a woman was robbed while in the lobby of her east side apartment building. The woman then rang the bell of Mr. Parker's apartment and told him what had happened, furnishing him with a brief description of the robber. Mr. Parker ran out in pursuit of the suspect, apprehending him eight blocks away. He was able to hold him until Police Officers arrived. The suspect was subsequently charged with theft from person. Further investigation resulted in him being charged with six other counts of robbery, and a total of 21 complaints was cleared.

Kathleen DeLaney, age 33, and Rodrigo Valdovinos, age 48. On December 23, 1974, police officers were dispatched to a tavern at 2571 N. 35th Street where a man inside was holding a rifle. As Officers entered the front door, the man attempted to point the rifle at them at which time Mr. Valdovinos, who was tending bar, grabbed the barrel of the gun and held it in an upright position while Mrs. DeLaney held onto the stock of the gun. Officers were then able to disarm and subdue the man. Without the quick action of Mr. Valdovinos and Mrs. DeLaney, one or more of the Officers might have been shot. The suspect was charged with endangering safety by conduct regardless of life.

Lowell C. Jenrette, age 40, who on January 28, 1975, at 12:25 A.M., while walking across the Wisconsin Avenue Bridge on his way to work, saw a woman sitting on the handrail of the Bridge with her legs dangling over the water. She had her coat off and was talking about jumping into the water. When Mr. Jenrette's attempts to talk to the woman failed, he grabbed her and succeeded in pulling her onto the Bridge. He then took her to a nearby restaurant and stayed with her until assistance arrived.

Trude Deglau, age 49, and her husband Erwin, age 46, and Harold Haase, a neighbor, age 32. On February 18, 1975, at 10:35 P.M., a masked man forced his way into the residence of the upstairs neighbor of Mr. and Mrs. Deglau. The intruder placed a cloth over the face of the woman occupant and dragged her into the kitchen where he knocked her to the floor and then cut the telephone wire and kicked in a bedroom door. He then removed a metal file and ran from the home.

Mrs. Deglau, residing in the downstairs flat, heard her neighbor's screams and sent her husband to check while she ran to the front of the house in time to see a masked man carrying a safe leaving the home. Mrs. Deglau removed a shoe, gave chase and struck the man about the head and shoulders with the shoe. The man hit Mrs. Deglau in the face, knocking off her glasses and threatened to kill her. Meanwhile, Mr. Deglau and Mr. Haase went to assist the woman whose home had been burglarized and then joined in the pursuit of the suspect. They succeeded in overcoming him and then held him until Police Officers arrived.

Jeffrey S. Zens, age 22, who on February 19, 1975, while employed as an alarm repairman for the Honeywell Protection Service Agency, received an alarm at the Lloyd Street School, 1228 W. Lloyd Street, at 5:50 A.M. The agency sent Mr. Zens to the school to check and determine if personnel from the school had arrived. Upon arriving at the school, Mr. Zens discovered that a window in the front door had been broken and that a possible entry had been made. He called his office to notify the Police Department and then proceeded to the front entry where he found that someone had entered the office and was still inside. Mr. Zens ordered the man out of the office, drew his revolver and stood him against the wall. He then noticed flames coming from a desk. He handcuffed the suspect, started for the boiler room, and was met by Police Officers. He turned the man over to the officers and then went back to the office and attempted to extinguish the fire. The suspect was taken into custody and charged with burglary and arson.

AWARDS OF MERIT TO CITIZENS

Claude L. Drost, age 24, and Brian C. Felder, age 29. On February 28, 1975, while walking his dog along the Milwaukee River, Mr. Drost observed two small girls playing on the ice at the foot of E. Randolph Court. Continuing along the river, he heard the ice break and screams coming from where the girls had been playing. Running back to the area, he observed the two girls in the water. Mr. Drost broke off a large branch from a tree and proceeded onto the ice towards the hole on his hands and knees. It was at this time that he was joined by Mr. Felder who also crawled out to the hole. Being unable to pull the children from the water, Mr. Felder moved closer and in doing so, broke through the ice. Mr. Felder was then pulled from the water by Mr. Drost and then Mr. Drost extended the branch to the girls, and the two men were successful in pulling one of the girls from the water. The second girl had gone under the ice, and they were unable to find her.

Robert J. Jahner, age 21, and Frank Rodriguez, age 29. On March 16, 1975, at 6:00 P.M., an armed robbery took place at the Lambert Pharmacy, 5626 N. 91st Street, and the three suspects fled in an old model light blue automobile. In attempting to flee, the occupants of the car were involved in a series of hit and run accidents.

Robert Jahner observed the car strike an automobile in the area of 89th and W. Thurston, gave chase in his own car and further observed the car strike a number of other parked autos, finally hitting a light pole and coming to a stop. The occupants got out of the car and fled the scene.

Frank Rodriguez also observed the final accident and saw the occupants run from the scene. He looked into the car and observed a cash drawer and a knife and suspected that a robbery had taken place. At this time, Mr. Jahner called to Mr. Rodriguez to call the police, and he continued the chase. Mr. Rodriguez summoned a neighbor to notify the police, and he joined in the chase and observed Mr. Jahner struggling with one of the suspects. A second suspect then started beating Mr. Jahner over the head with a metal cash register which had been taken in the robbery. Mr. Rodriguez pulled the man off of Mr. Jahner and the second suspect then pulled out a large hunting knife and started swinging it wildly, cutting the trousers of Mr. Jahner. Mr. Rodriguez and Mr. Jahner finally succeeded in subduing the two men and holding them for the police. Three suspects were subsequently placed in custody and charged with armed and masked robbery and endangering safety by conduct regardless of life. Mr. Jahner was treated for lacerations to the head and face which were sustained in the struggle.

Eddie Williams, age 10, William LaFond, age 59, and William Below, age 34. On May 3, 1975, Eddie Williams and his brother, Maurice, age 8, were playing along the Burnham Slip of the Menomonee River near S. 9th Street and W. Bruce, when Maurice lost his footing and fell into the River. Eddie was able to reach out and grab his brother by the hair, holding his head above the water which was fifteen feet deep. An unknown youth observed the incident and ran to the nearby service station of William LaFond and shouted that a boy was drowning. Mr. LaFond quickly disconnected an air hose to use as a rescue rope and with Mr. Below, proceeded to the scene where Eddie was still holding his brother's head above the water. Mr. Below immediately reached down and pulled the boy from the water.

Dennis Welsch, age 18, and Gail Neusen, age 18. On May 18, 1975, a 17-year-old girl was abducted by three males, driven to a parkway, and repeatedly raped at knifepoint and forced to commit several acts of sexual perversion. The victim was then released. At this time, Mr. Welsch and Miss Neusen happened to drive by, observed the girl walking in a dazed condition and crying. Upon being informed of what happened, Miss Neusen stayed with the girl, and Mr. Welsch pursued the auto on his motorcycle at a high rate of speed and was observed by Police Officers. Mr. Welsch related the circumstances to the Officers and furnished them with a description of the auto which was quickly broadcast over the squad radio. A short time later, the auto was stopped and the three suspects were arrested for sexual perversion, rape and abduction. Meanwhile, Miss Neusen had taken the victim to the hospital where she received emergency medical treatment.

AWARDS OF MERIT TO CITIZENS

Mary Sylvester, age 19, and Kevin Hintz, age 23, who on May 19, 1975, observed three men in an auto parked in the 4000 Block of N. 42nd Street, at 12:55 A.M. The occupants of the auto got out of the car and went to the Ruelle Furniture Center, 4008 N. 42nd Street, and began tampering with the door of the store in an apparent effort to break in. Miss Sylvester went to her home and called the Police Department, and squads were dispatched to the scene. Five suspects were subsequently taken into custody and charged with attempt burglary.

Brent J. Lindorfer, age 18. On April 14, 1975, while driving on E. North Avenue, Mr. Lindorfer observed a parked auto in the 1800 Block of E. Kenilworth Place which matched the description of the stolen auto of a fellow employee. Mr. Lindorfer parked his car directly behind the auto, preventing it from being driven away, and he then made a thorough inspection of the car to determine that it was his friend's car. Mr. Lindorfer then went to a nearby restaurant and called the police, and upon returning, two people had entered the car. He approached the auto and told one of the occupants that the car was stolen and that they should await the arrival of police officers. The suspect insisted to officers that the car was his and stated he had a title to prove it; however, upon the arrival of the owner, the car was positively identified as the one which had been stolen two months earlier. A warrant was subsequently issued for concealing stolen property.

Donald F. Graczyk, age 38, who at approximately 1:00 A.M. on July 27, 1975, was awakened by the barking of his dog. Looking outside, he observed a strange car in the neighbor's drive and went outside to investigate and saw a man enter the home through the rear door. Knowing that his neighbor always entered through the front entrance, Mr. Graczyk returned to his home and called the police. In checking, it was found that the rear door had been forced open. The suspect, armed with a .32 caliber automatic, was apprehended as he left the home and was charged with armed burglary.

Raymond Rosandich, age 13; and Brian Winckler, age 12. On July 30, 1975, Raymond and Brian were riding their bicycles in the 5300 Block of N. 13th Street and observed two persons park an automobile in front of a home. Raymond, being a "Milwaukee Journal" carrier in the neighborhood, knew that the residents were not home and became suspicious. The two boys then rode to Raymond's home and wrote down the license number and description of the car. With this information, investigating officers were able to locate the auto. The suspect was subsequently charged with burglary, and all items taken from the home were returned to the owner.

George P. Widuch, age 25, who on July 26, 1975, at approximately 2:45 A.M., observed a Police Officer struggling with a man who had been involved in a disturbance. The Officer was having difficulty subduing the subject, and Mr. Widuch came to his assistance. The suspect was subsequently charged with disorderly conduct (fighting and disturbance).

Thomas A. Ebert, age 24, and his wife Barbara, age 21. On May 30, 1975, at 1:45 A.M., Mr. and Mrs. Ebert were awakened by the sound of voices and sound of breaking glass at the rear of the doctor's office at 1210 E. Oklahoma Avenue. They then observed two males at the rear of the office and called the Police Department, continuing to furnish information to the officer while the suspects were in the process of breaking into the office. Upon arrival of the Police, two suspects were found hiding in the examination room and were arrested for burglary.

Del-Rio Fitzgerald Fayne, age 9; Dela Rea Fayne, age 7; and Warren Harding Cosey, age 6, who, on June 6, 1975, at 8:40 P.M., were at Richard's Refreshment Center, 1335 W. Concordia Avenue, when a man entered the store, started waving a gun in the direction of the owners of the store and demanding money. The three children fled from the store to go home and call the police, and while enroute, they observed a passing squad car. The children yelled to the Officers and told them what had taken place and informed the Officers that the suspect was armed with a gun. The man was subsequently apprehended after a gun battle with the police in which he was critically wounded. Further investigation revealed that he had also been involved in several other armed robberies.

Allen W. Terry, age 20, and Jeffery Balke, age 21. On June 9, 1975, when pulling out of his parking stall, Allen Terry observed a car with the trunk open backed up against the window of the residence at 1568 N. Farwell Avenue with two men standing alongside. Mr. Terry sensed something wrong, pulled his auto out of the lot and parked the car and then walked back to see what was transpiring. When he was satisfied that a burglary was taking place, he walked to the apartment building office and summoned his friend, Jeffery Balke. The two men noted the license number of the car and then confronted the suspects and asked what they were doing, at which time one of the men closed the trunk of the car. At the same time, Mr. Balke observed a man inside the building looking out the window and then suddenly duck out of sight. Simultaneously, the suspects outside the building jumped into the car, picked up the third man at the rear door and drove out onto Farwell Avenue. Mr. Terry followed in his car, and Mr. Balke stayed at the scene and guarded the property which had been dropped from a bedroom window. Upon arrival of Police Officers, Mr. Balke furnished them with the license number and description of the car and the occupants. Mr. Terry and Mr. Balke later made positive identification of two of the suspects, and warrants were issued for burglary.

Lesli Ann Hildreth, age 25; and David A. Beyer, age 29. On June 21, 1975, at 3:50 A.M., the driver of a motorcycle lost control of his vehicle on the Plankinton Avenue Bridge, crossed to the wrong side of the roadway, and sideswiped the bridge support span. His left leg was severed at the knee. Miss Hildreth and Mr. Beyer, both postal clerks at the main Post Office, were leaving work, heard the noise, and found the accident victim in the roadway at 131 N. Plankinton Avenue. Miss Hildreth placed her car crossways in the street to protect the man from any oncoming traffic. Using his belt as a tourniquet, Mr. Beyer and Miss Hildreth were able to stop the hemorrhaging. The calm and efficient response of Miss Hildreth and Mr. Beyer prior to the arrival of the ambulance very possibly saved the life of the man.

Lamaar Williamson, age 61, who on June 25, 1975, while using the telephone at 1220 W. North Avenue, heard noises coming from the rear of the closed Clark Service Station at 2308 N. Teutonia Avenue. Mr. Williamson drove to the station and upon shining his car lights into the building, observed movement inside. Shortly after, three juvenile males ran out the front door into an adjoining alley. Mr. Williamson returned to the phone booth and called the Police. The youths then approached him and fired six shots from a .38 caliber revolver, narrowly missing him, and they then fled. Upon arrival of Police Officers, the area was searched, and the three youths were apprehended and charged with armed burglary, endangering safety by conduct regardless of life, and attempt murder.

Ruthie Lee Schofield, age 56, who during the early morning hours of July 3, 1975, was awakened by a noisy auto driving by her home, and then heard the sound of breaking glass. Looking across the street, she observed a light go on and a young boy carry a television set and other articles out of the front door and take them a short distance away. He made three trips, each time removing property from the residence. Mrs. Schofield then notified police, and upon their arrival, arrested a 14-year-old youth for burglary. All items were recovered and returned to the owner.
