CITATIONS

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

POLICE OFFICER
R. SHAFFER

Police Officer Robert L. Shaffer, Third District, awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On November 3, 1975, at 2:20 A.M., Police Officer Robert Shaffer and several other officers responded to a report of "family trouble — fight", at 3411 W. Clybourn Street. Upon arrival, the officers found a 19-year-old woman verbally abusing, cursing and threatening other members of her family. She refused to calm down and suddenly ran into the kitchen and returned with a ten-inch butcher knife. The woman then proceeded to threaten and lunge at the officers with the knife, and she failed to heed orders to drop the knife even though the officers armed themselves with their service revolvers.

When the woman thrust the knife in the direction of the officers a second time, Officer Shaffer suddenly grabbed the woman's right hand which contained the knife and pushed her against a wall. This caused the woman to lose her balance and enabled Officer Shaffer and the other officers to disarm and take her into custody.

In this action, Officer Shaffer unhesitatingly disarmed a distraught woman armed with a dangerous weapon, thereby preventing possible injury to other officers and citizens.

POLICE OFFICER
F. WELSCH

D. BRUNNER

On November 9, 1975, at 1:45 A.M., Police Officers Dale Brunner and Frederick Welsch monitored a police radio dispatch of "auto overturned in the 5400 Block of North 76th Street" and immediately proceeded to the scene. Upon arrival, they observed an auto overturned and in flames in the northbound lane of North 76th Street.

Upon being informed by two bystanders that a woman was trapped inside the burning auto and finding the doors locked, Officers Brunner and Welsch obtained a fire extinguisher and a tire iron from the squad. Officer Welsch then smashed the rear and side windows of the vehicle, which was now completely engulfed in flames, while Officer

Brunner cleaned the glass away and a citizen used a fire extinguisher in an attempt to extinguish the fire around the door area.

The Officers then crawled into the auto and pulled a 24-year-old woman to safety. In a semi-conscious state and suffering from a broken jaw and head injuries, the woman indicated that there were other people in the auto; whereupon, Officers Brunner and Welsch, as well as a second citizen again checked the interior of the flaming auto but found no other occupants.

In this action, they efficiently and successfully rescued a woman from a flame engulfed auto without due regard for their personal safety.

R. MATT

On December 15, 1975, at 10:50 A.M., a Mrs. Mary Kanack and Mrs. Elizabeth Tesch

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

summoned Police Officer Robert Matt who was off duty and in his southside residence. The women informed Officer Matt that their mother, Mrs. Evelyn Tesch, 58 years of age, a neighbor of Officer Matt's, had not responded to their attempts to enter her residence and they feared for her well-being.

Officer Matt immediately gained entry into the elder Mrs. Tesch's residence by breaking a window and found her lying motionless on a bed. As Mrs. Tesch was breathing very shallow and had an unnatural color to her skin, Officer Matt promptly administered mouth-to-mouth resuscitation in the prescribed manner, and the elderly woman began to respond prior to arrival of police and fire emergency units. Mrs. Tesch was then conveyed to St. Luke's Hospital where examination disclosed that she suffered a violent reaction to medication.

In this action Police Officer Robert Matt efficiently administered first aid treatment in the prescribed manner which led to the recovery of a gravely ill elderly woman.

POLICE OFFICER
M. TABBERT

S. MAKOWSKI

POLICE OFFICER
W. DREES

POLICE OFFICER
D. BENSKÉ

On November 14, 1975, at 10:40 P.M., Police Officers William Drees, David Benske, Sylvester Makowski and Myron Tabbert responded to a police radio dispatch of "assist officers" at the intersection of South Howell Avenue and East Smith Street and found an auto engulfed in flames in the front yard at 2421 South Howell Avenue. (The "assist" consisted of another squad calling for help at the scene of said accident).

Observing that there was a male occupant in the flaming auto, Officer Tabbert obtained a fire extinguisher from a nearby businessman and began to extinguish the flames around the driver's door thereby enabling Officers Drees, Makowski and Benske to approach the auto. The officers were then able to open the driver's door, reach into the flaming interior and pull the male occupant to safety. The driver was semi-conscious and was unable to recall what happened.

In this action, they performed an act of unusual responsibility wherein they displayed initiative and exceptional energy.

SERGEANT
J. PEDERSON

Sergeant John H. Pederson, Third District, awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On January 18, 1976, at 2:40 P.M., while enroute to work and northbound on I-94, Sergeant John Pederson came upon a traffic accident in the southbound lane involving three cars. Flames were emanating from one of the cars and completely engulfing a second car. Sergeant Pederson immediately parked his car in the distress lane, jumped over the median barrier and ran to the accident scene where he found a man seated on the driver's side of the flame-engulfed car.

After Sergeant Pederson caused the first and second vehicles to be separated from the flame-engulfed car, the fire diminished somewhat, and a citizen used a portable fire extinguisher to further knock down the flames around the passenger door of the flaming car. A second citizen then forced open the passenger door, and Sergeant Pederson entered the auto in an attempt to pull the driver out. As he reached into the smoke filled car, Sergeant Pederson detected movement on the floor of the passenger side and found a woman who had been thrown to the floor by the impact. With the assistance of the two citizens, Sergeant Pederson was able to remove the woman from the auto. Simultaneously, the driver of the flaming auto regained consciousness and exited the vehicle under his own power.

Through his actions at the aforementioned accident scene, Sergeant John H. Pederson displayed the utmost responsibility and initiative.

POLICE OFFICER
A. LAND

Police Officer Aloysius A. Land, Third District, awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On February 20, 1976, at 1:00 P.M., Police Officer Aloysius Land was dispatched to the apartment building at 3110 West Wells Street to investigate a report of a "suspicious man." While checking the basement garage of an adjoining apartment building, Officer Land noted that the fire door leading to the apartments was ajar.

Upon opening said fire door and entering the building, Officer Land observed a man's "arm with a gun in hand" under the hallway stairwell. Feigning ignorance of the man's presence, Officer Land continued on to a point where he was able to safely draw his service revolver. He then turned, seized the subject's gun and placed him under arrest. Also under the stairwell was a nude woman who the subject was about to rape.

In this action, Police Officer Aloysius Land performed an act of unusual responsibility wherein he displayed initiative and keen observation.

POLICE OFFICER
G. NAWROCKI

Police Officer Gregory W. Nawrocki, Tactical Enforcement Unit, awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On March 27, 1976, at 12:12 A.M., Police Officer Gregory Nawrocki and two other officers were dispatched to the Pizza Man Restaurant, 1622 West Wells Street, and learned from an employee that an order had been phoned in for two pizzas and two quarts of soda at 1938 North 26th Street. Further, that the employees of the store were suspicious since this was the same address where a delivery man had been robbed three weeks earlier.

When the same delivery man displayed reluctance to make this delivery, Police Officer Nawrocki volunteered to do so, donning a rain poncho and placing black tape on the white stripes of his uniform trousers to prevent ready detection. He was then driven to the scene of delivery at 1938 North 26th Street, covered by several other officers, and he exited the vehicle with a simulated pizza which covered a gun in his right hand. As he approached the front porch at 1938 North 26th Street, a black male standing in the shadows about 15 feet away stated, "Come here." When Officer Nawrocki responded by saying, "What?", the suspect said, "Come here and give me your money", and "If you don't come here and give me your money, I'm going to shoot you!"

At this time, Officer Nawrocki observed the suspect pointing a gun in his direction; whereupon, Officer Nawrocki shouted, "Police, hold it!", and fired his gun striking the suspect in the abdomen. The suspect then turned and attempted to flee the area but was apprehended a short distance away. His arrest resulted in the clearance of six robberies involving pizza delivery men.

In this action, Officer Gregory Nawrocki distinguished himself by performing an act of great or unusual responsibility which led to the arrest of a holdup man, as well as an accomplice in six other robberies.

POLICE OFFICER
G. NICHOLS

R. HAGEN

On January 29, 1976, at 6:30 P.M., Police Officers Gary Nichols and Roger Hagen were dispatched to an apartment building at 3431 West Kilbourn Avenue to investigate a report of "citizen threatening suicide." Upon arrival, they learned that a male occupant of the building had turned on the gas jets in his apartment and threatened to kill himself by blowing up the building. The officers immediately summoned Sergeant John Pederson, who ordered them to force the door to the man's apartment.

Inside the apartment, the male occupant held the officers at bay with a switch blade knife and threatened to kill them. The officers, however, were able to distract the mentally deranged subject in order to turn off the gas jets, and they then disarmed him by forcing him against a window with a chair. He was then taken into custody and conveyed for mental observation.

In this action, they were confronted with a mentally deranged subject who threatened to take his life as well as the lives of others present, but they efficiently brought this incident to a successful conclusion without injury to anyone present.

Police Officers Charles A. Waldoch, James S. Miller and Duane O. Marshall, Second District, awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On Wednesday, June 16, 1976, at 2:43 A.M., while on routine patrol, Officers Duane Marshall and Charles Waldoch observed smoke and flames emanating from a three-story rooming house at 802 South Third Street. The officers immediately summoned the Fire Department via the dispatcher and then attempted to enter the front door of the building. Upon being forced back by intense flames and smoke, the officers proceeded to force open a rear door to the building. At this time, Police Officer James Miller appeared on the scene and joined Officers Marshall and Waldoch in entering the building.

The three officers then groped their way through the smoke filled building and successfully aroused several elderly residents by shouting and banging on the apartment doors. Upon exiting their apartments, the tenants were led to the stairway and to safety.

The last tenant in the building was found to be an elderly, invalid man, and it was necessary for Officers Marshall and Waldoch to carry him down the stairs to safety. All of the tenants had been evacuated before arrival of the Fire Department.

GARY MARINELLI and VIVIAN FLOWERS, both 21. On September 6, 1976, at approximately 1:35 P.M., Mr. Marinelli and Miss Flowers noticed two men park a car in front of 2662 South 14th Street and walk to the rear of Tate's Super Value Store a short distance away. The two men stood a few minutes and then ran to their auto and sped away. Mr. Marinelli thought their actions were suspicious and copied down the license number of the car and noted the description of the vehicle as well as the description of the suspects while Miss Flowers called the police. The police dispatcher had been aware of the holdup and broadcast the descriptions. Both suspects were arrested a short time later and charged with unarmed robbery — masked. As a result of the information furnished by Mr. Marinelli and Miss Flowers, this case and four other armed robberies were cleared.

DAVID R. BASH, age 21. On September 23, 1976, at 3:45 P.M., a fire was discovered in the lower unit of a duplex at 5148-50 North 85th Street. Upon becoming aware of the fire, David Bash ran to the scene from his place of employment, Pepino's Restaurant, and learned that a three-year-old boy was trapped in an upstairs bedroom. Mr. Bash quickly learned the layout of the residence and then attempted to gain entry to the boy's bedroom through a bedroom window from which another child had been rescued but he was unsuccessful due to intense smoke and heat. He exited the room and then made two attempts to enter the boy's room through a broken window but was driven back by the smoke and heat. In a last desperate effort, Mr. Bash plunged himself through the window. Momentarily stunned when he fell onto a dresser below the window, he recovered, groped around in the smoke and located and successfully completed the rescue by handing the boy out of the window. Mr. Bash, himself, collapsed from the effects of the smoke and both he and the child were revived after treatment in hyperbaric chambers.

16 picked up the unconscious boy. He

DEAN M. COUTEE, age 22; CHRISTINE WESTLEY, age 21; and DAVID J. BARBEAUX, age 22.

At approximately 6:30 P.M. on August 16, 1976, the Clark Service Station at 1418 South Muskego Avenue was held up by a man armed with a jack-knife. The man demanded money and then stabbed the attendant in the back as he was lying on the floor of the station. A fight then ensued between the 18-year-old attendant and the suspect during which the attendant was stabbed again in the left upper chest. The fight continued out onto the station drive where the victim yelled for help.

At this time, Mr. Coutee and Miss Westley were stopped at a traffic light at 16th and Greenfield and observed the struggle. Mr. Coutee got out of the car and ran over to assist the attendant at which time the suspect fled from the scene. Mr. Barbeau, who had also witnessed the struggle, came to assist and placed the attendant in his automobile where other witnesses administered first aid until the arrival of police. Mr. Coutee and Mr. Barbeaux then ran to Miss Westley's automobile and pursued the suspect through streets and alleys, apprehending him in the 1400 Block of West Orchard Street. They returned him to the scene where he was turned over to police. A warrant was later issued for first degree attempt murder and armed robbery.

DONALD H. MADAUUS, age 28, and his wife, ARLENE, age 24, who, shortly after Midnight on July 10, 1976, while sitting on their back porch heard the sound of breaking glass coming from Blackmore Oldsmobile, 6033 North Teutonia Avenue. Following this, two youths ran from the service garage and momentarily concealed themselves in nearby bushes before returning to the building and entering through an overhead door. Shortly thereafter, they drove out of the garage in a 1974 automobile valued at $3500.

Upon observing this, Mrs. Madaus called the police, while Mr. Madaus took their car and followed the two men in the stolen vehicle to North 32nd and West Fairmount where they parked and exited the car. Mr. Madaus then returned to the dealership and furnished investigating officers with this information. The officers soon located the auto being driven in the 3400 Block of West Rohr, curbed it and arrested the occupants, a 15 and a 16-year-old boy. They were charged with burglary and operating auto without owner's consent and were detained at the Children's Center.

RICKEY L. MATHEWSON, age 23. On August 4, 1976, at approximately 2:30 A.M., Mr. Mathewson of Oshkosh, Wisconsin was driving in the area of 27th and West Wells Streets in search of the freeway system when he observed a black male following a white girl. Mr. Mathewson stopped and asked the girl for directions and also inquired if she needed help. She gave him directions but refused any assistance.

Mr. Mathewson then drove off but circled the area, and a few minutes later observed the man follow the girl into an apartment building, grab her and drag her down a hallway. FRANK RZEPKOWSKI, age 22, MARK PENDERGAST, age 18, and JAMES OLSZEWSKI, age 16.

On June 18, 1976, at approximately 3:30 P.M., two young boys were playing along the swollen Kinnickinnic River when the jacket of one of the boys fell into the water. In an attempt to retrieve the jacket, the 13-year-old fell into the rapidly running stream. The youth's 14-year-old brother attempted to pull him from the river, and he, too, fell in.

As the boys were swept eastward. Frank Rzepkowski, a Milwaukee Firefighter who was in the vicinity of South 11th and Harrison Streets, saw them bobbing along in the swollen river. He entered the water via a steel ladder attached to a concrete embankment in an effort to effect a rescue of the two youths. At the same time, Mark Pendergast ran to the area and also entered the water, and the two men formed a human chain with Mr. Pendergast grasping ahold of one of the boys and the second boy grasping onto the first. However, the rapidly flowing water was too strong, and Mr. Rzepkowski and Mr. Pendergast were unable to maintain their hold, and the two brothers, as well as Mr. Pendergast were swept away.

Mr. Rzepkowski then ran downstream to get to a position to again attempt to aid the boys, and at this time James Olszewski also ran to their assistance near 9th Street. Mr. Pendergast still maintained his hold on the two boys, and Mr. Olszewski removed his belt and from a position on another steel ladder, threw the end of the belt to the three, bringing them safely to shore.

KELLY M. O'LAUGHLIN, age 7; JACK D. MANDELLA, age 70; and GEORGE E. SEARING, age 28. On June 12, 1976, at approximately 6:20 P.M. while Kelly O'Laughlin was swimming in her family's backyard pool, her 7-year-old girl friend entered the water in an area which was over her head and being unable to swim, the little girl started to sink to the bottom of the pool. Kelly, knowing how to swim, went to the girl's aid but the struggling girl started to pull her under. Kelly then screamed for help.

Mr. Mandella, who was working in his garage, responded to the screams and jumped into the pool, located the drowning girl and tried to lift her out of the pool. However, the little girl slipped from his grasp and again went under. Mr. Mandella then called for help, and Mr. Searing ran from his backyard, dove into the pool and located the limp child. He quickly brought her out of the water and began mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to which the little girl responded. She was conveyed to St. Michael's Hospital, examined and released.

FRANK W. MANCUSO, age 50. On the morning of June 18, 1976, while in his place of business, the Red Barn Restaurant, 2830 North Oakland Avenue, preparing to open, Mr. Mancuso observed a black male loitering in the parking lot of the restaurant. The man was in the lot for approximately ten minutes and kept looking up and down the street. He then crossed Oakland Avenue and entered the Polly Prim Laundry and approached the counter. Mr. Mancuso instructed one of his employes to call the police while he went outside where he saw the subject leave the laundry, walk to a nearby bakery and stand in the doorway. Upon arrival of detectives, Mr. Mancuso informed them of the whereabouts of the suspect who after questioning was arrested for the holdup of the Polly Prim Laundry.

MARC W. ROEDER, age 19, and JAMES P. MAYNARD, age 18. They pursued the subject but lost him at the City Sanitation Yard at 7717 West Good Hope Road and then returned to the restaurant and informed officers of their observations.

During their chase, Mr. Roeder and Mr. Maynard had observed an unattended auto parked in a nearby yard and returned to the area to keep the vehicle under surveillance. At about 2:45 A.M., a man matching the description of the burglary suspect approached the car and drove off. Mr. Roeder and Mr. Maynard again gave pursuit, and at 43rd and Good Hope, they stopped the car and made a citizen's arrest of the driver. They then returned him to the restaurant and turned him over to police. The suspect admitted to the burglary as well as a burglary of another Barnaby's Restaurant on May 13, 1976.

RAYMOND ZUEHLKE, age 63, who while parking his automobile at the rear of his home on May 21, 1976 at approximately 8:30 A.M., observed a black male standing next to a parked auto in the lot next to his. Shortly thereafter, a white male came from the side entrance of the home next door carrying a large portable television set. They put the TV in the car and then backed out of the alley. Mr. Zuehlke immediately noted the license number and a description of the two men on a piece of paper.

A short time later, Mr. Zuehlke was interviewed by police officers who were investigating a burglary in the neighborhood, and he informed the officers what he had observed and gave them the license number and the description of the two men. With this information, they were able to make a thorough investigation which led to recovery of the stolen property and the apprehension of the two suspects who were charged with burglary.

JUDGE FREDERICK KESSLER, age 36. On June 1, 1976, at 1:40 P.M., a man held up the Continental Bank & Trust Co., 735 West Wisconsin Avenue, obtaining approximately $1,340. A description of the hold-up man was immediately broadcast over the police radio. Judge Kessler, who was in the vicinity, observed the unusual amount of activity in the area of the bank and inquired of a police officer what had occurred. The Judge then proceeded to the Court House, and on the way to his court room, he observed a subject who fit the description of the bank hold-up man. He immediately located a police officer and informed him of his suspicions. The officer apprehended the suspect who admitted to the robbery, and all the money taken was recovered.

ELLEN J. BUDNEY, age 21. At approximately Midnight on April 25, 1976, Police Officers observed two men standing in a doorway at 1201 West Mitchell Street. One of the men had a facial laceration that needed medical attention, so the officers took them to a nearby restaurant to apply first aid and to investigate. It was at this time that they noticed that the men answered descriptions of two men wanted for attempt murder as a result of a shooting which had occurred earlier at the Club De LaRosa, 900 South 16th Street. A search of the man disclosed a .45 caliber automatic. The two suspects resisted arrest and a struggle ensued, and the officers requested that someone in the restaurant call for assistance. Ellen Budney, a waitress, grabbed the officer's handie talkie which was on the counter and relayed the information to the dispatcher that the officers needed assistance. Both suspects were soon brought under control and charged with attempt murder.

ATTORNEY DENIS DUGAN, age 33. On May 5, 1976, Attorney Dugan informed detectives that in the course of business for his employer, the Guardian State Bank, he had had occasion to be in an office and garage at 5614 West Hampton Avenue where he observed numerous travelers checks strewn about on a table. Becoming suspicious Mr. Dugan noted one of the serial numbers of the checks and reported this to the detectives. Investigation disclosed that the check was one taken in a burglary and an attempt burglary of a drug store. Also in that burglary, a large amount of narcotics and merchandise had been taken. Through Mr. Dugan's cooperation, a search warrant was obtained and served on the occupant, and eventually $7000 worth of stolen merchandise was recovered and four burglaries were cleared. The suspect, who was on probation for safe burglary, was arrested and charged with burglary.

RAMON OCASIO, age 38, and DANIEL ALVARADO, age 42, employees of the Pfister Hotel, were making their rounds as night clean-up men at approximately 5:00 A.M. on March 28, 1976, when they observed a man hunched over near one of the lockers in the basement locker room. Upon checking closer, they observed him starting a fire. The man then proceeded to another locker area and was in the process of starting a second fire when Mr. Ocasio and Mr. Alvarado approached him, at which time he fled from the locker room. The two men pursued him, running up the stairs to the first floor, out of the hotel into an alley and south to Wisconsin Avenue where Mr. Ocasio and Mr. Alvarado observed a police squad. They summoned the officers who immediately gave chase and apprehended the suspect a short distance away. A warrant for arson was later obtained. The fire, which did damage amounting to $300 had been extinguished with a hand extinguisher by another employee.

ROBERT WEISROCK, age 37. On April 8, 1976, at approximately 10:45 A.M., a 67-year-old woman had her purse grabbed from her as she was walking in front of 4042 North 7th Street. The youth who snatched the purse then fled from the scene.

Robert Weisrock, a postal employee, had observed the woman get off a bus and also noticed three youths walking behind her. Within minutes, he saw two of the boys running in one direction, and the third boy was sitting on a nearby porch. At the same time, the woman came running up to Mr. Weisrock and stated that her purse had been stolen. He immediately apprehended the boy who was sitting on the porch and asked the occupants of the home to call the police. Due to his quick actions, the three boys were arrested and charged with theft from person, and the purse which had been discarded in a nearby yard was recovered and returned to the owner.

AWARDS OF MERIT TO CITIZENS

FRED DUSTIN, age 32. On April 27, 1976, at 9:50 A.M., an armed robbery occurred and a description of the suspects and the car was dispatched over the air. A police squad spotted the auto on West Appleton Avenue, and a high speed chase ensued during which two parked autos were stuck as well as a traffic light at 91st and Silver Spring. Upon arrival at the accident scene, officers found one of the suspects being held by Mr. Dustin, a City Veteran cabdriver. While posted at 91st and Silver Spring, Mr. Dustin heard the initial broadcast of the armed robbery and the ensuing chase. He observed the two individuals abandon the auto and flee on foot. Knowing that one of them might be armed, he still gave chase and caught one of them in the 9000 Block of West Thurston. The second suspect was apprehended a short time later and warrants were issued for armed robbery against the two men.

MITCHELL COSBY, age 36, and his mother TAKEETA SMITH, age 51. On May 3, 1976, at 10:38 A.M., an armed robbery occurred at Dick's Transport Service Station, 1604 North 27th Street. A few minutes prior to the holdup, Mitchell Cosby was parking his car in front of his mother's residence and as he did so, he noticed two black males drive off in a maroon car. A short time later, he observed the same auto with the same occupants again parking across the street from his mother's. Both he and his mother, Takeeta Smith, sensed something wrong, so Mrs. Smith continued to observe the two men while Mr. Cosby went out on the front porch and wrote down the license number of the car. A short time later the car left, and Mr. Cosby went over to the station and was informed that the attendant had been held up. Upon arrival of the police, Mr. Cosby gave them the license number and description of the auto and a description of the suspects. This information was broadcast, and within a few minutes two suspects were arrested and charged with armed robbery.

EDMUND STOLTMANN, age 64. On March 25, 1976, at 6:20 P.M., two men entered Gary's Suds Pub, 2778 North Weil Street, displayed automatic hand weapons, and announced a hold-up. They received the receipts from the cash register and fled from the tavern to an auto parked at the rear of the tavern with a third man sitting in the car.

Officers arriving at the scene of the holdup interviewed Mr. Stoltmann who stated that shortly before the robbery, he was walking past the alley and observed an automobile parked with the motor running and containing one black male, and he saw two black males walking towards the tavern. Becoming suspicious, Mr. Stoltmann noted the license number on a matchbook and gave this information to investigating officers. The description of the auto and the license number was immediately broadcast and shortly thereafter, five suspects were arrested, and warrants were issued for armed robbery and armed robbery (party to a crime).

THOMAS F. ROURKE, age 28. On April 15, 1976, Arthur Retzlaff found his wife lying on the bed not breathing. Mr. Retzlaff immediately ran upstairs and summoned his neighbor, Thomas Rourke, and they both returned to Mrs. Retzlaff and together they placed her on the floor. Mr. Rourke then began cardiopulmonary resuscitation, and Mrs. Retzlaff began breathing again. Shortly thereafter, the rescue squad arrived and administered oxygen. The emergency staff at the hospital stated that the prompt action taken by Mr. Rourke was instrumental in saving the life of Mrs. Retzlaff.

FRANK G. HANCOSKY, age 52, who on March 11, 1976, at approximately 9:40 P.M., while looking out the window of his apartment, observed four young girls walk up behind a woman as she walked south on 26th Street at Kilbourn. Two of the girls snatched the woman's purse and then ran north on 26th Street. Mr. Hancosky immediately left his home in pursuit of the girls. As they ran, the young girls split up, and Mr. Hancosky followed the girl carrying the purse, shouting to her to "drop the purse." The girl dropped the purse and continued running. Although unable to catch the youths, the purse and all its contents were recovered and returned to the woman.

RICHARD A. HADJUCKI, age 25, and JAMES A. HADJUCKI, age 27. On March 23, 1976, at approximately 8:45 P.M., Richard Hadjucki observed a suspicious acting man walking past the next door residence of his parents who were on vacation. The man walked up to the front porch of the home and opened the storm door after which Mr. Hadjucki could no longer see him. He then went downstairs and told his brother, James, what he had seen, and he had his wife call the police.

The two brothers then went outside. Richard went to the rear yard and turned the dog loose, and James went to the front of his parent's home at which time the man jumped off the porch and ran to the rear yard. The two men chased the suspect to a nearby yard when he turned around and reached under his coat as if pulling out a weapon. He then continued running through yards with the brothers in pursuit. A squad car arrived at the scene at this time and officers apprehended the suspect who dropped a large screwdriver and other evidence from the burglary and also pulled out a .25 caliber automatic which was taken from him. A warrant for armed burglary was issued, and further investigation revealed that the suspect had also burglarized another home in the neighborhood.

EDWIN G. KRAUSKI, age 53, and his son, DENNIS E. KRAUSKI, age 26, who on February 16, 1976, observed a young man from the same apartment complex acting suspiciously in an area away from his own apartment. The Krauski's decided to notify police of their observations.

Later the same date, a tenant from another apartment in the complex reported to the police that her apartment had been burglarized. The youth whom Edwin and Dennis Krauski had observed and reported was then brought in for questioning and admitted his involvement in this offense and also admitted committing ten other apartment burglaries since June of 1975.

CECIL E. TERRILL, JR., age 29. On March 6, 1976, at approximately 7:00 P.M., while Mr. Terrill was taking a shower, he heard the doorbell ring several times. Upon responding, he frightened away two men who had been attempting to enter his residence. Mr. Terrill followed the men as they walked away and got into an auto parked a short distance away. He noted the description and license number of the auto and immediately returned to his home and called the police. The information regarding the auto was broadcast, and a short time later officers spotted the car and stopped the driver for questioning. The suspect subsequently admitted the attempt burglary of Mr. Terrill's residence as well as the burglary of another apartment, and he also implicated an accomplice. Warrants were, therefore, obtained for burglary and attempt burglary.

GORDON P. KNUTH, age 22, and JOSEPH M. ALIVO, age 20. On Sunday, February 15, 1976, at approximately 6:00 P.M., three young boys were playing below the sandhopper on the grounds of the Pre-Con Corporation, 7300 West Douglas Road, when one of the youths pulled a lever releasing the sand and trapping one of the boys. One of his companions ran to the nearby Red Carpet Lanes and summoned Gordon Knuth, an employee. Mr. Knuth ran in the direction where the youth had pointed and found the boy buried up to his neck in sand and the third youth pushing sand away from his face. Mr. Knuth attempted to dig the sand away with his bare hands but was unable to keep up with the flow of the sand which was rapidly covering the boy, resulting in him having difficulty breathing. Mr. Knuth positioned himself between the chute and the boy, diverting much of the sand from the boy, but partially burying his own body.

The third boy then sought additional help, and another Red Carpet employee, Joseph Alivo, rushed to the scene and with his bare hands uncovered Mr. Knuth who was almost buried. He then began digging the sand away from the neck and chest of the boy who by this time was gasping for air under the weight of the sand. At this time, Police Officers and the Fire Department arrived and freed the trapped boy who was conveyed to St. Michael's Hospital and treated for leg bruises.

CAROLYN SINGER, age 20. On January 8, 1976, a man held up the Fotomat at 2250 North Oakland Avenue, obtaining $300. Carolyn Singer, an employee at the Peppermint Farms adjacent to the Fotomat, informed police officers responding to the call that she had seen the holdup man and would be able to identify him.

On January 20, 1976, the Fotomat was again held up by the same man who this time obtained $50.

During the early evening hours of January 27, 1976, the same man entered the Peppermint Farms store where Mrs. Singer was employed. Recognizing him as the holdup man, she immediately called the police. Seeing Mrs. Singer using the phone, the suspect fled from the store. However, as a result of her call, police officers apprehended the suspect a short distance from the scene. Following investigation, he admitted to the two robberies as well as a third robbery of the Fotomat Store located at 4880 North Hopkins Street.

TODD MEGNA, age 25. On June 9, 1975, two men entered McDonald's Restaurant at 7170 North Teutonia Avenue, produced handguns and announced, "This is a holdup" and forced one of the employees to open an 21 office safe from which they obtained over $1500. The five employees were then ordered into a walk-in freezer.

AWARDS OF MERIT TO CITIZENS

Todd Megna, a customer in the restaurant, ran to his auto and followed the suspects to an apartment building at 7837 North 60th Street. He then went to a nearby telephone and called the Police Department, notifying them what had transpired. Upon arrival, officers searched the apartment building and arrested the three suspects and also recovered the money and two handguns. They were subsequently charged with armed robbery.

He went to the rear portion of his yard and saw three men jump into the auto and speed through the alley. Mr. Hale jotted down the license number and noted the description of the auto. A short time later he learned that the Viennese Gardens, a tavern at 2578 North 33rd Street, had been held up. He furnished police with the information he had, and as a result, officers were able to arrest one of the men who then implicated three other suspects. A total of five men were arrested and charged with armed robbery. Further investigation cleared eleven armed robberies and a murder which had occurred on the same date.

GEORGE WAGNER, age 32. On December 7, 1975, at approximately 9:00 P.M., Mr. Wagner observed two youths running down the alley at the rear of his home and went to investigate. He observed that the windows of a car parked at the rear of Congregation Beth Jehudah Temple, 2700 North 54th Street, had been smashed. Mr. Wagner searched the alley in an attempt to locate the youths and then returned to the scene and located the owner of the damaged auto. He then got into his own car to continue his search for the suspects. In this search, he checked Petroff's Bowling Alley, 5324 West Burleigh Street, and observed two youths that he believed might be involved. He then returned to the scene and notified police officers that he believed the suspects were at the bowling alley. After further investigation and questioning, the youths admitted their part in the offense as well as numerous other acts of criminal damage in the neighborhood.

TONY SCAFFIDI, age 18, who on December 20, 1975, saw a man carrying a purse running through yards in the area of his home. Mr. Scaffidi ran out of his home and grabbed the man who was rifling the purse below the porch of his home. Mr. Scaffidi forced the suspect to accompany him home and held him until police arrived. Investigation disclosed that the man had earlier approached a woman at 914 East Brady, hit her with his fist and demanded her money. The suspect was subsequently charged with robbery.

JOHN OBERG and ROBERT SCHROEDER, both 30 years of age. On November 9, 1975, at 1:45 A.M., Officers responded to a call of a traffic accident in the 5400 Block of North 76th Street and found the car overturned and flames coming from the front of the auto. Mr. Oberg and Mr. Schroeder, who were already at the scene, informed the officers that a woman was trapped inside the burning vehicle. As the doors of the car were locked, the officers used a crowbar to break out the side and rear windows, and they, along with Mr. Schroeder, then crawled into the burning auto and freed the victim who was wedged between the roof and the dash of the overturned vehicle. The woman indicated that a second victim was still in the vehicle, and while the officers and Mr. Schroeder returned to the auto, Mr. Oberg extinguished flames that were near the three men, using a fire extinguisher from the squad car.

JOHN R. GOINS, age 23, who on December 6, 1975, at approximately 6:30 P.M. observed three youths attempting to steal the purse of a woman at a bus stop on the corner of North 24th and West Hopkins Street. The woman held onto the purse and the youths knocked her to the ground and dragged her several feet, causing lacerations and bruises to both knees. Mr. Goins went to the aid of the woman at which time two of the boys fled the scene, but he succeeded in nabbing the third boy and took him to a nearby tavern and asked several patrons to watch him while he returned to assist the victim. When police officers arrived, Mr. Goins was holding the boy, and through further investigation, they obtained the names of the other two. The three juveniles were charged with strongarm robbery.

NICHOLAS M. IGLER, age 33, and W. HAROLD ELLIS, age 73. On November 8, 1975, at approximately 8:15 P.M., while checking the lot of the Cher-Den Inn, 4923 West Villard Avenue, where he is employed as a bartender, Mr. Igler encountered a suspicious youth emerging from an adjacent yard carrying some items. As Mr. Igler approached the youth, he also saw two auto batteries on the lot nearby. Having knowledge of recent thefts of batteries, Mr. Igler directed the youth to accompany him to the tavern while he called the police. The boy then took a loaded .22 caliber pistol, cocked it, and pointed the gun at Mr. Iglar, threatening to shoot him.

At this time, Mr. Ellis who had observed the struggle from his upstairs residence overlooking the lot, rushed to the scene and noticed the boy with the revolver in his hand. He went to the assistance of Mr. Iglar and was struck in the arm by the boy. Even though suffering a wound to his arm, Mr. Ellis was able to wrestle the gun away from the boy, and the two men then held him until police arrived. He was subsequently charged with reckless use of a weapon, armed burglary and burglary.

JOHN M. MULLARKEY, age 35. On September 28, 1975, at approximately 11:30 P.M., while driving in his car in the 900 Block of North 27th Street, Mr. Mullarkey observed a black female attempting to force a white man around a corner while it appeared that the man wanted to proceed straight ahead. Thinking this peculiar, Mr. Mullarkey drove around the block and then came upon the man lying on the ground with a Negro male standing over him with a knife and the same female standing over both of them. Mr. Mullarkey drove his car onto an alley approach next to where the man was lying and yelled at the suspect who released the victim and approached Mr. Mullarkey, Threatening to cut him. Mr. Mullarkey rolled up a window and locked the car doors. Both the male and female suspects then walked towards 27th Street and entered a tavern. Mr. Mullarkey then observed the man get into a parked automobile and while attempting to write down the license number, the suspect removed a large board from the trunk and began swinging it at Mr. Mullarkey's car. Mr.

Mullarkey then drove down the block and called the police. The suspects were subsequently arrested and charged with attempted armed robbery.

IVONA HOLUBOWICZ, age 41, who on October 4, 1975, while employed as a parking checker, observed a man hurriedly leave the Midland National Bank, 240 West Wisconsin Avenue, get into a car and drive away from the area. Mrs. Holubowicz noted the description of the automobile and the license number and related this information to investigating officers. This information led to the arrest of the suspect who readily admitted his participation in the armed robbery.

ARNOLD G. HELING, age 42, who on October 10, 1975, was informed that his neighbor's son, a newsboy, was held up while collecting on his paper route. Mr. Heling obtained a description of the suspect and began checking the area in his auto. A few blocks from where the offense had occurred, he observed a youth that matched the description and stopped to talk to him. After brief questioning, the juvenile fled on foot. Mr. Heling gave chase and caught him and held him until police arrived. The boy admitted committing the robbery, and the stolen money was returned to the newsboy.

DUANE C. FIENE, age 23, RONALD D. KADER, age 31, and THOMAS J. ROSEWICZ, age 33. On October 24, 1975, a 58-year-old woman was approached on Kohl's Parking Lot at 3555 South 27th Street by a young male and female who attempted to take her auto at gunpoint. The woman's screams attracted witnesses, and the two suspects fled on foot from the scene. The incident was observed by Duane Fiene who got into his car and pursued the suspects.

The victim ran into the grocery store and advised the manager, Ronald Kader, and a baking company supervisor, Thomas Rosewicz, what had happened. She pointed out the two fleeing suspects, and Mr. Kader and Mr. Rosewicz gave chase in a truck. The two men caught up to the suspects, at which time the male attempted to draw a pistol from a duffle bag. Mr. Fiene came up from behind, grabbed him, and the three men succeeded in subduing him. The 16-year-old girl was apprehended by police a few blocks away. Both suspects were subsequently charged with armed robbery.

JAMES ARNDT age 33, who on August 17, 1975, was employed as a bartender at Bryant's Cocktail Lounge, 1579 South 9th Street when four armed and masked men entered at 1:30 A.M. Even though Mr. Arndt was immediately confronted by one of the men who was pointing a gun at him, he calmly walked to the area next to the cash register under the pretense of making change and pressed the holdup alarm. Squads were thus able to arrive in time to observe the four suspects fleeing the scene and succeeded in capturing two of them. The remaining two, as well as the driver of the holdup car were later captured. During the armed holdup, an off duty police officer was fatally wounded and also two patrons were shot and wounded. The four men were arrested and charged with murder and armed and masked robbery.

KENNETH LEAS, age 26, and his wife, NANCY, age 22. On September 29, 1975, Mrs. Leas saw two juveniles leave her apartment building and drop a lady's purse in the rear yard. Knowing the occupants of the upstairs apartment were not home, she notified her husband. Mr. Leas got into his car, checked the area and found one of the youths and returned to his apartment with the boy and called the police. Investigation disclosed that the boy and a second youth who was apprehended later had burglarized the apartment as well as another apartment in the area. All property from both apartments were recovered and returned to the owners.

TERRY A. FLETCHER, age 22, and GREGORY PRZYBYLINSKI, age 21. On July 11, 1975, at 2:20 A.M., Mr. Fletcher and Mr. Przybylinski were on the parking lot at 400 North Water Street when they observed a car traveling at a high rate of speed crash through a barricade, continue across Water Street, and dive into the Milwaukee River. Both men jumped into the dark water in an attempt to rescue the driver. They were joined by police officers in their efforts and succeeded in rescuing the woman.

RONALD C. GORSCHÉ, age 34, and THOMAS P. JAFUTA, age 28, who at approximately 8:00 A.M. on July 30, 1975, while at work for a plumbing concern, observed two men attempting to start a car in the alley at 1530 West Wisconsin Avenue. The men then punched a hole in the gas tank of a second car and placed a container under the punctured tank. Because of the suspicious actions of the two men, Mr. Gorsche and Mr. Jafuta approached them and inquired as to what they were doing and determined that the auto was stolen. They then ordered the two suspects to remain at the scene and asked a citizen to call the police. The subjects resisted, and one fled from the scene; however, Mr. Gorsche and Mr. Jafuta were able to subdue the second man. Warrants were subsequently issued against both men for operating auto without owner's consent and battery.
