CITATIONS

“SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY”

POLICE OFFICER
S. BALISTRERI

Police Officer Steven T. Balistreri, First District, awarded a Class “A” Citation, the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a member of the Milwaukee Police Department, for his outstanding and courageous service under the following circumstances:

On February 9, 1977, at 8:20 P.M., Police Officer Balistreri was off duty and patronizing his father’s tavern at 2309 North Holton Street when three men entered — one brandishing a sawed-off shotgun and another a .22 caliber revolver.

The man armed with the shotgun approached a male patron seated to the left of Officer Balistreri and announced, “This is a holdup.” At the same time, the man armed with the revolver approached a female patron seated to the right of Officer Balistreri. Officer Balistreri then announced that he was a police officer and wrestled the man armed with the revolver to the floor of the tavern while simultaneously drawing his .38 caliber revolver.

The man armed with the .22 caliber revolver then fired six times, striking Officer Balistreri twice in the shoulder and head; and the other holdup man fired one shotgun slug at Officer Balistreri but missed. Although wounded, Officer Balistreri returned fire and struck each of the three holdup men, who then fled the scene but were apprehended a short time later when they sought medical treatment at St. Michael’s Hospital. One of the holdup men subsequently succumbed to the gunshot wound.

POLICE OFFICER
V. BOBOT

POLICE OFFICER
M. NEEB

Police Officers Vincent J. Bobot and Michael R. Neeb, Second District, awarded a Class “C” Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On November 22, 1976, at 9:45 P.M., Police Officers Michael Neeb and Vincent Bobot were dispatched to the Party Bar, a Class “B” Tavern Premises at 801 South Second Street, to investigate a report of “suspicious man.” Upon arrival, the officers entered the tavern and observed a black male arguing with several customers near a pool table at the front of the tavern. Observing the officers, the man turned and walked towards the officers at a normal gait, but when he got within ten feet of Officer Bobot, the man suddenly began running and simultaneously raised a

.22 caliber gun and pointed same at Officer Bobot’s head. Officer Bobot instinctively reached out with his arm, forcing the man’s gun hand away, at which time the gun discharged and the projectile grazed Officer Bobot’s right cheek.

Officer Bobot then dove behind the bar of the tavern while Officer Neeb warned the tavern patrons to keep down and fired his service revolver at the suspect. One of the shots struck the suspect in the abdomen and he fell to the floor.

While lying on the floor, the suspect attempted to regain possession of his weapon, at which time Officer Bobot ordered the subject to “Drop it” and fired one warning shot over his head. The suspect complied and was taken into custody. He was charged with one count of attempt murder and eight counts of armed robbery.

In this action, they distinguished themselves by performing a heroic act directly in connection with their duty as officers of the law.

POLICE OFFICER
W. BEHLING

CITATIONS

Police Officer William R. Behling, Sixth District, awarded a Class “D” Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On June 23, 1977, at 1:41 A.M., Police Officers William Behling and Dale Becker were dispatched to the Jewel Food Store, 2025 W. Oklahoma Avenue, to make a wagon conveyance. Upon arrival, two prisoners were escorted from the store by two other officers and Officers Behling and Becker assumed custody of them.

At this time, Officer Behling placed one of the prisoners in a spread-eagle position against the rear of the wagon and started to search him. Officer Becker directed the other prisoner to assume the same position, but the subject suddenly pulled a .357 magnum revolver from under his jacket, pointed the weapon directly at Officer Behling’s head and said, “You’re coming with me; you’re my way out.”

During the ensuing hour and twenty minutes, the armed subject held Officer Behling hostage, continuing to aim the gun at the officer and threatening to kill him. When it became obvious that the armed subject would not abandon his attempt to avoid apprehension, Officer Leon Kroening, who was positioned on a nearby rooftop armed with an anti-sniper rifle, fired one shot and fatally wounded the armed subject. It was later established that the deceased was wanted on several felony warrants.

In this action, Police Officer William Behling performed an unusual responsibility wherein he remained calm while exposed to extreme danger.

POLICE SERGEANT
M. CIESLIK

POLICE OFFICER
R. SCHNEIDER

Police Sergeant Marcellus J. Cieslik and Police Officer Richard P. Schneider, Tactical Enforcement Unit, awarded a Class “D” citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On February 18, 1977, at 4:35 P.M., Police Officer Richard Schneider was dispatched to investigate a report of “Property damage accident; man has a gun, shots fired at North 43rd and West Highland Boulevard.” Upon arrival, Officer Schneider found that a 37-year-old man, who had been involved in the automobile accident, drew a derringer pistol at the accident scene, fired one shot and fled. Further, that the man was in his residence at 1335 North 40th Street.

Sergeant Marcellus Cieslik was dispatched to the scene and joined Officer Schneider in entering said residence where they found the man armed with the derringer pistol and threatening to blow his brains out.

Over a period of approximately one hour, during which time the man alternately threatened suicide and pointed the pistol at the officers, Sergeant Cieslik and Officer Schneider conversed with the subject and finally persuaded him to lay down his weapon.

In this action, they performed an act of unusual responsibility wherein they displayed marked ability in persuading a distraught individual to refrain from fatally or critically wounding himself.

POLICE OFFICER
B. COULTER

POLICE OFFICER
R. BONCEL

Police Officers Richard T. Boncel and Briane Coulter, Sixth District, awarded a Class “D” Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On February 1, 1977, at 3:45 P.M., Police Officers Richard Boncel and Briane Coulter were dispatched to investigate a report of “man attempting suicide” at 3684 South 68th Street, Apt. 5. Upon arrival, the Officers were informed that a man was in a rear bedroom of the apartment holding a pistol to his head and that he was extremely depressed.

Officers Boncel and Coulter cautiously entered the apartment and found the man half sitting on a dresser crying and holding a cocked, loaded pistol to the left temple of his head with his finger on the trigger. The officers proceeded to converse with the subject, and they developed a rapport with the man, counseling him that his difficulties could be resolved and that he should lay down his weapon. After a period of approximately one hour, the man relented, removed the gun from his head and turned same over to Officer Boncel.

In this action, they performed a duty of unusual responsibility and marked ability wherein they tactfully persuaded a distraught individual to refrain from fatally or critically wounding himself.

R. GROTH

Police Officers James A. Galezewski and Robert D. Groth, Second District, awarded a Class “E” Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On April 16, 1977, at 5:44 A.M., while on routine squad patrol, Officers Groth and Galezewski smelled smoke and then detected smoke emanating from the basement windows of a home at 1408 W. Oklahoma Avenue. The officers immediately summoned the Fire Department and proceeded to alert the occupants of the residence by pounding on the front door. Receiving no response, they proceeded to the rear door where a man emerged and informed them that his wife and two children were asleep on the second floor. Officers Groth and Galezewski proceeded to the second floor, aroused the woman and children, and led them to safety.

In this action, they efficiently and successfully effected the rescue of three persons from a burning building without due regard for their personal safety.

C. BETTINGER

Police Officers Clem P. Bettinger and Thomas J. Sobczak, First District, awarded a Class “E” Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On February 25, 1977, Police Officers Clement Bettinger and Thomas Sobczak observed smoke emanating from a two-story apartment building at 2213-19 North Farwell Avenue and promptly summoned the Fire Department via the police dispatcher.

Officer Bettinger immediately entered the burning, smoke-filled building and ascended a stairway to the second floor where he pounded on doors and yelled aloud to alert the residents. In the hallway, Officer Bettinger found five occupants aimlessly groping their way through dense smoke and led them to safety.

In the meantime, Officer Sobczak ran to the south side of the building where he found a six-year-old screaming hysterically at a second floor window. Officer Sobczak was able to calm the girl down and he then instructed her to jump. The girl slid out of the window head first and Officer Sobczak was able to catch her with the assistance of two citizens.

In this action, they efficiently and successfully aroused the occupants of a burning building without due regard for their personal safety.

where an automobile had careened out of control and overturned in a ditch. Upon arrival, Officer Welsch found two male occupants trapped inside the vehicle with gasoline spewing onto the ground and dripping into the interior.

Officer Welsch immediately proceeded to make the rear window of the auto accessible by removing obstructions from the open trunk, and then broke the rear window with a rock. After brushing away most of the broken glass, he crawled into the auto and extricated one of the trapped youths.

Officer Welsch then re-entered the vehicle to remove the second occupant but was unable to do so because the youth's hand was caught under the overturned auto. However, he remained inside the vehicle with the youth until arrival of the Fire Department during which time he cautioned the youth not to light a cigarette due to the presence of gasoline. Upon arrival of the Fire Department, a hydraulic jack was used to free the occupant.

In this action, Police Officer Welsch efficiently and successfully rescued one occupant trapped in an overturned vehicle and comforted still another until assistance arrived.

Police Officer George N. Stockamp, Second District, awarded a Class “E” Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On July 27, 1977, at 6:15 P.M., Police Officer George Stockamp was in St. Luke's Hospital when a fight broke out between a man and his son whom he was attempting to take to the Greenfield Police Department to answer a disorderly conduct charge.

When Officer Stockamp, who was in the hospital on an unrelated matter, approached, the son ran down a hallway and eluded the officer. A patient at the hospital subsequently directed Officer Stockamp's attention to the roof of the hospital laundry building where the subject was found sitting on a ledge approximately sixty feet above ground level. He then stood up on the ledge and yelled, “I think I'm going to jump standing up.”

While hospital personnel and three other Police Officers drew the man's attention, Officer Stockamp ascended a stairway to the roof, cautiously approached the subject from the rear, grasped his belt, and pulled him off the ledge.

In this action, Officer Stockamp efficiently and successfully rescued an emotionally disturbed person from a precarious position without due regard for his personal safety.

POLICE OFFICER

Police Officer Leon D. Kroening, Tactical Enforcement Unit, awarded a Class “E” Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On June 23, 1977, at 1:41 A.M., Police Officers William Behling and Dale Becker were dispatched to the Jewel Food Store, 2025 W. Oklahoma Avenue, to make a wagon conveyance. Upon arrival, two prisoners were escorted from the store by two other officers and Officers Behling and Becker assumed custody of them.

At this time, Officer Behling placed one of the prisoners in a spread-eagle position against the rear of the wagon and started to search him. Officer Becker directed the other prisoner to assume the same position, but the subject suddenly pulled a .357 magnum revolver from under his jacket, pointed the weapon directly at Officer Behling's head and said, “You're coming with me, you're my way out.”

During the ensuing hour and twenty minutes, the armed subject held Officer Behling hostage, continuing to aim the gun at the officer and threatening to kill him. When it became obvious that the armed subject would not abandon 15

Police Officer Gary E. Lentz, Tactical Enforcement Unit, awarded a Class “E” Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On March 29, 1977, at 12:10 A.M., a hysterical woman entered the Fifth District Station and screamed that her one-month-old baby had stopped breathing. A police ambulance was immediately dispatched, and Police Officer Lentz ran to the residence at 2849 North Fifth Street, approximately one block from the station.

Upon arrival, he found the father attempting to give the baby mouth to mouth resuscitation but with no success. Officer Lentz proceeded to clear the baby’s airway, administered mouth to mouth resuscitation in the prescribed manner, and the infant soon began breathing on its own.

Simultaneously, the police ambulance arrived on the scene and conveyed the infant to St. Mary’s Hospital where a physician credited Officer Lentz with saving the infant’s life or at least preventing permanent brain damage.

Police Officer Callan A. Barry, Tactical Enforcement Unit, awarded a Class “E” Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On February 3, 1977, at 1:54 A.M., Police Officer Callan Barry responded to an alarm of fire at 754 North 23rd Street and found smoke and flames emanating from a three-story apartment house. He entered the burning building and ascended a smoke-filled stairway to the second floor where he heard calls for help.

Groping his way along the walls of the hallway, Officer Barry pounded on doors and yelled aloud to alert residents in the building.

In the hallway, the officer found a man and woman huddled together, unable to find an exit due to the thick smoke, and led them to safety.

Officer Barry suffered smoke inhalation to the extent that his carbon dioxide level was found to be 13.6 per cent compared to a normal level of 5 per cent.

In this action, Officer Barry efficiently and successfully rescued two occupants from a burning building without due regard for his personal safety.

On Thursday, December 16, 1976, at 6:12 A.M., Officers Ronald Olson and George Kalt observed smoke and flames emanating from the residence at 1743 North First Street and immediately summoned the Fire Department via police dispatcher.

Officers Olson and Kalt then forced their way into the residence and were soon joined by Police Officers Gordon Kellom and Edward Heidemann who had responded to the alarm of fire. All of the officers proceeded to search the smoke filled first floor of the residence and finding no occupants, they ascended a stairway to the second floor and found a woman sleeping in a bedroom.

After the officers awoke the woman and assisted her from the building, she became very emotional and threatened to re-enter the building in search of her two dogs. While Officer Kalt remained with the woman, Officers Kellom, Olson and Heidemann re-entered the burning building and rescued the dogs which were the woman’s sole companions. All of the officers suffered smoke inhalation in this rescue action.

Upon exiting the squad, the officers were joined by a citizen and Police Officer Verbie Swanigan in forcing entry to the residence and attempting to alert and evacuate the occupants.

Groping their way through dense smoke and jumping over burning debris, the officers ascended a flight of stairs and found a severely burnt 11-year-old youth; and on the first floor of the residence, they found a 37-year-old man and two small children, two and four years of age. When the man informed the officers that he had more children upstairs, the officers made every effort to reach the second floor, but were forced back by intense heat and smoke. Officer Swanigan then sought to reach the trapped victims on the second floor by scaling the front of the house and reaching a ledge above the front porch, but he was unsuccessful. Six persons expired as a result of the fire including the 11-year-old youth who was led to safety by the officers.

PAULA MARIE ZIRBES, age 26. At approximately Midnight on October 22, 1975, detectives observed an auto proceeding east on Wisconsin Avenue matching the description of a stolen auto which had been broadcast earlier. The officers stopped the auto at 17th and Wisconsin Avenue, and investigation confirmed that the car had been stolen several weeks earlier. As the detectives attempted to place the driver under arrest, he began to struggle, and a fight ensued with all three men falling to the pavement between the two cars. In the struggle, one of the detective's handi-talkies fell to the street.

By this time, several citizens had gathered on the sidewalk, and one of the detectives asked someone to retrieve the radio. Mrs. Zirbes immediately responded to the officer's request, returned the radio to him, and he was able to call for assistance.

Also during the struggle, one of the detectives' service revolvers fell from its holster and was observed by Mrs. Zirbes lying in the street. She also saw the suspect groping for the gun, finally picking it up by the butt end. He swung the gun in their direction and towards the backs of the officers. Mrs. Zirbes, who had just finished work at Children's Hospital, stepped into the roadway and kicked the gun from the suspect's hand, sending it sliding under the squad car where it was later found.

The suspect was finally subdued and charged with operating auto without the owner's consent, operating an automobile without an operator's license, obstructing an officer, resisting arrest, and battery to a police officer.

tigate. Upon looking into the room, he observed that the screen had been cut and saw two black hands reaching in through the window attempting to pull the screen open. Mr. Eichhorst ran out the front door in pursuit and when observed by two black males, they fled, running in separate directions. Mr. Eichhorst ran after one of the youths but lost him some distance away.

At this time, he was approached by Lois Miller, and they both searched the neighborhood in her car and soon found the suspect at 47th and Center Streets. Mr. Eichhorst jumped from the car, grabbed the youth and held him while Mrs. Miller went to a nearby office and called the police. The youth was ultimately apprehended and during questioning, he implicated his accomplice. Both suspects were arrested for attempted burglary. Further investigation cleared approximately 73 other offenses including attempt murder, armed robbery and burglary.

MARY ELLEN LUXEM, age 30, and JUDITH ANN HERRO, age 33. On Friday, November 12, 1976, at 1:30 P.M., Ms. Luxem and Ms. Herro were at the drive-in window of Marshall & Ilsley Bank, 2120 W. Wisconsin Avenue, when they observed a black male running from the bank carrying a paper bag. Due to the suspicious actions of the man, Ms. Luxem and Ms. Herro followed him to 22nd and Wells Streets where he got into a car driven by another man. They obtained a partial license number and then followed the car in an effort to obtain the complete number. At 22nd and Highland Avenue, the women observed the suspect discard a cap and jacket. They continued to follow the car but abandoned the chase for fear that the suspects might be armed. However, they returned to the location where the clothing had been discarded, recovered the cap and jacket and then returned to the bank and turned over the items to detectives. Evidence found in the jacket led to the identity of the suspects who were later arrested and charged with bank robbery.

MARTIN KLEWEIN, age 60, STANLEY J. CZARNECKI, age 58, and his wife, DOLORES, age 56.

On December 23, 1976, shortly before 6:00 P.M., Mr. Klewein observed four youths walking around the darkened residence at 3175 S. 23rd Street. He approached the group and inquired what they were doing, and he was told that they were looking for a friend. Knowing there were no young people living at that address, Mr. Klewein told them to leave. The youths then left in an old blue Volkswagen which had been parked at the alley entrance.

Upon returning to his home, Mr. Klewein saw two of the same youths ringing the doorbell across the street and saw the other two youths walking around the side of the home.

Meanwhile, Mr. and Mrs. Czarnecki had also noticed two youths approach a home in the neighborhood, ring the side doorbell and then walk towards the front of the home. Mr. and Mrs. Czarnecki drove their car through the alley and observed an old blue Volkswagen parked at the alley with two male occupants. They then came upon Mr. Klewein at the front of the home and told him of their suspicions. While Mr. Klewein returned to his home to call the police, the Czarnecki's followed the car to a parking lot where it was abandoned by the youths. Mr. and Mrs. Czarnecki then returned to the scene and notified police of their observations and gave them descriptions of the suspects and the car. With this information, officers soon located the abandoned vehicle and apprehended all four young men who were charged with burglary. Two residence burglaries were cleared and approximately $200 worth of property was recovered through the assistance of Mr. Klewein and Mr. and Mrs. Czarnecki.

Hampton Heights Food Market at 10135 W. Hampton Avenue was held up by a masked white male armed with a sawed-off shotgun. The victim of the hold-up followed the suspect from the store and exchanged gunfire with him on the store parking lot.

It was at this time that Mr. and Mrs. Schiller, traveling east on Hampton Avenue, observed the gunfire in the parking lot and saw the suspect drive off at a high rate of speed and in an erratic manner. Mr. Schiller, an off duty protection officer at the Milwaukee County Institution Grounds, having his wife and young children with him, did not attempt to stop the suspect but he did follow the car until he was able to note the license number and description of the car. They then returned to the food market and furnished investigating officers with this information.

A check of the license number of the automobile determined it to be listed to a resident of Middleton, Wisconsin. Communications with the Middleton Police Department led to the location of the auto and the arrest of a 26-year-old male and a 20-year-old female who were subsequently charged with armed robbery and attempt murder. It was also found that they were both wanted on additional warrants with the Milwaukee Police Department.

Upon arrival at the scene, police officers were approached by Donald Mundth, a Lieutenant of Police for the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad, and informed that while checking the railroad tracks behind the store, he noticed a parked car with the motor running and the lights on and one man behind the wheel. Thinking this suspicious, Mr. Mundth jotted down the description and license number of the auto. He further observed another white male run from the direction of the store, enter the car and drive away. Mr. Mundth followed the vehicle but lost it in heavy traffic. He then returned to the scene and supplied investigating officers with the descriptive information which led to the arrest of two suspects within minutes after being broadcast. MARGARET DETTMANN, age 46, and her son JEFFREY, age 15. On February 27, 1977, at approximately 4:30 P.M., while in

A second black male was standing in front of the store peering in through a window. Knowing that the store had been burglarized the previous day, Mrs. Dettmann thought that possibly the men were checking the business with the intention of burglarizing it. Being unable to see a license plate on the rear of the car, Mrs. Dettmann turned around and obtained the license number from the front of the car.

At approximately 11:30 P.M. the same date, the plate glass window of the TV store was smashed and entry gained into the store proper and five color televisions were removed. While investigating the burglary, police officers were approached by Mrs. Dettmann who gave them the description and license number of the car she had seen parked outside the store earlier in the afternoon and also the description of the two men. With this information, police were able to get a listing of the license number and the address of the owner which led to the location of the two men. They were subsequently charged with the burglaries of the Westside T.V. Store on February 27 and 28, 1977, and also the burglary of the A1 Uptown Radio & T.V. Store located at 1951 W. Capitol Drive. Mrs. DeLuca called to the man who then fled into the alley. Mrs. DeLuca ran in pursuit of the subject who abandoned the television and continued running. During the chase, she observed a black over brown automobile speeding from the area.

Mrs. DeLuca then returned to the apartment building and summoned Russell Paulin, a neighbor, who immediately called police. Mrs. DeLuca again ran from the building and saw the auto and was able to obtain a partial license number.

Meanwhile, a second suspect who had remained in the burglarized apartment left the building and met the first suspect in an alley. Mrs. DeLuca again gave chase but was unable to maintain the pace and returned to the apartment. She then accompanied Mr. Paulin in his auto, and several blocks away they located the suspects, obtained a positive identification, and returned to the apartment and informed police officers of the situation. An immediate description was broadcast and within minutes the two suspects were apprehended. As a result of their arrest, a total of 53 burglaries and one complaint of criminal trespass was cleared.

ESTHER SCIBEK, age 55, and EDWIN L. PETERS, age 62. On April 3, 1977 at 12:20 A.M. Majdecki's Food Market, 3199 S. Clement Avenue, was held up by three white males who obtained approximately $3000.

At approximately 7:30 P.M. the previous evening, Mrs. Scibek had observed a late model silver Chevrolet automobile with out-of-state license plates parked in an alley at the rear of the food market with three white male occupants acting suspiciously. Mrs. Scibek wrote down the description of the auto and the license number and gave this information to her brother-in-law, Edwin Peters.

The following day, Mr. Peters read an article in the newspaper regarding the holdup and notified the police of the suspicious males and the description of the auto and the license number. This information led to the arrest of the suspects in Chicago three days later. Some of the stolen money, as well as the weapons used in the offense were recovered.

PATRICK J. CIFALDI, age 26. On the afternoon of April 7, 1977, a 26-year-old female was entering her apartment when a black male tried to force her into the apartment in an apparent attempt to assault her. The young woman screamed for assistance, and her sister responded, frightening off the assailant. The woman then called Mr. Cifaldi, the building manager, and told him what had taken place, and she gave him a description of the subject. Mr. Cifaldi then observed the man in the rear of the building and followed him, finally apprehending him and holding him until police arrived. The suspect, who was on parole for armed robbery, was charged with criminal trespass to dwelling. Due to his arrest, an additional eight criminal offenses were cleared.

WALTER D. HELLER, age 61. On April 18, 1977, at approximately 6:00 P.M., a couple was arguing in a parked automobile in the parking lot at 900 E. Michigan Street. The woman then left the auto, walked a short distance and turned around and drew a .22 caliber revolver from her purse. She then approached the automobile and started shooting her husband who was seated in the driver's seat of the car.

At this time, Walter Heller, who is head of the Frist Wisconsin Master Charge Security Department and a retired Detective Sergeant on the Milwaukee Police Department, was walking to his automobile which was parked in the same lot when he observed the disturbance. He ran to the woman and wrestled the gun away from her and succeeded in taking the struggling woman two blocks where he asked another citizen to call the police. Mr. Heller continued to restrain the woman until the arrival of police officers at which time she was taken into custody.

DAVID A. JORDAN, age 17, and DONALD R. GATZOW age 21. On the afternoon of May 15, 1977, a 16-year-old youth armed with a knife held up the College Avenue Arco Gas Station, 2012 W. College Avenue, and obtained $730. Immediately after the holdup man left the station, Mr. Jordan and Mr. Gatzow entered. The attendant pointed out the suspect to them and they gave chase and apprehended the holdup man a few blocks away. Mr. Jordan and Mr. Gatzow disarmed the suspect, recovered all the monies and returned him to the scene and held him for police.

KATHLEEN RUTHER PAUKNER, and SHERRI LYNN BUDA, both 14. On May 24, 1977, at approximately 7:10 P.M., an armed white male held up the Peppermint Farms Store at 833 E. Clarke Street and obtained $55 from the clerk on duty. The man then fled in an old model blue Volkswagen which contained a second white male. At the time of the holdup, Miss Paukner and Miss Buda were walking on Clarke Street and observed the man run from the store and enter the automobile. The previous evening, Miss Paukner had observed the same man leave the store with a package and enter the same vehicle with another occupant. Thinking the actions of the man suspicious, she memorized part of the license number.

The next day, the day of the holdup, Miss Paukner observed the same vehicle in the alley behind her home with the driver's door open and the motor running. Seated in the passenger side was a white male. She then met her girl friend, Sherri Buda, and both girls walked towards the store and saw the holdup man run from the store, enter the Volkswagen and drive off at a high rate of speed. 23

AWARDS OF MERIT TO CITIZENS

They again noted the license number and went to the store as the clerk was telephoning the police, and they gave the police the description of the automobile and the two suspects. Within a short time, the suspects were stopped by police officers and returned to the scene where they were positively identified.

The passenger of the car was subsequently charged with being a party to a crime, and a State warrant for armed robbery was issued against the holdup man.

SOPHIE RUBIN, age 76, and MARTIN DRINKA, age 49. At approximately 1:00 P.M. on June 9, 1977, while employed as a cleaning woman for an apartment building at 2903 W. Michigan Street, Sophie Rubin observed a pry bar stuck in the door casing of one of the apartments. Upon opening the door, Ms. Rubin observed a black male inside. Knowing the tenant of the apartment was an elderly white woman, Ms. Rubin suspected that a crime was being committed.

Ms. Rubin then met Martin Drinka, the owner and manager of the apartment building, and though being unable to speak, she made him understand that something was wrong. Mr. Drinka then proceeded to the apartment, saw the intruder inside and then waited for him to leave the building, and then followed the suspect in his auto and observed him board a bus on Wisconsin Avenue. At 16th and Wisconsin, Mr. Drinka saw a police squad and notified officers of what had occurred. The suspect, a resident of Chicago, was subsequently arrested and charged with burglary.

July 1, 1977, at 11:30 P.M., observed a white male acting suspiciously in front of Rineck's Liquor Store, 631 S. 70th Street. Mr. Brandenburg went a short distance, turned out the light on his motorcycle, and watched the subject. Within a short time, he saw two males appear in the front door of the store and he heard the sound of breaking glass. Mr. Brandenburg then proceeded to the West Allis Police Department and notified them that a robbery was taking place.

He then returned to the scene and saw three white males leave the store carrying bottles. Soon two white females approached from the alley and all the subjects then proceeded to a nearby residence. Mr. Brandenburg then went to a nearby home and called the Milwaukee Police Department and upon arrival of detectives, he informed them of his observations. As a result of this information, two adult males and two juvenile females were arrested. The stolen merchandise, three bottles of liquor and three 12-packs of beer, was recovered.

JAMES H. HUGHES, age 51. On July 4, 1977, while investigating a burglary at Terrell's Auto Body Shop, 235 W. Reservoir Avenue, in which $190 worth of equipment had been taken, detectives were approached by James Hughes and given information which led to the arrest of the suspect. Mr. Hughes also viewed photographs of possible suspects and positively identified the burglar. The man was subsequently arrested that same morning and charged with burglary.

The Milwaukee Police Underwater Investigation Unit must function under all weather conditions.

Safety in rappeling demands practice and good physical conditioning.

High risk patrol situations require special skills and training.

Divers emerging from the water use a special cut in the ice and elbows for lifting.

ACADEMY

Proper packaging and preserving of evidence is an important part of training for all police officers.

Detectives learn various skills in special training sessions.

The Wisconsin Crime Laboratory assists in technical instruction for detectives.

Crime scenes must be diagrammed and all evidence protected.
