"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

DETECTIVE
JOSEPH M. PURPERO

Detective Joseph M. Purpero, Detective Bureau, awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On Thursday, October 11, 1979, information was gathered that an armed robbery of a pizza delivery man was to take place in the 2700 Block of N. 22nd Street. This area had been the scene of two other armed robberies the previous week. Detective Joseph Purpero was assigned to pursue this information and volunteered to substitute for the delivery man. He prepared a fake package to carry, wherein his service revolver was concealed, and he drove the pizza delivery auto to the location at which the pizza was ordered.

As Detective Purpero stood on the steps of the residence at 2753 N. 22nd Street, he was approached by two black males who displayed handguns and announced a holdup. Detective Purpero immediately identified himself as a police officer, at which time both suspects raised their guns and pointed them in the direction of Detective Purpero. Detective Purpero exchanged gunfire with the two subjects who fled from the scene but were apprehended a short time later resulting in the clearance of two previous armed robberies. Examination of the crime scene disclosed that four slugs had narrowly missed Detective Purpero.

In this action, Detective Joseph Purpero performed an act of great and unusual responsibility wherein he displayed extraordinary initiative.

POLICE OFFICER
GORDON W. HESSEL

Police Officer Gordon W. Hessel, Third District, awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On January 2, 1979, at 2:20 P.M., Police Officer Gordon Hessel was dispatched to investigate a report of "trouble with a man" at 2415 W. Lloyd Street. Upon arrival, a woman stated that her son was mentally disturbed and in the kitchen armed with a knife and threatening the family with injury.

Proceeding to the kitchen, Officer Hessel found the youth waving a paring knife about and making rambling and incoherent remarks. Officer Hessel continued to talk to the subject for about an hour in an effort to have him surrender the knife, but to no avail. When the youth heard someone attempting to enter a rear door, he became angry and swung at Officer Hessel with the knife, narrowly missing him, and he attempted to leave the room by opening a door. Upon doing so, he placed the knife behind his back, and it was at this time that Officer Hessel took advantage of the situation by jumping the subject and pinning his arms to his side.

While holding the subject, the youth pushed himself off of a wall with his foot, and both he and Officer Hessel fell down a flight of stairs. When they hit the basement floor, the officer lost his grip and the youth stabbed at him twice with the knife. On one thrust, the knife penetrated Officer Hessel's squad jacket, inflicting a superficial wound to the left back region. Other officers immediately came to the assistance of Officer Hessel, and the youth was subdued and taken into custody.

In this action, Officer Hessel distinguished himself by performing an act of unusual responsibility wherein he displayed initiative and restraint.

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

IDENTIFICATION
TECHNICIAN
CLAUDE V. KENNEDY

Identification Technician, Claude V. Kennedy, Bureau of Identification, is hereby awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On August 16, 1979, at 12:30 A.M., after completing his tour of duty, Technician Kennedy was westbound on I-94 when he observed an auto enter the expressway via the 84th Street on-ramp. The passenger door of the auto was open, and an unknown male subject was holding onto the front passenger door and being dragged by said auto.

Technician Kennedy pursued the auto in his private vehicle at a high rate of speed, and the man holding onto the door of the fleeing auto fell to the expressway pavement after being dragged one mile. Technician Kennedy stopped his auto, allowing the man to enter, at which time the subject exclaimed, "Follow that car, he's got my girlfriend and he may rape her." During the next ten minutes, Technician Kennedy pursued the auto, first westbound and then eastbound on the expressway, at speeds exceeding 70 miles per hour. He successfully kept pace with the fleeing auto which suddenly exited the expressway and stopped at the red light at 84th Street. Technician Kennedy brought his auto to a stop directly behind the suspect, who then allowed his female hostage to exit the auto. The suspect then fled onto the expressway, proceeding eastbound from 84th Street.

Through a description provided by Technician Kennedy, the suspect was apprehended by Milwaukee County Deputy Sheriffs on the expressway system four hours later. He was charged with False Imprisonment and Endangering Safety by Conduct Regardless of Life. It was later established that the suspect had offered the man and woman a ride on the east side of Milwaukee; and upon stopping at the 84th Street on-ramp of I-94 on the pretext of leaving them out, he drove off with the woman.

In this action, Technician Claude Kennedy performed an act of unusual responsibility wherein he displayed keen observation and initiative.

POLICE OFFICER
DENNIS H. GRUENEBERG

POLICE OFFICER
CYRIL J. PIETTE

Police Officer Dennis H. Grueneberg, Traffic Bureau, and Police Officer Cyril J. Piette, Sixth District, awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances.

On August 22, 1979, at 1:00 P.M., Police Officers Cyril Piette and Dennis Grueneberg were dispatched to investigate a report of "man attempting suicide" by jumping from the bridge at 2700 S. 35th Street. Upon arrival, the officers observed a 52-year-old man hanging by his hands outside of the bridge railing, 40 feet above the ground.

Over a period of one hour, during which the subject continually threatened to jump because of personal problems, the officers calmly spoke to the subject attempting to discourage him from taking his life. Finally, the man became receptive and listened to the officers pleas to seek help.

Indicating that he was now too weak to climb over the railing, Officers Piette and Grueneberg lunged for the subject and grasped him by the arms. They held him tightly against the outside rail until other officers standing nearby could give them assistance in pulling the man to safety.

POLICE OFFICER
WILLIAM F. JULY

POLICE OFFICER
RAYMOND TERIACA

SERGEANT
DENNIS T. KRANZ

Police Officer Robert F. Beyer and Police Officer Jacqueline A. Moon, Fourth District, awarded a Class “E” Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances.

On March 14, 1979, at 3:15 A.M., Police Officers Robert Beyer and Jacqueline Moon were dispatched to an auto accident, possible personal injury, at 8217 W. Custer Avenue.

Upon arrival, the officers found an auto embedded in a snow bank and the entire front end of the vehicle engulfed in flames. They could not determine if anyone was inside the vehicle because of heavy smoke, and their efforts to gain access to the vehicle were hampered because three of the doors were locked and the driver's door was jammed against a snow bank.

Working feverishly, the officers kicked away the snow and pulled on the driver's door until it opened slightly revealing a man in the front seat. Officers Beyer and Moon promptly forced the door completely open and extricated the driver. Moments after the driver was removed, the interior of the vehicle burst into flames.

Police Officer William F. July and Police Officer Raymond Teriaca, Seventh District, awarded a Class “E” Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances.

On September 30, 1978, at 3:35 P.M., while on routine patrol, Police Officers William July and Raymond Teriaca observed smoke emanating from the residence at 2660 W. Medford Ave. After summoning the Fire Department via the police dispatcher, the officers forced open outer doors and entered the burning, smoke filled residence to alert any occupants. Officers July and Teriaca searched the first and second floors, as well as the basement of the residence until they were driven out by intense smoke. It was later determined that no one was home at the time of the fire.

Both Officer July and Officer Teriaca became extremely ill from smoke inhalation because of their efforts to locate occupants in the burning building. Officer July tested 11.5 carbon monoxide in the blood, and Officer Teriaca tested 8.6% compared to a normal amount of 1.5%.

Sergeant Dennis T. Kranz, Second District, is hereby awarded a Class “E” Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On April 1, 1979, at 10:25 P.M., Sergeant Dennis Kranz, along with several other officers, responded to a report of “man with a gun” in a rooming house at 105 W. Mitchell Street. Upon arrival, the officers learned that a man residing in one of the apartments had been in the hallway earlier that evening with a handgun.

Led by Sergeant Kranz, several officers proceeded cautiously to the apartment in question and positioned themselves at various observation points. Upon announcing their presence and requesting the subject to exit his room, the door to the apartment partially opened revealing a revolver lying on the bed. The subject in the room immediately reached for the revolver; whereupon, Sergeant Kranz charged the subject and grasped his hand before he was able to turn and point the handgun. With the assistance of other officers, the man was subdued and placed under arrest for reckless use of a weapon.

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

SERGEANT
DONALD T. SMITH

Sergeant Donald T. Smith, Seventh District, is hereby awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On February 8, 1979, at 1:30 A.M., while assigned to Squad 7, Sergeant Donald Smith observed dense smoke emanating from the upper story and roof of the residence at 3331 N. 23rd Street. After notifying the police dispatcher to summon the Fire Department, Sergeant Smith exited his squad and proceeded to use bodily force on a locked inner door in an effort to gain entry to the home. Through pounding on the door, he was able to arouse an occupant of the residence who came to the door and unlocked it from within.

Sergeant Smith then assisted the woman and her two small children from the smoke-filled residence prior to the arrival of fire equipment. Fire damage to the building was extensive and beyond repair.

POLICE OFFICER
ORLEN G. WOOD

Police Officer Orlen G. Wood, First District, is hereby awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On September 3, 1979, at 10:55 P.M., Police Officer Orlen Wood was dispatched to the Daniel Hoan Memorial Bridge to investigate a report of "Man about to jump from the bridge." Upon arrival, Officer Wood found an emotionally disturbed man seated on a girder beneath the surface of the bridge, approximately 120 feet above the Milwaukee River.

Officer Wood and a Milwaukee County Deputy Sheriff immediately scaled the bridge railing and lowered themselves to a large support girder running parallel to the bridge railing. While the Deputy Sheriff spoke to the disturbed man, Officer Wood held onto the Deputy's belt to secure him from falling if the man became violent.

Upon arrival of the Fire Department, Officer Wood obtained heavy ropes and used them to secure the Deputy who was speaking to the subject. Due to his precarious position and a gusty wind, it was necessary for Officer Wood to grasp guy-wires that support the arches of the bridge so as not to lose his balance and fall to the river below. When the despondent man indicated a great dislike for white people, the services of a black firefighter were arranged, and he was successful in convincing the subject to return to the surface of the bridge.

AWARDS OF MERIT TO CITIZENS

GREGORY R. BATCHELOR, age 17, and KEVIN L. FARBER, age 24. At approximately 8:00 P.M. on November 25, 1978, two women were approached by three armed assailants, one armed with a sawed-off shotgun and one armed with a butcher knife, who knocked them down and forcibly took their purses containing money and identification. Investigating police officers were approached by Gregory Batchelor who had been in his home at the time of the offense and after hearing screams, had gone to assist the victims. Mr. Batchelor first determined that the women were not seriously injured and then took off after the three suspects. He was unable to obtain a license number of their car but did obtain a description of the auto and its direction of travel.

During the investigation, Kevin Farber also approached the police officers and advised them that he had observed a suspicious car and had seen three persons exit the auto and a short time later saw them being chased by Gregory Batchelor. Mr. Farber supplied the same description of the vehicle and pointed out the location where the car had been parked and also furnished officers with a description of the suspects. Upon going to that location, a red knit cap with eyeholes which had been worn in the offense was recovered. The suspects were soon apprehended and returned to the scene of the offense where they were positively identified by the victims. They were charged with masked robbery, and all monies and property was recovered.

JEAN DAVENPORT, age 18, and SHIRLEY A. BREKKE, age 29. On December 11, 1978, a 17-year-old girl was sexually assaulted in the 5600 Block of S. 13th Street. Two days later while shopping at the Tri City Food Store, 6200 S. 27th Street, the victim saw her attacker and approached Jean Davenport, a store employee, and informed her of the circumstances. Miss Davenport took the hysterical girl to Shirley Brekke, the cashier, who accompanied the young girl to the employees' lounge where they called her father.

Meanwhile, Miss Davenport followed the suspect until he left the store, making mental notes of his appearance. Later after Mrs. Brekke heard the description of the suspect, she thought she remembered having seen him earlier and went through the checks which had been taken in that day. Through this method, they were able to determine the suspect's name and gave this information to investigating officers. The subject was soon located at his home and after questioning, he admitted the offense. Further investigation disclosed that he had also committed twelve other sexual assaults.

WILLIAM R. BORGES, age 42. On December 15, 1978, at 5:20 P.M., a white male with a scarf covering the lower portion of his face entered the Union Prescription Center, 2000 W. Forest Home Avenue, approached the counter and displayed a rifle from beneath his jacket and announced a holdup. The suspect then ordered the pharmacist, his assistant and several customers to the rear of the store and ordered them to lie down on the floor. He then demanded that the pharmacist walk to the cash register and empty the contents into a bag.

As they passed, Mr. Borges, who was a customer, observed that the weapon was pointed directly at the head of the pharmacist. He waited for an opportunity to attack and disarm the holdup man without causing injury to anyone and was finally able to grab the weapon. After a struggle during which he received numerous lacerations to his hands, he succeeded in disarming the suspect. During the scuffle, the holdup man's scarf fell from his face, and Mr. Borges was able to get a good look at him.

After Mr. Borges gained control of the weapon, the suspect fled and escaped in a waiting auto. However, his identity was traced through the weapon, and after viewing photographs of possible suspects, Mr. Borges was able to positively identify him. He was subsequently arrested and charged with attempt armed and masked robbery.

MARY LOUISE WIERZBICKI, age 27, and LUVETRICK HUGHES, age 21. Knowing that the resident of the home was still at work, Ms. Wierzbicki and Ms. Hughes kept the two prowlers under observation and returned to the convalescent home to alert the owner and to contact the Police Department. While waiting for

Upon arrival of police officers, investigation revealed that the two subjects had entered the home through a bedroom window and had taken a stereo unit including speakers. Further questioning revealed that they had also committed two other residence burglaries that month.

FREDERICK L. BADGER, age 54, his wife ROSEMARY, age 55, and their son and daughter, TIMOTHY, age 23, and MARY, age 21.

At 8:30 A.M. on Christmas Day on their way home from mass at St. Rose's Church, North 30th and W. Michigan Streets, the Badger family saw a black male running south in the 600 Block of N. 39th Street and saw two elderly women standing on the corner yelling that they had been robbed. Timothy, who was driving, swung the car around, and he and his father chased the subject into an apartment building at 544 North 29th Street where they found him hiding in a basement stairway. They took the suspect into custody, and he informed them that he had thrown the stolen purse and its contents into the intersection of North 30th and Michigan Streets where it was later recovered. They then took the man to the rectory of St. Rose's Church where he was turned over to the police and positively identified by the victim. After further questioning, he also admitted to an apartment burglary at 2929 W. Wisconsin Avenue on December 24, 1978.

GARY A. OSTEN, age 27, who while plowing snow in the 2200 Block of W. North Avenue at approximately 2:20 A.M. on January 20, 1979, observed a black male run from the alley next to the Sears Store. A police officer on foot was chasing the subject and fell into a deep snowbank. Woolworth Store, 2216 W. North Avenue.

SCOTT G. SCHROEDER, age 23, who while in his home on the evening of January 22, 1979, heard noises coming from next door, and looking out the window he saw a youth kicking at the basement window of the neighbor's home. He watched the boy until he climbed through the basement window, and Mr. Schroeder then called the police. He then saw lights go on in the bedroom of the home and upon the arrival of police, the lights went out. Police officers apprehended the youth as he was emerging from the house carrying two cameras taken from the residence. The subject was arrested for burglary and after questioning, admitted four other residence burglaries in the area.

PAMELA JO SHERIDAN, age 34. During the evening of January 22, 1979, Ms. Sheridan was returning to her residence at Servite Woods Condominiums and noticed a white van in the parking area occupied by two suspicious acting black males. She parked the car and upon entering her residence found that the front door had been broken in, the residence entered, and the television taken. She ran back to her car and drove out the lot and saw the same white van proceeding towards Brown Deer Road at 76th Street. Ms. Sheridan noted the license number and make of the van and went to a nearby service station and called the police. After receiving the description and license number of the van and the description of the occupants, officers soon located the suspects who were taken into custody and charged with burglary. All items taken in the burglary of Ms. Sheridan's residence, as well as another residence burglary which had occurred the same evening, were found in the van. Further questioning disclosed that the two suspects had committed approximately 65 other residence burglaries on the northwest side of Milwaukee.

PATRICIA A. BEAULIEU, age 26; GORDON F. NIEDER-MAYER, age 21; DAVID W. TERSEN, age 23, and PETER L. CUMINSKY, age 29.

Ms. Beaulieu stalled the suspect by refusing to give him the money, and he started running out of the store. Ms. Beualieu then got on the public address system and used a code to alert other employees that there was trouble.

Gordon Niedermayer, a stocker in the store, heard the broadcast, observed the suspect and grabbed him as he was attempting to flee from the store. In attempting to hold him, a scuffle broke out and a gun fell out of the suspect's lunchbucket. Mr. Niedermayer kicked the gun aside and continued to subdue the man. At this time, David Tersen, a security officer at the store employed by Hargrave Protection Agency, came to Mr. Niedermayer's assistance and was able to place one handcuff on the suspect. Peter Cumisky, another store employee, also came to help and was able to place the other handcuff on the suspect. They then took him to the security office where he was held until the arrival of police. The subject was subsequently arrested for attempt armed robbery, and investigation disclosed that he had also committed ten other armed robberies in the Milwaukee area.

JIMMIE McKNIGHT, age 48, who on the afternoon of February 14, 1979, observed three suspicious acting black males walking in the area of his residence. He watched the youths as they proceeded to a nearby residence, break the glass out of a door and enter the home. Mr. McKnight then went to the home of a neighbor and called the police. When police officers arrived at the home, they found one subject in the basement and two hiding in an upstairs bedroom. The youths had money and jewelry in their possession and various other items had been placed at the rear door which they intended on taking with them when they fled. When officers arrived, Ms. Bailey stated that the occupants of the home were away but she had a key to the residence which she gave to the officers. Upon entering the home, officers confronted a 16-year-old youth who was then arrested for burglary. Investigation revealed that the suspect had kicked in a basement window, crawled through the window and was in the process of trying to break into the kitchen when he was stopped. Questioning led to his admitting to a burglary of the same residence in December 1978.

HOWARD L. BONG, age 25. At approximately 2:00 A.M. on March 4, 1979, while tending bar in his tavern at 2690 S. Sixth Street, Howard Bong was informed that there were two people in the Kinnickinnic River at the rear of his tavern. Mr. Bong told a customer to call the Police and then ran to the rear of the tavern where he observed a young woman and man standing in the river in water up to their waists. The water was higher than normal, and the current was very swift due to melting snow and rain and the two people, who had fallen in where S. Eighth Street ends at the river, had been carried by the current.

Mr. Bong returned to the tavern and obtained a chain and then ran to the east side of the river where the woman was in the greatest danger. When he reached the embankment directly above her, he secured the chain to a tree and lowered himself approximately twelve feet into the water and was able to raise the woman, whose legs had collapsed, to an upright position, lifting her body from the water. Minutes later the Fire Department arrived, and all three were removed from the river.

The children, who did not speak English, were dropped off at the wrong corner by a school bus and had spent approximately six hours wandering around the south side of Milwaukee attempting to find their way home.

Information of the missing children was broadcast, and Mr. Haliburton and Mr. Lopez took it upon themselves to search for the children, and at 9:45 P.M. they found the children walking in the 800 Block of S. 16th Street. They immediately took the cold and hungry children to a nearby restaurant and notified authorities.

One of the Officers pursued the subject on foot, and it was at this time that Mr. Geurtsen and Mr. Seekamp observed him and volunteered to help. They began checking the area and soon saw the subject entering a rear yard. Mr. Seekamp left the auto and located the man hiding in the yard and signaled to Mr. Geurtsen who then blocked the suspect's escape. The man then took a knife from his pocket, threatened to kill Mr. Geurtsen and lunged at him, shoving him out of his way, and ran to the street. Both Mr. Geurtsen and Mr. Seekamp again gave chase on foot and then noticed Police Officers who were also searching the area. Ms. Hughes, pretending someone else was in her home, yelled, "Go get the gun" at which time the suspects fled down the stairs and out the back door. Looking out the window, Ms. Hughes saw two black males run from the scene and enter a car and speed off. She noted the description of the car and gave this information to Police Officers who had been dispatched to the reported entry. The car was soon spotted and stopped by Officers, and a search of the auto revealed items taken in an earlier burglary. The two occupants implicated a third accomplice, and as a result, a total of 77 daytime residential burglaries and 7 complaints of criminal trespassing to dwelling were cleared.

One of them was apprehended a short distance away, and a second suspect ran up the freeway embankment at Sixth and Juneau and then onto the freeway. At the Sixth Street overpass, Michael and Edward Ryan, who had observed the chase while in their truck, exited their vehicle and continued chasing the suspect on foot. The subject attempted to jump from the overpass, but was grabbed by the Ryan brothers and the police officer and was pulled back over the railing. Investigation disclosed that the subjects had burglarized the Milwaukee Sentinel Sports Show at MECCA and were on their way home with the stolen items when they were arrested.

Mr. Meissner then heard fire sirens and assuming firefighters were on the way, he got into his automobile and searched the neighborhood for the juveniles. A short distance away, he saw one of the boys who returned to the scene to watch the fire. As Mr. Meissner attempted to apprehend the youth, he fled on foot, but after more than a block chase, Mr. Meissner caught the subject and returned him to the scene.
