CITATIONS

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

Detective James P. O'Brien and Detective Dennis J. Keller, of the Vice Squad are awarded a Class 'E' Commendatory Letter, and Police Officer Brenda D. Robertson, of the Youth Aid Bureau, is awarded a Class 'D' Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

In November of 1978, Detectives Dennis Keller and James O'Brien, and Police Officer Brenda Robertson commenced an investigation into a major drug dealing operation within the City of Milwaukee. The family members of the drug ring had been known to be involved in illicit drug sales since 1967, but all efforts to infiltrate the group had failed.

The investigation by Detectives O'Brien and Keller and Officer Robertson continued for seventeen months and finally resulted in the issuance of multiple charges of delivery of controlled substances against seventeen members of the heroin trafficking group.

Under the guidance of Detectives Keller and O'Brien, Officer Robertson infiltrated the drug ring, made drug purchases, and gathered evidence for court presentation. Officer Robertson continually placed herself in a dangerous position under the surveillance of Detectives O'Brien and Keller, and their persistent efforts shut down a major drug ring operating within the City of Milwaukee.

Police Sergeant Callan A. Barry and Police Officer Gregory J. Fritz, of the Second District, awarded a Class 'E' Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On April 15, 1980, at 10:30 P.M., Police Officer Gregory Fritz noticed flames and heavy black smoke emanating from Cell 26 in the Second District Station. Officer Fritz immediately alerted Sergeant Callan Barry by calling for a fire extinguisher, and he sought the keys to the cell which was occupied by an adult male prisoner. A foam mattress was ablaze in the cell resulting in waist high flames and dense smoke.

After obtaining the fire extinguisher and keys to the cell, Sergeant Barry and Officer Fritz gained access to the smoke-filled cell and physically removed the prisoner, who was huddled in a corner of the cell and failed to respond to the calls of Sergeant Barry and Officer Fritz. Both Sergeant Barry and Officer Fritz were subsequently treated for smoke inhalation.

Police Officer Dennis J. Vento, Seventh District, is hereby awarded a Class 'E' Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On May 21, 1980, while off duty and in his residence, Officer Vento was informed that the wife of his next door neighbor had passed out in the yard. Officer Vento proceeded to the scene and found the woman laying on her back with her eyes and mouth open and her skin a bluish color. He noted that the woman was not breathing, and he could not detect any pulse.

Officer Vento immediately administered cardiopulmonary resuscitation, and he continued this procedure until arrival of a paramedic unit. The paramedics worked on the woman for fifteen minutes after which she responded and began to breathe. A doctor who treated the woman at St. Joseph's Hospital later said that Officer Vento's actions were commendable in that even though a subject is not breathing at the time CPR is administered, it is crucial that they be ventilated to supply oxygen to the brain.

Police Officer Dennis J. Vento, Seventh District, is hereby awarded a Class 'E' Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On July 7, 1980, at 5:40 P.M., Police Officer Dennis Vento, along with other officers, was dispatched to the residence at 2456-A N. 34th Street to investigate a report of a 'Man attempting suicide.' Upon arrival, Officer Vento entered the kitchen of the residence and was confronted by a man armed with a large butcher knife. The emotionally upset man had a hearing deficiency and could not speak; consequently, Officer Vento communicated with him by writing notes. In his response, the subject informed Officer Vento that he wanted to die and that he had already taken numerous pills. Further, he threatened to kill anyone if they came close or tried to stop him.

Over a period of approximately one hour, during which the subject continued to brandish the butcher knife in a threatening manner, Officer Vento calmly reasoned with the man through written notes and he eventually persuaded him to put the knife down and go to a hospital.

Police Officer Michael R. Ziarnik, First District, is hereby awarded a Class 'D' Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances.

On April 12, 1980, at 4:00 A.M., Police Officer Ziarnik and his partner monitored a call of 'Man in the river' just south of Clybourn Street bridge and they proceeded to the scene to render whatever assistance was required.

Upon arrival, they learned that a transient had been sleeping near a Wisconsin Electric Power Company hot air discharge vent bordering the river and that he had rolled into the river. The officers on the scene made several attempts to throw a life ring to the man but all proved unsuccessful.

When it became apparent that the man was making no attempt to save himself and all but the top of his head disappeared beneath the water, Officer Ziarnik removed his squad jacket and gun belt and jumped into the river. Swimming to the man's position in the river, Officer Ziarnik grasped the subject and began swimming back towards the bank at which time fellow officers threw him a life ring which he placed over the right arm of the victim. Upon reaching the river bank, the other officers assisted Officer Ziarnik and the man from the 38 degree water.

Police Sergeant James J. Dunn, Fourth District, is hereby awarded a Class 'D' Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On July 7, 1980, Sergeant Dunn was vacationing at Silver Springs Lake in Neshkoro, Wisconsin, when he heard cries for help coming from the direction of the lake. Upon checking for the source of those cries, Sergeant Dunn observed a capsized boat with several people in the water, and he immediately obtained oars and launched his boat in a rescue attempt.

CITATIONS

“SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY”

As Sergeant Dunn approached the capsized boat, he observed an adult male holding a small child sink below the surface of the water. The man and child then re-surfaced and the man attempted to throw the child to Sergeant Dunn, yelling, ‘Save Jimmy.’ The child did not travel the intervening distance and sank, but Sergeant Dunn dove into the water and brought the child to the surface. He then swam to his boat and placed the child in it.

Sergeant Dunn then turned his attention to the adult male, who was still struggling in the water, and he maneuvered his boat to him by swimming alongside of it. With the assistance of a teenage youth, Sergeant Dunn assisted the man in holding onto his boat until additional boats arrived on the scene.

Police Sergeant Gary E. Lentz, First District, is hereby awarded a Class ‘D’ Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On December 19, 1979, at 2:50 P.M., while off duty and visiting his parents’ home in the 4700 block of W. Congress Street, Sergeant Gary Lentz observed a black male walking by the home at a very brisk pace. The subject kept looking behind him and then reached into the chest area of his overcoat and pulled out a woman’s purse from which he removed several items and placed them into his trouser pockets. His suspicious actions led Sergeant Lentz to believe that a crime had taken place and he, therefore, placed himself on duty, exited the residence and followed the subject in his private auto in an attempt to conduct a field interview.

The subject became aware that Sergeant Lentz was following him, and he headed into the Park Lawn Housing Project, at which time Sergeant Lentz parked his auto, approached the subject on foot, and identified himself as a police officer. The subject began running southbound through the housing project with Sergeant Lentz in pursuit, and the chase continued for approximately six city blocks. It finally ended at the rear of 4173 North 45th Street where Sergeant Lentz took the subject into custody. A search of the man revealed a 10” bladed knife.

Investigation revealed that the subject had robbed an elderly woman of her purse at knife point in the Capitol Court parking lot, and he was in the process of fleeing the scene when observed by Sergeant Lentz.

Police Officer Thomas J. Deja, Sixth District, and Police Officer Glenn A. Lundquist, Third District, awarded a Class ‘E’ Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On October 21, 1979, at 11:30 P.M., while on routine patrol, Police Officers Thomas Deja and Glenn Lundquist were stopped by a juvenile who stated that the residence at 3306-08 W. Greenfield Avenue was possibly on fire and that there were persons residing in the upstairs flat. The officers affirmed that a fire was in progress and promptly notified the Fire Department via the police dispatcher.

Finding the door to the building secured and the lower flat filled with dense smoke, Officers Deja and Lundquist smashed several windows which allowed the lower portion of the building to ventilate and enabled them to gain access to the second floor. Upon reaching the upstairs living quarters, the officers aroused a man and wife and their four children and led them to safety. All of the citizens were sound asleep and unaware that their residence was on fire.

CITATIONS

“SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY”

Police Officer Kendel D. Feilen, Second District, is hereby awarded a Class 'E' Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On November 20, 1979, at 6:30 P.M., Police Officer Kendel Feilen and his partners were dispatched to 2231 S. 15th Street to investigate a 'suicide in progress.' Upon arrival, the officers learned from an upstairs tenant that a woman residing in the lower flat had placed her 'Last Will and Testament' in the door earlier that evening and that she indicated she was going to take her life. The tenant further said that he checked around and found the woman's auto in the garage with the motor running.

The officers promptly proceeded to the garage and found the remote control overhead door and the service door secured. Breaking the service door free was to no avail as the auto in the garage was tight against the door; consequently, the officers found it necessary to pull boards off a window and smash the glass.

Officer Feilen then removed his coat and entered the carbon monoxide filled garage by crawling through the window. Squeezing between the garage wall and the driver's side of the auto, he observed the woman slumped over in the front seat and he succeeded in reaching in and turning off the auto's ignition. Officer Feilen then located a switch that activated the overhead door and he proceeded to revive the woman who was conveyed to County General Hospital for treatment.

Police Officer Brian G. Otzelberger, Third District, is hereby awarded a Class 'E' Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On February 1, 1980, at 5:40 A.M., Police Officer Brian Otzelberger and his partner monitored a dispatch of 'trouble with a man' at 155 N. Story Parkway, and since they had investigated a similar complaint only two blocks away a few minutes prior, they responded to this second call. Upon arrival, Officer Otzelberger went to the front of the home while his partner went to the rear of the residence. Looking through the front window, Officer Otzelberger observed a man standing in the kitchen holding a large butcher knife which appeared to be covered with blood.

Officer Otzelberger immediately entered the home through the front door and proceeded to the kitchen area where he observed the man with the knife standing over an elderly man and woman demanding their money. The elderly couple were bleeding profusely from knife wounds suffered at the hands of the assailant and pleaded with Officer Otzelberger for assistance. Officer Otzelberger ordered the subject to drop the knife, but the subject turned towards the officer with the knife in his hand. Simultaneously, Officer Otzelberger kicked the knife out of the subject's hand and after a brief struggle was able to subdue the subject, with the assistance of his partner.

Investigation disclosed that the assailant had forcibly entered the elderly couple's home, viciously attacked them with a knife and demanded money.

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

On April 24, 1980, at 1:59 A.M., while on routine patrol, Police Officers Edwin Johnson and Thomas Tuchel observed flames and smoke emanating from the northwest corner of the Biltmore Apartments, 1343 W. Wisconsin Avenue. After summoning the Fire Department via the police dispatcher, the officers entered the burning, smoke-filled building and proceeded to pound on apartment doors and shout to alert the occupants.

In a concerted effort, the officers alerted occupants on all four floors of the apartment building, and they were successful in evacuating 178 residents including an elderly, deaf woman who was unaware of the impending danger. Both officers were subsequently treated for smoke inhalation.

Police Officer Jack P. Champion and Police Officer Michael D. Pohl, of the Sixth District, awarded a Class 'E' Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

Street. After notifying the Fire Department via the police dispatcher, they proceeded to the residence and encountered a woman and small child fleeing from the first floor of the flame engulfed home.

Simultaneously, their attention was drawn to the second floor front porch where a man clad in his underwear was calling for help. Unable to ascend an interior stairway to the second floor because of flames and dense smoke, Officers Champion and Pohl instructed the man to climb over the porch railing and lower himself onto the shoulders of Officer Champion, who now had positioned himself on the first floor railing.

Officer Pohl supported Officer Champion by grasping him by the belt and legs; and as the man started to descend, the rain gutter he was holding onto gave way and he plummeted onto Officer Champion's shoulders. The officers were nevertheless able to catch the man and place him on the ground uninjured.

Mr. Heaton told the suspect to remain while he called the police but as he was placing the call, the subject ran to the rear door. Mr. Heaton chased him, caught him by the back of the neck and returned him to the dining room. He told him to lie on the floor and held a claw hammer over his head while he called the police. William Fischer, an employee, witnessed the offense, and as the suspects were leaving, he crawled to the parcel pick-up door to see in what direction the men fled and to see if they were going to a waiting automobile. Mr. Fischer was unable to see the suspects so he left the store and went to the rear where he saw them get into a silver Cadillac. He ran towards the car in an effort to obtain a better description and try to get the license number, and when he was approximately 100 feet from the vehicle, one of the men turned and fired several shots at Mr. Fischer at which time he returned to the store to await police officers.

While in their nearby residence, Ronald and Susan Kilian heard gunshots and observed a black male shooting towards a white youth. She then called the Police Department and continued to observe the subjects who had gone down the hill and were pounding on the rear doors of the stores. Upon arrival of a police officer, Ms. Rohrschneider advised him of her observations. The officer called for assistance and while waiting, he disabled the suspects' auto while continuing to watch the subjects. In a later interview, Ms. Eagen recalled that she had talked to the subject who had stated he had observed the fire from a bicycle shop at Delaware and Oklahoma. Knowing it would be impossible to see the fire from that location, the detectives interviewed the operator of a bicycle shop in the area, and the owner stated he had a customer matching their description and gave the officers a possible address of the subject which was across the alley from where he had been observed by Ms. Eagen. Further investigation led to the arrest of a 35-year-old man who admitted setting twelve fires.

He stopped his car and pursued the subject but lost sight of him. During the chase, Police Aide Fischer was informed by an unknown juvenile that the suspect had run into a nearby residence, and he notified police; however, a search of the building failed to locate the youth.

The following day while at work, Police aide Fischer was informed that a black youth fitting the description of the purse snatcher was arrested for resisting an officer and after viewing the suspect, he was able to make a positive identification.

SEAN M. YOUNG, age 17. Shortly after 1:00 P.M. on November 1, 1980, Mr. Young, an employee of Howard Johnson's Hotel, 611 W. Wisconsin Avenue, observed a man enter the hotel concealing a bulky item under his coat.

Mr. Young alerted the hotel manager and they followed the subject to the men's room where he was found going through the contents of a woman's purse. Upon seeing the hotel employees, the suspect fled from the hotel. Mr. Young chased him for several blocks and alerted a police officer who apprehended the suspect. The purse, which had been discarded on a parking lot during the chase, was recovered and returned to the owner. Investigation disclosed that the purse had been taken from a woman who was making a phone call at the Greyhound Bus Depot.

REYNALDO A. RENTERIA, age 35, JERALD LOWTHER, age 27, and VINCENT LOPEZ, age 26.

Early in the evening of November 4, 1980, a 58-year-old woman who was waiting for a bus on 49th and North Avenue was attacked by a black male who knocked her to the ground, struck her several times and grabbed her two purses. A police officer investigating a traffic accident nearby heard the woman's screams and ran to aid her and attempted to apprehend the suspect.

At this time, Reynaldo Renteria joined in the pursuit of the suspect and during the chase, jumped over several fences. The officer and Mr. Renteria were soon joined by Jerald Lowther and Vincent Lopez, and the assailant was finally stopped by Mr. Lopez. However, during a struggle, the suspect broke loose and continued running. Mr. Lowther continued the pursuit and jumped another fence and in so doing cut his left hand, requiring four stitches. He nevertheless succeeded in catching the suspect and was assisted by Mr. Lopez and Mr. Renteria in holding him until the police officer was able to place handcuffs on him. During the struggle, Mr. Renteria was bitten by the suspect and suffered a laceration and fracture of the right index finger. The purse was later recovered and all monies returned to the victim. The suspect was arrested on a charge of robbery.

MARION KULIG, age 51, and her sons, DAVID, age 28, and ROBERT, age 24. At approximately 9:00 P.M. on November 10, 1980, Marion Kulig was in the rear of her home when she saw a figure at the bedroom window of her neighbor's house. She noticed that the storm window had been removed and was placed against the house. Mrs. Kulig called to her sons who were inside and informed them that someone was breaking in next door and that the suspects had just run from the yard.

David and Robert Kulig then took off in pursuit of the subjects, and Mrs. Kulig went inside and called the police. During the chase, the brothers met two police officers who were responding to another call in the area, and they informed the officers what had transpired and supplied them with descriptions of the suspects. The information was broadcast over the police radio and police later apprehended three subjects who were charged with attempt burglary.

GARY N. GARSKI, age 21, who at approximately 6:00 A.M. on November 22, 1980, observed a man acting suspiciously in the 2400 block of N. Humboldt Avenue. The man was hiding behind a tree and then running back and forth between the tree and his car in an apparent attempt to avoid being seen. Because of his actions, Mr. Garski noted the subject's description, the type of car and the license number and notified the police. Investigation revealed that he had abducted a seven-year-old girl from her home and had sexually assaulted her. The 31-year-old suspect was charged with first degree assault, burglary, abduction and possession of a controlled substance (marijuana).

ARNOLD F. JENKS, age 33, a Lieutenant with the Whitefish Bay Fire Department. On December 1, 1980, police officers were questioning a man regarding a forgery complaint at Capitol Court when the suspect broke away and ran through the mall to the parking lot. Mr. Jenks, who was on his way to his car, observed the chase and joined in the pursuit. He caught the suspect, a 31-year-old black male, and turned him over to the officers. He was subsequently charged with four counts of forgery.

TERRY M. TANNENBAUM, age 25. Shortly after 9:00 P.M. on December 8, 1980, Mr. Tannebaum, an employee of the Central Watch Burglary Alarm Systems, observed a man loitering in the area of 8th and Michigan Streets. The man followed a woman to her car in a nearby parking lot where he confronted her. When she ignored him, he grabbed her by the arm and during the following struggle, the woman was knocked to the ground. Seeing the confrontation, Mr. Tannenbaum got into his car, approached the scene and grabbed the suspect and held him until the arrival of police. The subject, a 16-year-old black male with a prior record, was referred to the Children's Center.

WAYNE KLEINHANS, age 45, who in the early afternoon of December 20, 1980, observed a black male attempting to break into a residence in the 2000 Block of N. 33rd Street. He saw a second youth standing in the alley. Mr. Kleinhans, who resides across the street, chased both subjects from the scene and then returned to his work. Within a few minutes, he again saw one of the youths crawling through a window and a second male walking towards the rear of the residence. Mr. Kleinhans called the police who effected the arrest of two eleven-year-old youths who were inside the residence.

RICK A. WYSOCKI, age 27. During the early afternoon of December 20, 1980, a 61-year-old woman returning from Kohl's Food Store, was attacked on N. Pierce Street by two black males who threatened her, pushed her to the ground and took $17 from her. Rick Wysocki, who was driving in the area, observed the victim lying on the ground pointing in the direction of the two fleeing subjects. Mr. Wysocki gave chase on foot and apprehended one of the suspects who was identified by the victim as being her assailant. Even though the suspect broke away three times, Mr. Wysocki succeeded in overcoming him and holding him until the arrival of police officers. The 16-year-old youth was charged with armed robbery.

ROBERT D. MOONEY, age 35. On December 21, 1980, an armed robbery occurred in the area of the Performing Arts Center. At about the time of the robbery, Robert Mooney observed a black male run from the parking area and enter a nearby auto and heard the subject state to the occupant,

AWARDS OF MERIT TO CITIZENS

"Let's get out of here." Becoming suspicious, Mr. Mooney jotted down the license number and the description of the vehicle. Upon entering the parking structure, he was informed of the robbery. Mr. Mooney waited for the arrival of investigating officers and gave them the license number and a description of the auto. As a result of this information, two 17-year-old youths were arrested. Their arrests resulted in the clearance of 22 armed robberies in the east side area.

ROBERT L. GRIFFIN, age 35. At approximately 4:00 P.M. on December 26, 1980, Robert Griffin was driving in the area of 35th and Lloyd Streets when he observed a young black male push an elderly white woman down and grab her purse. Mr. Griffin circled the block, observed the youth and got out of his car. He was able to apprehend the subject and found the woman's purse tucked under his coat. Mr. Griffin returned the suspect to Kohl's Food Store to await the arrival of police officers.

KEITH A. MacAVANEY, age 20. Shortly after 9:00 P.M. on December 29, 1980, Riccobono's Restaurant, 4800 W. Burleigh Street, was held up by an armed and masked white male who obtained $115. The suspect then fled to a nearby auto driven by a second white male, and the car drove away at a high rate of speed with the lights off. Keith MacAvaney was parking his truck nearby and saw the subject, who was still wearing a ski mask, get into the waiting vehicle, and he followed them until he was able to obtain the license number and descriptions of the occupants. Mr. MacAvaney then returned to the restaurant and gave this information to police officers. Investigation resulted in the arrests of the two suspects and cleared a total of five armed robberies in the City of Milwaukee and Wauwatosa.

GERARDO GONZALES, age 22. Early in the morning of January 5, 1981, Socorra Gonzales, mother of Gerardo, heard noises coming from their bakery shop below their residence. She informed Gerardo and he went downstairs to the bakery and found a man with various grocery items in his hand and also observed that there were other items piled up near the front door. Mr. Gonzales ordered the man to stop and when he started towards the door, Mr. Gonzales grabbed him and held him for police.
