CITATIONS

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

Police Officer Stanley A. Strzykalski, Tactical Enforcement Unit, is hereby awarded a Class "C" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On January 11, 1981, at 3:25 P.M., while assigned to the Fifth District, Police Officer Stanley Strzykalski observed two unknown black males enter the Clark Service Station at 425 E. Capitol Drive as he drove by in an unmarked squad. Noticing that the black males were acting in a suspicious manner, Officer Strzykalski drove across Capitol Drive, parked his squad at the northwest corner of Capitol and Holton, and maintained surveillance of the service station.

While watching the station, Officer Strzykalski observed two customer autos drive onto the station drive, and one or both of the suspects waved the cars away as if the station was closed. Officer Strzykalski communicated via police radio with the squad regularly assigned to the area and inquired regarding the station's hours of business. He was informed that the station should be open, and he immediately advised the other squad that he felt a robbery was in progress.

Simultaneously, the two suspects ran out of the station toward N. Holton Street, and Officer Strzykalski attempted to stop the suspects for questioning and cut them off in front of 3979 N. Holton Street. As he was about to exit the squad, he observed one of the suspects holding a handgun, and, without warning, the suspect turned towards the officer and began firing. Officer Strzykalski was forced to abandon the squad and began returning the suspect's fire. In so doing, the squad's gear shift was locked in drive, and the squad rolled forward and climbed the curb.

The suspects fired four or five shots at Officer Strzykalski, and Officer Strzykalski fired six shots at the suspects, hitting one of them in the hand and causing him to drop a .38 caliber revolver at the scene. During the gun battle, Officer Strzykalski was forced to back away from his squad, and the vehicle rolled towards the suspects. One of the suspects jumped into the squad and drove south on Holton Street, eventually picking up the second suspect.

Officer Strzykalski called for assistance and immediately broadcast a description of the suspects as they fled the scene. An auto found parked in the vicinity of the service station was subsequently connected to one of the suspects who was apprehended and positively identified by Officer Strzykalski. Three other persons were also arrested, resulting in the clearance of several violent crimes.

In this action Police Officer Stanley Strzykalski distinguished himself by performing a heroic act directly in connection with his duty as an officer of the law.

Police Officer Joseph Z. Wisniewski, Sixth District, is hereby awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On September 19, 1980, at 3:30 A.M. Police Officer Joseph Wisniewski responded to 1433-A W. Scott Street to assist other officers in apprehending a suspect wanted for sexual assault. Upon arrival, Officer Wisniewski ascended a rear stairway to the second floor of the residence where he observed the suspect standing with a knife in his hand. The suspect started to slowly walk towards Officer Wisniewski, who repeatedly ordered him to put down the knife. At one point, the suspect raised the knife as if to throw it, but he heeded Officer Wisniewski's warning to lower same.

In spite of the repeated warnings to drop the knife, the suspect continued to advance towards Officer Wisniewski with knife in hand, and when he got within five feet, the suspect lunged at the officer, stabbing him in the left abdomen. At the same time, Officer Wisniewski fired one shot from his service revolver, hitting the suspect in the abdomen. Other police personnel on the scene then took the suspect into custody. In sustaining the knife wound, Officer Wisniewski was knocked backwards down the stairs and he also suffered a fractured right heel.

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

In this action, Officer Wisniewski distinguished himself by performing an act of unusual responsibility.

Police Officer Patricia A. Lucas, Seventh District, is hereby awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On November 16, 1980, Police Officer Patricia Lucas was assigned to protective security duty at the home of a sexual assault victim who had been raped twice by the same subject. At 3:45 A.M. on said date, Officer Lucas heard someone trying to force open an exterior window at which time she exited the residence and confronted the subject.

Officer Lucas drew her service revolver and radioed for assistance, but the subject suddenly attacked her by kicking her in the mouth. During the attack, Officer Lucas fired two shots from her revolver, striking the subject in the abdominal area. Although wounded, the suspect continued to press his attack. Fearing that the suspect would overpower her and take the revolver away, Officer Lucas fired two shots into the air in an attempt to empty her revolver. However, the suspect overpowered Officer Lucas and took possession of the revolver which contained one more live round.

During the struggle, the suspect had forced Officer Lucas to a kneeling position. Now armed with the Officer's revolver, the suspect aimed the revolver at the back of her head, but Officer Lucas looked over her shoulder, and seeing the revolver pointed at her head, she threw herself to the ground. Simultaneously, the suspect fired the revolver and the bullet struck Officer Lucas in the right arm. The subject fled the scene but was apprehended a short distance away by other officers responding to the assist.

Officer Lucas distinguished herself by performing a duty of unusual responsibility wherein she displayed initiative and exceptional energy.

Police Officer Dennis E. Pajot, Sixth District, is hereby awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On April 11, 1981, at 11:23 P.M., while assigned to the Third District, Police Officer Dennis Pajot and his partner were dispatched to a report of "trouble with a brother" at 2465 W. Cherry Street. Upon entering the residence, Officer Pajot was confronted by a 25-year-old black male who armed himself with two butcher knives in a kitchen pantry and raised them over his head in a stabbing motion towards Officer Pajot. The man threatened Officer Pajot by stating, "I'm going to kill you."

The man then attempted to stab Officer Pajot, who grabbed the subject's wrists only inches before the ten inch blades reached his chest. Due to the very confined area of the kitchen pantry, Officer Pajot's partner could not reach the subject to assist Officer Pajot.

During the ensuing struggle, Officer Pajot sustained a minor laceration to his right hand, but he succeeded in wrestling the subject out of the pantry, at which time his partner assisted in restraining the man.

In this action Officer Pajot performed a duty of great responsibility wherein he displayed initiative and exceptional energy.

Police Officer Brenda D. Robertson, Youth Aid Bureau, is hereby awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

In November of 1978, Detectives Dennis Keller and James O'Brien, and Police Officer Brenda Robertson commenced an investigation into a major drug dealing operation within the City of Milwaukee. The family members of the drug ring had been known to be involved in illicit drug sales since 1967, but all efforts to infiltrate the group had failed.

The investigation by Detectives O'Brien and Keller and Officer Robertson continued for seventeen months and finally resulted in the issuance of multiple charges of delivery of controlled substances against seventeen members of the heroin trafficking group.

Under the guidance of Detectives Keller and O'Brien, Officer Robertson infiltrated the drug ring, made drug purchases, and gathered evidence for court presentation. Officer Robertson continually placed herself in a dangerous position under the surveillance of Detectives O'Brien and Keller, and their persistent efforts shut down a major drug ring operating within the City of Milwaukee.

Police Officer Brenda Robertson distinguished herself by performing a duty of great and unusual responsibility.

Captain Joseph A. Kalivoda, Vice Squad, is hereby awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On May 15, 1981, Captain Joseph Kalivoda was patronizing Manning's Restaurant, 7141 N. 76th street, with family and friends, when a man seated at a table next to them began choking and could neither breathe nor talk.

After an unknown patron attempted to assist the man with negative results, Captain Kalivoda went to the stricken man and concluded that the victim's airway was obstructed by food.

Employing the Heimlich method of first aid, Captain Kalivoda stood behind the victim, placing his arms under the victim's armpits and encircling his chest. The Captain then grasped his fist with his other hand and exerted a quick backward thrust, whereupon the victim expelled a large piece of meat that he had been choking on. The victim then began to breathe on his own, and paramedic units arrived on the scene and conveyed the victim to St. Michael's Hospital as a precautionary measure.

The efficient employment of a first aid technique by Captain Joseph Kalivoda saved a man from possible death.

gery to his right shoulder, Police Sergeant Gary Lentz observed two suspicious black males running behind his home on the far northwest side. Being aware of a previous burglary in the neighborhood and alert to the fact that the house south of his residence was unoccupied during the day and a prime target, Sergeant Lentz decided to investigate.

Sergeant Lentz armed himself with a 12 gauge shotgun because he felt his temporary disability would greatly hinder him in the event the suspects were armed and the shotgun would give him the necessary edge in any confrontation with the suspects. He then exited his home, climbed a fence, and observed the suspects attempting to force open a basement window of a nearby residence with a large screw driver. The sergeant then confronted and placed the suspects under arrest, and he marched them to the front of the home and held them against a fence that borders an expressway. In view of the location of the incident and lack of traffic on a frontage road, Sergeant Lentz was forced to maintain control of the suspects in the described manner for about twenty minutes, after which a passing motorist observed Sergeant Lentz holding the suspects at gunpoint and summoned assistance.

In this action, Sergeant Lentz exhibited initiative by placing himself in a potentially perilous situation, knowing full well he was handicapped..

Police Officer Edward Liebrecht, First District is hereby awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On July 2, 1981, at 3:10 A.M., Police Officers Edward Liebrecht and Ronald Budnik were dispatched to the Holton Street Bridge to investigate a report of "man intending to jump."

Upon arrival, the officers observed a man seated on a platform located on the side of the bridge approximately 80 feet above the Milwaukee River. In reaching that position, the man had climbed an eight-foot chain link fence and at that time was seated on a platform that had no guardrail, and he had his legs dangling over the side.

Without the man's knowledge, Officer Liebrecht was able to climb the same fence and come up behind the subject on the platform. Officer Liebrecht then secured himself by holding onto a guardrail with one hand, and he grabbed the man with his other arm to prevent him from jumping. Officer Liebrecht held the man in this position and calmly talked to him for about 15 minutes. The man finally agreed to move back from the edge of the platform, climb back over the fence, and accepted the officer's offer of medical assistance.

In this action, Officer Edward Liebrecht exercised initiative and tact in dealing with an emotionally upset individual thereby avoiding a possible tragedy.

and confronted the two subjects. Observing that one of the men was armed with a gun, Officer Scholz began backing to a position of cover at which time the armed suspect fired one shot at him.

Officer Scholz escaped injury and was able to take cover, and he then announced he was a police officer and called for the subjects to surrender. They reluctantly complied, and Officer Scholz held them at gunpoint until arrival of assistance.

Officer Scholz distinguished himself by apprehending two armed burglars in an efficient manner without due regard for his personal safety.

Officer Shaw checked the entire unit for occupants and finally located a 43-year-old woman occupant who was lying unconscious in her bed. Being unable to arouse her, Officer Shaw carried the woman downstairs where she regained consciousness. He then re-entered the burning building and led two elderly downstairs residents to safety.

Police Officer John M. Hogan, Second District, is hereby awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

Police Sergeant William A. Buechner, Sixth District, is awarded a Class "D" Citation, and Police Officers Francis J. Kleiman and Ronald Pietrzak, Sixth District, are awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On July 15, 1981, at 9:10 P.M., Police Officers Francis Kleiman and Ronald Pietrzak were dispatched to 3300 S. 83rd Street to investigate a report of "man attempting suicide." Upon arrival, the officers found a 19-year-old white male pacing about the basement of the home holding a butcher knife in his right hand with the blade pointed towards his chest. When the emotionally disturbed subject told the officers that he wanted to kill himself, the officers tried to convince him to drop the knife and sit down and talk to them, but he continued to pace back and forth, at various times pointing the knife at his throat, abdomen and heart.

Sergeant William Buechner arrived on the scene and found Officers Kleiman and Pietrzak still attempting to calm the emotionally disturbed subject. The man then asked if he could see the backyard "for one last time," and Sergeant Buechner agreed. The man began ascending the stairs, followed first by Sergeant Buechner and then Officers Kleiman and Pietrzak. Approximately half way up the stairs, the subject placed his right hand and arm against a wall as he momentarily seemed to lose his balance, and Sergeant Buechner seized the opportunity by grabbing the subject's right wrist to hold the knife away from his body. Simultaneously, Officers Kleiman and Pietrzak grabbed the subject around his torso.

During the ensuing struggle, the subject attempted to stab himself several times, and in drawing the knife back on one occasion, Sergeant Buechner's right wrist was cut and punctured. The emotionally disturbed man, as well as Sergeant Buechner and Officers Kleiman and Pietrzak, then fell down the basement stairs, and the subject was finally subdued and conveyed to County General Hospital for observation.

In this action, Sergeant Buechner, Officer Kleiman and Officer Pietrzak conducted themselves in a professional manner in disarming an emotionally disturbed man without regard for their personal safety.

Police Sergeant Donald E. Blazek, Fifth District, and Police Officer Michael S. Marlock, Sixth District, are hereby awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

Upon checking, Sergeant Blazek found the first floor hallway filled with smoke, and an unknown tenant informed him that there was a fire on the third floor of the building.

Proceeding to the third floor through dense smoke, Sergeant Blazek came upon a semi-conscious woman lying in a hallway and with the assistance of another tenant, he carried the woman down the stairs to safety. Sergeant Blazek then re-entered the burning building and assisted two other tenants from the third floor before he was forced to retreat to the second floor because of heavy smoke.

In the meantime, Police Officer Michael Marlock, who was off duty and in his residence nearby, observed the fire in progress from his Officer Marlock then re-entered the complex and encountered Mrs. Billie Tadysak, Social Director of the apartment complex who had a pass key for all the rooms in the building. Together, Officer Marlock and Mrs. Tadysak alerted and assisted in evacuating all the tenants on the first and second floors.

In this action, Sergeant Blazek and Officer Marlock assisted in efficiently alerting and leading numerous people from a burning smoke-filled building without due regard to their personal safety.

Police Sergeant David A. Benske, Police Officer James B. Carney, Police Officer Richard E. Jaeger and Police Officer Richard T. Jasso, Second District, are hereby awarded a Class “E” Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On Sunday, August 23, 1981, a rash of arson type fires were occurring in the Second District. Specifically, while Officer Richard Jasso was patrolling, he discovered an auto fire at 530 W. Greenfield Avenue. He immediately summoned the Fire Department, and Officers James Carney and Richard Jaeger, along with Sergeant David Benske, responded to assist at the fire scene.

While checking the area of the fire, Officers Carney and Jaeger observed smoke and flames emanating from the residence at 517 W. Madison Street. They immediately radioed for additional fire fighting equipment and then proceeded to attempt alerting any residents within the burning structure. When this attempt failed, the officers forced entry into the smoke filled home searching for anyone inside. Judiciously, the three officers checked the upper floors while Sergeant Benske conducted a search of the lower level where the fire originated.

Officer Jasso discovered two infants in a bedroom and Officer Carney assisted him in carrying the children to safety. When the children were safely outside in care of neighbors, the three officers and sergeant re-entered the home fearing that there were more people inside. Despite heavy smoke, they conducted the search until certain that the home was free of occupants before emerging. Officers Jasso, Carney and Jaeger all required medical treatment for smoke inhalation.

In this action, Sergeant Benske and Officers Carney, Jaeger and Jasso entered a burning building and assisted in successfully rescuing two infant children without due regard for their personal safety.

Officers Dennis Schreiber, Bradley DeBraska and Diane Williams responded to the alarm of fire, and they too entered the housing project.

The officers immediately began to alert the residents by yelling and sounding their police whistles, and as the occupants began to exit their apartments, they were directed towards the officers by voice and flashlight. When the residents became visible in the dense smoke, the officers carried or guided them to safety. Several of the occupants were unable to walk due either to disability or ill effect of smoke inhalation, and they had to be carried eight floors to safety and medical attention.

The officers made repeated trips to and from the flame engulfed floor, rescuing occupants who were otherwise helpless to exit and escape the fire and smoke. All six of the officers were subsequently treated for smoke inhalation.

State Streets by a Mr. Thomas Perry who directed the officer's attention to the east end of the State Street Bridge and pointed to a man later identified as Vernon Brown. Mr. Perry informed Officer Pierzchala that his friend, Mr. Brown, had threatened to kill himself with a knife and had also threatened to jump off the bridge and kill himself.

While Officer Pierzchala and Mr. Perry were engaged in conversation, Mr. Brown climbed over the railing at the east end of the bridge, and he proceeded to walk along a concrete ledge on the river side of the railing. Officer Pierzchala immediately summoned assistance and approached Mr. Brown, who began yelling that he was going to jump and that he wanted to kill himself. Officer Pierzchala talked to Mr. Brown in an effort to calm him and distract him from following through with his threat.

Simultaneously, Officers Herman Kremkau and Steven Vento arrived on the scene, and approached in such a manner that would not attract the attention of Mr. Brown. Officer Pierzchala observed the approach of his fellow officers and positioned himself so that Mr. Brown would not see the other officers, and he continued talking to Mr. Brown to keep his attention away from the other officers. Mr. Brown had now laid down on the concrete ledge on the river side of the railing, holding the railing with one hand, and when he directed his attention away from Officer Pierzchala momentarily, Officer Pierzchala lunged forward, grabbing Mr. Brown's hand and arm by reaching through the vertical supports of the railing.

Officer Kremkau then reached over the railing and grabbed Mr. Brown, but his feet came off the Officers Pasko and Wilcox entered the apartment building, caused the interior fire alarm to be activated, and proceeded up the stairway to the fifth floor where they encountered flames and intense heat coming from a hallway. At this point, they closed a fire door leading to the hallway, and this enabled numerous residents on the upper floor to use the stairway in exiting the building.

Officers Pasko and Wilcox then proceeded to the fourth floor where they called out and banged on doors to alert numerous residents who resided in apartments directly below the explosion. Both officers then proceeded to systematically alert residents on the third, second and first floors of the apartment building.

Refusing the officer's demands to drop the knife, the girl ran from the officers waving and slashing the knife in front of her to clear numerous children out of the way. The officers finally cornered her in a game room where she thrust the knife towards the officers.

At that point, Officer Boehlke picked up a chair, warding off several attempts by the girl to cut him, and he pinned the girl against a table with the chair. Pointing the gun directly at Officer Koszuta’s chest, “Little Sonny” stated, “I have ways of taking care of anybody that messes with my business, and if you are the man, you will be down because I’m too old to go back to jail.”

Notwithstanding the threat, Officer Koszuta returned to the residence on October 29, 1981, to complete arrangements for the purchase of cocaine for $1,400, and he was again told by “Little Sonny” and his girlfriend that both were armed and if they found him to be a police officer he would be taken care of.
