IN MEMORIAM

Sydney C. Snow

Police Officer Sydney C. Snow was fatally wounded on January 30, 1982 while attempting to subdue an armed suspect at 1658 West Hopkins Street. Officer Snow was posthumously awarded the Department Medal of Honor, a Class "A" Citation, the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a member of the Milwaukee Police Department.

"THIS OFFICER PAID THE SUPREME SACRIFICE"

CITATIONS

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

Police Officer Sydney C. Snow, Jr., who was killed in the line of duty on January 30, 1982, is hereby awarded a posthumous Class "A" Citation, the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a member of the Milwaukee Police Department, and Police Officer James L. Zastrow, is awarded a Class "C" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On January 30, 1982, at 8:40 P.M., Police Officers Sydney Snow and James Zastrow entered Sonny's Pool Hall, 1658 W. Hopkins Street, to investigate a license violation and serve a civil warrant on the operator of the hall, one Melvin Smith. Officer Snow spoke to Mr. Smith about the license violation and then gave him a referral slip to appear at the City Attorney's Office on February 4, 1982. Simultaneously, Officer Zastrow informed Mr. Smith that he was wanted on a warrant and placed him under arrest, at which time Mr. Smith stated, "You're not taking me anywhere."

Officer Zastrow then ordered Mr. Smith to remove his hand from his jacket pocket, but Mr. Smith refused to comply. Officer Zastrow started to grab Mr. Smith, who pulled his right hand out of his jacket pocket, producing a .25 caliber semi-automatic pistol, and Officer Zastrow instinctively grabbed onto the subject in an effort to subdue and prevent him from firing the weapon. The suspect, however, was able to fire the weapon in the direction of Officer Snow.

A struggle then ensued between Mr. Smith and the officers in the close confines of the pool hall during which Mr. Smith continued firing his weapon, but Officer Snow was able to return the gunfire, striking the subject in the left arm pit. Officer Zastrow also managed to return the gunfire during the struggle, and he struck the subject with a fatal shot to the head.

Officer Snow subsequently succumbed to a gunshot wound, but it is unknown if he was wounded by Mr. Smith's first shot and still went to the aid of his partner or if he received the fatal wound while struggling with Mr. Smith.

Police Officer Sydney Snow met his death in the performance of duty as a result of an injury received in direct combat. Officer James Zastrow distinguished himself by extraordinary heroism in performing an act directly in connection with his duty as an officer of the law.

Police Officer Earnell R. Lucas, and Police Officer Gregory Moore, are hereby awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On January 1, 1982, at 6:00 A.M., Police Officers Earnell Lucas and Gregory Moore were dispatched to 1642 N. 10 Street to investigate a complaint of loud music. Upon arrival, the complainant informed them that a man living in a lower apartment was playing music so loudly that she was unable to sleep. Officers Lucas and Moore proceeded to the apartment in question and receiving no response to their knocking on the door, they obtained a key to the apartment from the manager of the building. After again knocking and identifying themselves as police officers, Officers Lucas and Moore unlocked and opened the apartment door; whereupon, they observed a man sitting on the apartment floor holding a shotgun.

The officers immediately called for assistance and Officer Lucas attempted to talk to the subject, at which time he raised the shotgun and fired one shot, striking Officer Lucas in the face. Officer Lucas sustained gunshot wounds to the forehead and right side of the face.

Without due regard to his personal safety, Officer Moore immediately went to the assistance of Officer Lucas, escorting him to safety and conveying him to Mt. Sinai Hospital for medical treatment. It was necessary for officers responding to the call for assistance to use deadly force in bringing the incident to a conclusion.

Police Officer James J. Hall and Police Officer John J. Malkowski are hereby awarded a Class "B" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

While on routine patrol at 4:30 A.M. on May 1, 1982, Police Officers John Malkowski and James Hall observed two males loitering in front of a business establishment which remains open 24 hours per day. In view of recent robberies and assaults in the area, Officers Malkowski and Hall secluded their squad and maintained surveillance of the two subjects who were soon joined by a third man who had emerged from the business establishment.

At that point, Officer Malkowski drove the squad past the three subjects, made a u-turn and stopped just east of 626 W. Wisconsin Avenue where both officers exited the squad with the intent of conducting field interviews of the three suspicious men. Officer Hall approached one of the subjects and, for his own protection, began a pat down search for weapons. Simultaneously, Officer Malkowski approached one of the two remaining subjects and requested him to take his hand out of his pocket. The subject initially refused but finally removed the hand, producing a pistol, which he immediately fired twice in the direction of Officer Hall.

Instinctively, Officer Hall dove into the roadway and landed on his left shoulder, temporarily dislocating same, and Officer Malkowski grabbed the armed suspect in an attempt to disarm him. During the struggle, the suspect continued firing his pistol, striking Officer Malkowski in the lower left cheek, whereupon, both fell to the ground. Again, the suspect fired his weapon, striking Officer Malkowski a second time in the upper left cheek area of the face.

In the meantime, Officer Hall had regained his footing, drew his service revolver and fired two shots at the suspect who nonetheless continued to struggle with Officer Malkowski. Justifiably concerned that his partner's life was in danger, Officer Hall fired four more times at the suspect at which time the suspect succumbed to five gunshot wounds.

Police Officer James Hall and Police Officer John J. Malkowski performed a deed of personal bravery at the risk of their lives wherein they were faced with more than the ordinary hazards of the police service.

POLICE OFFICER JOHN P. GUTMANN, Sixth District, is hereby awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On July 30, 1982, at 2:42 A.M., Police Officer John Gutmann was enroute home following a tour of duty when he observed a home in flames at 4408 West Wright Street. He immediately began to alert the occupants by yelling and pounding on doors, at which time a female occupant informed him that an adult male and two young children were in the upper flat.

At that point, the adult male came to the door and said his children were still inside the upper flat. Officer Gutmann immediately climbed the backstairs to rescue the children but was driven back by smoke and flames. Undeterred, Officer Gutmann obtained a ladder from the garage, climbed the ladder amidst smoke and flames, and successfully carried both children to safety before arrival of fire equipment.

DETECTIVE JAMES J. CESAR, Vice Squad, is hereby awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

While vacationing at Kudjoe Cay Resort in Summerland Key, Florida, on April 12, 1982, Detective James Cesar noted a strong odor of gasoline and simultaneously heard an explosion emanating from the area of the general store. After hearing the explosion, Detective Cesar observed a badly burned man floating in the water near a burning boat, and he noted that spectators had thrown the man a life ring which he was unable to grasp.

At that point, Detective Cesar jumped into the water and held the man's head above water until a life line was thrown to him by occupants in a nearby boat. Detective Cesar then secured the man and held the man's head above water until arrival of a rescue squad.

While Detective Cesar was awaiting the rescue squad, the auxiliary tank of the burning boat exploded and the boat had to be towed away from the area where Detective Cesar was keeping the man afloat. A short time later, the rescue team arrived, and Detective Cesar was given a backboard which he positioned beneath the man to enable the rescue team to remove him from the water.

CITATIONS

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

DETECTIVE DAVID N. PURPORA and DETECTIVE ROBERT G. SIMONS are awarded a Class "E" Commendatory letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On June 13, 1982, at 3:10 A.M., while on routine patrol, Detectives David Purpora and Robert Simons observed a man climb over the North Avenue Bridge rail and stand on the apron of the bridge in apparent preparation to leap into the river 80 feet below. The subject had his back to the railing and was holding onto the railing behind him.

Detectives Purpora and Simons immediately exited their squad and attempted to communicate with the subject who suddenly released one hand and began to dangle out over the bridge apron while gripping the railing with his other hand. As the detectives slowly inched their way closer, the subject alternately grabbed and released his hand hold on the railing, and he remained uncommunicative, appearing determined to leap into the river.

The subject then released both hands and was about to fall when Detective Simons grabbed the subject's arm, and Detective Purpora reached over the rail and grabbed the subject's legs. Together they were able to pull the subject over the rail to safety. Their effort to avoid a possible suicide was made more difficult because the subject resisted and struggled to the point that all three finally fell backwards onto the sidewalk.

POLICE OFFICER MICHAEL A. ERDMAN and POLICE OFFICER WALTER P. BOBST are awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On May 12, 1982, at 11:23 P.M., Police Officers Michael Erdman and Walter Bobst were dispatched to investigate a report of "trouble with a woman" at 5827 N. 72nd St. Upon their arrival, the officers found an emotionally disturbed woman sitting on a couch in the residence, holding a hunting knife under a pillow. When Officers Erdman and Bobst ordered her to remove her hand, she thrust the knife towards them and then held the knife to her chest in a suicide-threatening manner.

At this time, Officers Erdman and Bobst addressed the woman in a calm manner and choosing the proper moment, they lunged at the woman, grabbing her right wrist. The woman was able to retain a hold on the knife, with its 5 1/2 inch blade, but Officers Erdman and Bobst were able to overwhelm her and force her to drop the knife.

AWARDS OF MERIT TO CITIZENS

During 1982 Chief Harold A. Breier cited the following citizens for their service to the Milwaukee Police Department and to the community:

MANUEL E. ESCAMILLA, age 8, who while on his way home from school on September 28, 1981, observed three men in the alley behind his home and watched as one of the men went to the rear door. When the upstairs resident came to the door, the man took a revolver from his coat pocket and pointed it at him. The other two men who had been in the alley then joined the suspect with the gun, and they forced the upstairs neighbor into the hallway. Manuel ran to the home of a neighbor who called the police. Mr. and Mrs. Koch observed the car pull into the parking lot of the Millis Transfer Co., 4400 S. 13th Street, and continued watching as the three men removed beer from two sealed semi-trailers and placed the beer in their auto. Mr. and Mrs. Koch then called the Police Department. After a short chase, investigating officers apprehended the suspects who were charged with two counts of burglary.

EMIL G. RAKOVICH, age 33, a deliveryman for Kohl's Food Stores. While making a delivery at the Kohl's Store at 3333 S. Howell Avenue late in the afternoon on October 11, 1982, Mr. Rakovich observed three suspicious males exit an older model automobile, loiter alongside the building for a short time and then return to the vehicle. The men appeared to be removing or placing something into their pockets. Mr. Rakovich copied down the license number of the vehicle. When he reported for work the next day, Mr. Rakovich was informed that two white males armed with handguns and with their faces covered with stockings had entered the store and ordered the cashier to place monies into a pillowcase. Mr. Rakovich informed a store security officer what he had observed and furnished him with the license number. This information was turned over to the Police Department and led to the arrest of the three suspects for armed and masked robbery.

Mr. Keschull entered the home and found a young Spanish male in the front bedroom ransacking his dresser drawers. Mr. Keschull grabbed the youth and forced the boy to accompany him to the living room while he called the police. While on the telephone, the subject suddenly attacked Mr. Keschull with a butcher knife which he had concealed on his person. Mr. Keschull sustained a small puncture wound but was able to take the knife from the youth and restrain him until the arrival of police officers. The woman offered to let Ms. Murrell in front of her, and while in line, she kept looking around the bank and appeared very nervous. Ms. Murrell completed her banking transaction and proceeded out of the bank and she noticed an automobile driving past the bank at a very slow rate of speed as the black male occupant peered through the bank window. Ms. Murrell wrote down the license number of the auto, and as she was exiting the bank drive, she again observed the car, and the black female whom she had seen earlier inside the bank was entering the car. Sensing that something was wrong and suspecting that a holdup occurred, Ms. Murrell remained on the scene and furnished investigating officers with the license number and a description of the male and female suspects involved in the hold-up.

Mrs. O'Neal saw the three suspects run through the alley and get into an auto which was parked in front of her home and drive away. She wrote down the license number of the vehicle and contacted the Police Department. The three suspects were arrested within a short time, and the $2200 taken in the robbery and the weapon that was used in the offense was recovered.

JESSE M. MC DOWELL, age 34, who while parking his vehicle in the 2300 Block of N. 20th Street on the afternoon of November 1, 1982, observed three black males running from the alley and enter a yellow automobile. Two of the males were carrying bags that appeared to be very heavy, and Mr. McDowell realized that they were running from the direction of the First Wisconsin National Bank at 2100 W. Fond Du Lac Avenue. Two of the subjects got into the back seat of the car and slid down out of sight. Mr. McDowell copied down the license number of the vehicle and proceeded to the bank and gave the license number to bank employees. The three suspects were arrested for the armed robbery of the bank in which approximately $2100 was taken.

After circling the block and parking his auto, Mr. Schreiner saw the subjects in the rear yard of a nearby residence moving from a basement window to the back door. Mr. Schreiner called the Police Department, and while he was on the telephone, he heard the sound of breaking glass and saw that lights

At this time, one of the subjects was apprehended as he exited the front door, and a second suspect was found hiding in a closet. Investigation revealed that a basement window had been broken out and the back door had been forcibly entered. Television and stereo equipment was found at the rear door of the residence. Within a short time, he observed a subject attempting to enter a side window of the apartment building adjacent to his and again called the police and provided them with the physical description of the suspect. Upon arrival of officers, the suspect was apprehended as he was attempting to leave through an open window. In his possession was a bag containing various articles of value which he was removing from the premises.

EDWIN C. WENZEL, age 59, and JOHN J. POLIAK, age 38, employees of the Wisconsin Gas Company. On the morning of November 10, 1982, a U.S. Postal carrier was attacked by two black juveniles who beat the victim about the body with sticks and fled with a bundle of mail. While driving on N. 10 Street in a Gas Company vehicle, Mr. Wenzel and Mr. Pollak observed the assault and proceeded to chase the suspects, causing them to drop the bundle of mail.

DOLORES HERRO, age 58. On the afternoons of November 16 and 17, 1982, Ms. Herro observed a black male looking into the window of her neighbor's home. After the second incident, she notified the Police Department and gave them a description of the subject. When officers spotted the subject the following day and attempted to stop him for questioning, he fled from them. He was eventually apprehended, and found in his possession were items taken in an earlier burglary. Investigation revealed that the suspect had committed numerous burglaries in the area.

On November 18, 1982, Mr. Brust noticed that a bedroom window had been broken out in the apartment of his neighbor, and upon approaching the window, he saw a subject inside in the process of committing a burglary. The subject then fled from the apartment, and Mr. Brust followed him for several blocks in an effort to obtain a complete description of him and to see if he got into an automobile. The subject's description was broadcast over the police radio, and within a short time, he was observed by officers and was apprehended a block away. The subject was returned to the scene and was positively identified by Mr. Brust. Investigation revealed that he was involved in numerous offenses in the area of the 3700 Block of N. Sherman Boulevard.

WILLIAM A. TROKEN, age 23, who while working on his car on the afternoon of December 3, 1982, heard a woman screaming and went to investigate. Mr. Troken found his neighbor laying in the alley and saw a black juvenile fleeing with her purse. Mr. Troken gave pursuit and apprehended the suspect in the yard at 4125 N. 49th Street with the purse still in his possession. The juvenile was turned over to police officers and was charged with strongarm robbery and truancy and referred to Children's Center.

KENNETH J. KAESTNER, age 40, and his wife SUSAN, age 39. Early on December 4, 1982, Susan Kaestner heard noises as she was about to park her car in the garage at the rear of their residence. She was unable to see anything; however, upon exiting her car, Mrs. Kaestner heard voices and saw two white males inside the garage across the alley. She re-entered her car and parked in front of their home and informed her husband what she had seen and then contacted the police. Kenneth Kaestner took his shotgun and went to the rear of the yard and shouted to the subjects to stay in the garage. When police arrived, Mrs. Kaestner directed them to where the suspects were; however, they had exited through a side door. One of the subjects was apprehended several blocks away, and the identity of the second subject was learned and he was later arrested at his home. Tools taken from the garage were recovered, and their arrests cleared three garage burglaries in the neighborhood.

DONALD D'ANGELO, age 31, and MICHAEL E. LYON, age 28, who at approximately 10:30 P.M. on December 4, 1982, observed a white male cutting through yards and alleys in the area of S. 10th and W. Dakota Street. Thinking the man was acting suspiciously, Mr. D'Angelo and Mr. Lyon followed him and saw him enter a parked vehicle, obtain a flashlight and again proceed through the alley. Mr. D'Angelo and Mr. Lyon continued into the alley and saw a light emitting from under a garage door, and within a short time, the suspect exited the garage through a rear door carrying several items. The two men followed him to a nearby parking lot where he attempted to conceal the items. While Mr. Lyon confronted the suspect, Mr. D'Angelo contacted the police. The suspect was arrested, and a chain saw and automobile stereo equipment was recovered.

THOMAS E. BAILEY, age 41. On the evening of December 17, 1982, while employed as a security guard at McDonald's Restaurant at Teutonia and Villard Avenues, Mr. Bailey was approached by a youth who told him that three black males had punched him about the face and had attempted to rob him. Mr. Bailey got in his vehicle and went in the direction pointed out by the complainant and soon apprehended three suspects and returned them to the scene where they were identified and arrested for the offense.
