"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

POLICE OFFICER JOHN E. ARENS, Traffic Bureau, awarded a Class "C" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On October 12, 1983, while on routine patrol in Kilbourn Park, 815 East Garfield Avenue, Police Officer John Arens observed two young men passing what appeared to be a brown paper bag between them. Officer Arens became suspicious of their actions, and he approached the two subjects, who immediately fled in opposite directions.

Officer Arens pursued the young man who had possession of the paper bag, and as the unknown man reached the bottom of a hill, he turned and fired two shots from a pistol directly at Officer Arens. One of the shots struck Officer Arens in the left leg causing him to fall to the ground and roll down to the base of the hill.

In spite of the gunshot wound, Officer Arens regained his feet and continued to run after the suspect for approximately one hundred yards until he began to feel faint from intense pain and again fell to the ground. Officer Arens then summoned assistance, and as other uniformed and detective squads began to arrive on the scene, he continued to give directions to the responding officers regarding the description and direction of travel of the suspect.

Medical examination disclosed that the fibula bone in Officer Arens' left leg had been shattered by the bullet.

Police Officer John Arens performed an act of extraordinary and unusual heroism directly in connection with his duty as an officer of the law.

POLICE OFFICER JEROME A. LANDRY, Third District, awarded a Class "C" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On February 21, 1983, while off duty and patronizing the station at 1454 N. 27th Street, Police Officer Jerome Landry was speaking to a friend when a woman exited the station yelling, "They're being held up." Officer Landry went to the front door of the service station where he observed a man sitting on top of a counter with a revolver in his left hand. He also observed two store employees at the cash register taking money out and placing it into a bag.

Arming himself with his service revolver, Officer Landry entered the service station, announced that he was a police officer, and ordered the holdup man to drop his weapon. The suspect turned and pointed his weapon directly at Officer Landry, at which time Officer Landry fired one shot from his service revolver, striking the suspect in the abdomen. Officer Landry then disarmed the suspect and placed him under arrest for attempted armed robbery.

Police Officer Jerome Landry distinguished himself by performing an act of unusual heroism directly in connection with his duty as an officer of the law.

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

POLICE OFFICER MILAN STOJKOVIC, Sixth District, awarded a Class "C" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On January 21, 1983, while north-bound on I-43 enroute to a police assignment, Police Officer Milan Stojkovic's attention was drawn to a Milwaukee County Deputy Sheriff struggling with a man on the distress ramp. Officer Stojkovic parked his vehicle on the distress ramp and ran to assist the Deputy Sheriff. He was halfway to the scene of the struggle when he heard one gunshot and then observed the Deputy and the man fall to the ground. The struggle continued, and Officer Stojkovic noticed that the man had a grip on the Deputy's service revolver; whereupon Officer Stojkovic placed the barrel of his service revolver behind the man's ear and ordered him to release his grip on the deputy's revolver.

The man then rolled over on his back with his right hand still clutching the deputy's revolver, but Officer Stojkovic and the Deputy were able to disarm the suspect and take him into custody. The Deputy had sustained a gunshot wound to his head starting between his eyes and travelling vertically towards the top of his forehead.

Police Officer Milan Stojkovic distinguished himself by performing an act of unusual heroism directly in connection with his duty as an officer of the law.

POLICE OFFICER JEROME A. LANDRY, Third District, awarded a Class "D" Citation for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On March 25, 1983, while off duty and driving westbound in the 1500 Block of W. Vliet Street in his private auto, Officer Jerome Landry observed a man attacking a woman. Officer Landry stopped his auto and went to the woman's assistance, at which time the assailant fled the scene running south into Martin Luther King Park. The woman informed Officer Landry that the suspect had a gun and had tried to rape her, and Officer Landry took off in pursuit of the suspect.

Officer Landry overtook the suspect several blocks from the scene of the attack, and in spite of being violently resisted, Officer Landry subdued the suspect who was subsequently charged with false imprisonment and first degree sexual assault. The suspect was also wanted on a state warrant for armed robbery, and he was implicated in eight additional armed robberies.

Police Officer Jerome Landry performed an act of unusual responsibility while off duty, wherein he displayed keen observation and unusual initiative.

POLICE SERGEANT DENNIS J. VENTO and POLICE OFFICER BRIAN G. OTZELBERGER, Third District, awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On October 24, 1982, Sergeant Dennis Vento and Police Officer Brian Otzelberger responded to a report of a man threatening suicide at 224 N. 27th Street where they found a 19-year-old man holding a butcher knife to his throat. The young man was in a highly emotional state, threatening to kill himself and anyone else who came near him, and he was already bleeding profusely from a self-inflicted wound to his left hand and fingers.

Sergeant Vento & Officer Otzelberger engaged the subject in conversation for about forty minutes in an attempt to calm him during which time the subject continued to hold the butcher knife to his throat.

Sergeant Vento & Officer Otzelberger were finally able to divert the subject's attention by offering him a cigarette, and in the process of lighting the cigarette for the subject, Sergeant Vento grabbed the butcher knife and pulled it away from the subject. Officer Otzelberger then assisted Sergeant Vento in subduing the subject who was then detained for mental observation.

CITATIONS

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

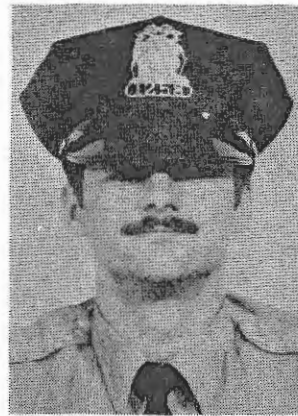

POLICE OFFICER KEITH L. BROWN, Third District, is hereby awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On October 9, 1982, while off duty and about to enter a fast food establishment at 2604 W. Capitol Drive, Police Officer Keith Brown was approached outside by the manager of the premises who stated, "That guy just robbed me." The manager pointed to a man fleeing east on a bicycle on Capitol Drive.

Officer Brown immediately entered his private auto and pursued the suspect along various streets until the suspect dismounted from his bicycle at 3969 N. 24th Place and fled on foot. At that point, Officer Brown exited his auto and continued the pursuit on foot. Believing the suspect was armed, Officer Brown drew his off duty revolver, called out "Police - Freeze" and fired one warning shot, but the suspect continued to run.

Continuing the pursuit, Officer Brown overtook the suspect at 2954 N. 24th Place where he succeeded in subduing the suspect who was armed with a knife having a blade that measured more than eight inches.

POLICE OFFICER ROGER J. REINKE, First District, is hereby awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On May 14, 1983, at 4:17 A.M., Police Officer Roger Reinke responded to the McKinley Marina to investigate a report of an attempt suicide in progress. Officer Reinke proceeded to the entrance to the pier and observed the woman about one block away, walking quickly and looking back in an apprehensive manner. He immediately started to follow the woman and began talking to her in an effort to stop her, but his attempts to reason with the woman met with no response.

As the woman approached the end of the pier, she started to run, and Officer Reinke instinctively ran towards her and tackled her a few feet from the end of the pier. Officer Reinke then forced the woman down on the pier and held her until other officers arrived to assist.

Without due regard for his personal safety, Officer Roger Reinke prevented an emotionally disturbed person from carrying out a suicide attempt.

shot a woman four times and then ran her down with an automobile.

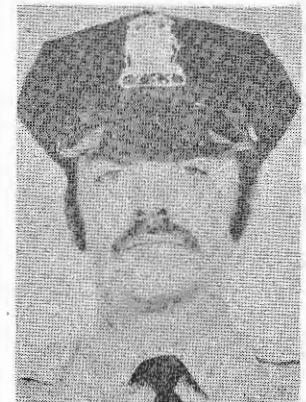

As the officers neared the front door of the residence, they heard a frightened woman screaming inside. They cautiously entered the home and proceeded through several darkened rooms, following the sounds to the kitchen. Inside the kitchen, the officers observed the suspect seated at a kitchen table pointing a .25 caliber revolver at his throat and screaming hysterically, "I'm going to do it." At that time, the subject's mother and five other women were screaming and shouting at the subject.

Concerned that the subject might shoot at the women or attempt suicide, the officers slowly approached the subject from different sides. When in close proximity to the subject, Officer Edman grabbed for the subject's revolver, and Officers Ruzinski and Zens simultaneously grabbed his arms and took him into custody.

CITATIONS

"SERVICE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY"

POLICE OFFICER GREGORY J. FRITZ and POLICE OFFICER MICHAEL W. DUBIS, Sixth District, awarded a Class "E" Commendatory Letter for meritorious duty under the following circumstances:

On June 11, 1983, while on routine patrol in Squad 96R, Police Officers Michael Dubis and Gregory Fritz observed heavy smoke emanating from the roof of an apartment building at 1931 W. Mitchell Street - 1706 S. Muskego Avenue, and they immediately notified the police dispatcher that there was a "working" fire at said location.

Knowing from prior contacts that the second floor of the building was comprised of occupied apartments, while the first floor consisted of businesses which were closed for the evening, the officers kicked open a door at 1931 W. Mitchell Street and proceeded to the second floor where they found several occupants groping around the smoke filled hallway.

The victim gave Mr. Williamson a brief description of her assailant, and Mr. Williamson started checking the area in his automobile for a possible suspect, and he soon saw two males, one of whom fit the description given him by the victim. Mr. Williamson grabbed the suspect and returned him to his residence and turned him over to police officers.
